FOILS EX-WIFE BY SURPRISE WEDDING

NILS GRON AND HIS FAMILY

ORDER PHELAN PROBE

CLOSING STOCKS

Today By ARTHUR BRISBANE SEE PAGE THREE

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

NIGHT EXTRA

VOL. 15—No. 285 Registered as U. S. Patent Office BOSTON, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1923 Copyright, 1923, by H. E. Newspaper Pub. Co. 3 CENTS; WORTH IT

ARNSTEIN'S PAL HELD AS PIRATE

CROWDS STORM COAL YARDS

WITNESS DIES IN COURT

Old Man Hood Collapses Before He is Called in Case of "Boston's Peggy"

Charles Hood, seventy-three, of Albion street in the South End, failed to appear before Judge Dowd in Municipal Court today, when the case of Margaret "Peggy" Joyce and two others were called.

He was to have been the principal witness against Peggy, who is lure for a gang of thieves in the South End, and who on Saturday was held in bail of $2,000 on a similar charge.

An officer went to his home to get him. He had led the aged man into the courtroom and was announcing the arrival of the witness when Hood suddenly dropped.

He was picked up and taken to a bench in the court corridor. When an ambulance arrived he was dead.

Physicians say he died from natural causes, due to his advanced years.

The case proceeded without him. Peggy and her two friends, George H. Clark and Edward Reilly of the South End, were charged by Turner with having robbed him of $35 a week ago, in the house on Albion street.

Turner told a story similar to that related in court Saturday by George Williams of Brighton. He said he met a woman on Dover street, and after purchasing food for her, accompanied her to the house on Albion street. There he was introduced to Peggy, who was making herself most agreeable, he related, when the two men entered and took all his money away from him.

Peggy, who sometimes goes under the alias of Rivest, has been in court a dozen times, always in the same role of come-on for a gang of thieves.

Governor Cox Returns

Governor Cox returned to the State House today after a week of sports in North Conway, N. H. He devoted a part of the day to the preparations for the Governor's annual reception to the public in the Hall of Flags on Washington's Birthday.

BANK STATEMENT.

N. Y. bank clearings	$454,000,000
N. Y. Bank balances	80,000,000
Boston bank clearings	57,000,000
Boston bank balances	25,000,000
N. Y. F. R. Bank, credit	82,000,000

NILS GRON SECRETLY MARRIED

Loser in Famous Divorce Case Takes Sadie G. Dusenbery as Bride in New York

Niels Gron, diplomat, intimate of King Christian of Denmark and recently a loser in one of the most sensational divorces ever fought in New England, has stolen a march on his former wife, Mrs. Madeline Masters Gron.

Shortly after Judge Sanborn, at Portland, Me., granted the decree to the beautiful society sculptress and poetess, sister of Edgar Lee Masters, she made this statement:

"I never want to look him in the face as long as I live. I don't even want to bear his name. I shall change it as soon as possible."

By which she meant, probably, that she would marry again.

WED IN NEW YORK.

Her former husband, according to a report today, has already taken that step. The report states that Mr. Gron, personal friend of McKinley, Mark Hanna and other notables, was secretly married in New York last Thursday.

The new Mrs. Gron was Sadie Gowan Dusenbery. She is a beautiful and talented young woman who has traveled extensively all over the world, an Egyptologist of some note, who recently returned to his country from Egypt.

The marriage ceremony is said to have been performed by Rev. Dr. Rinsnider at the St. James Lutheran Church in New York.

INGROWING CHIVALRY.

During the divorce proceedings in Portland in December the Superior Court resembled a fashionable reception hall. There were present many of the socially elite of various cities, to play roles ranging from that of spectator to important witness.

The dapper ex-diplomat had his coterie of notables to lend moral support by their presence, and Mrs. Gron, regally entired in black that enhanced her brunette beauty, had her friends on hand to listen to her say:

"I loved him for his chivalry. But

Continued on Page 2, Columns 5.

HINDUS BARRED AS U. S. CITIZENS

Washington, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—The Supreme Court of the United States held today high caste Hindus of full blood are not white persons within the meaning of United States law and are not entitled to naturalization.

ROLLINS, MURPHY TRIALS COST $13,485

Trials of the Rollins brothers and Jesse Murphy cost Suffolk County $13,485.21 for witness fees, alienists' fees and traveling expenses between Boston and Pennsylvania.

This does not include salaries of Judges presiding at the trials, nor amounts paid to jurors or officers, estimated at $500 for each trial day.

The total spent so far was divided: George Rollins case $6,467; Charles Rollins case $4,290.50; Jesse Murphy case $2,727.71.

U. S. TO LOSE SHIPS IF SUBSIDY FAILS

New York, Feb. 19.—Many American vessels will be transferred to foreign registry if the ship subsidy measure is permitted to hold over for disposition until the next Congress, the Merchants Association said in telegrams sent today to the Senators from New York.

Under instructions from its board of directors the association urged Senators Calder and Wadsworth to aid in preparing the quick passage of the bill.

FIND BODY IN RUINS OF PITTSFIELD FIRE

Pittsfield, Feb. 19.—Firemen searching the ruins today of Miss Mira H. Hall's boarding school, destroyed by fire Saturday, found bones believed to be those of Miss Agnes Coote, a housemaid who lost her life.

ATTACK PREMIER LAW'S POLICIES

London, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—A concerted attack upon Premier Law's Ruhr and Near East policies was begun in the House of Commons today with Liberals and Laborites making common cause. Both former Premiers Lloyd George and Asquith gave notice they would speak.

Supporters of Premier Law claimed he would have a majority of more than 100.

RUSHES TO ENGLAND FOR DIVORCE PRROF

Madge Allston's ship has come in.

A few weeks ago Miss Allston, who lives at No. 31 Hemenway street, filed marriage intentions with James Hughes of New York. She learned he would have to prove he had been divorced from his wife in England before wedding bells could tinkle in Boston for her.

Hughes, a broker, immediately set sail for England. Saturday she received a radio that the ship bearing Mr. Hughes was due in New York and that he had the necessary papers.

The couple were married today by the Rev. Dr. Gordon of Old South Church.

SCHOOLBOY BOOTLEG ARRESTED

Lawrence Youth Admits Buying "Good Stuff," Selling It at Ten Cents a Drink

Lawrence, Feb. 19.—High school boys are bootlegging, the police charge.

One, Max Peltz, fourteen, a first-year student, appeared today in Lawrence District Court on a charge of illegal transportation of liquor.

With him was Sam Macavix, who admitted having given two bottles of moonshine to Max and who told the police that he bought "good stuff" for $7 a gallon and sold it at his house, No. 83½ Common street, for ten cents a drink.

Sam declared that he bought his liquor from some mysterious person known by the sobriquet of "Moonshine Joe."

The police think that some of the moonshiners have a group of school boys peddling their stuff.

HUNTING COAL IN BINS OF RICH

Beverly, Feb. 19.—Local officials are trying to find more coal reposing in the bins of fashionable Summer residences, which the city can purchase for resale to the public.

Mrs. John J. Henry's twenty-five tons, which she sold to the city at $16 a ton, is being removed and sold in 100-pound lots. City pungs are delivering it. Mrs. Henry has thirty-five tons besides and may sell more to the city.

City Fuel Administrator Trask believes coal may be obtained from others in the same manner.

POLICE HEADS MADE HONORARY MEMBERS

Police Commissioner Herbert A. Wilson and Superintendent Michael H. Crowley will be admitted as honorary members of newly formed Boston Police Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their installation of officers tonight in Faneuil Hall. Brigadier-General John H. Dunn, State commander, his staff, State, city and police officials will be guests of honor.

HOLD PAL OF 'NICKY' ARNSTEIN

Arrest of "2-Gun Ed" Furey Connected With Rum and Bond Thefts

"Two-Gun Ed" Furey was arrested in Lynn today.

Police say he is a modern Captain Kidd, whose criminal operations range from piracy on the high seas to the theft of $5,000,000 worth of bonds from Wall street.

He is believed the master mind that directed the smuggling of $50,000 worth of liquor from a schooner through the floor of a Nahant dance floor.

He is the leader of a band of talented criminals whose friendships in Boston range from some of the most exclusive families to bandits, police say.

He and his band have been preying on New England victims for eleven months. His thefts are believed to have run well into the hundred thousands.

His scene of operations has ranged from New York to the Canadian line and to the waters off Scituate and off Nahant.

When arrested at gunpoint in the lodging houses at No. 148 Franklin street, Lynn, he had two forty-five calibre automatics on him.

In a room he occupied at Nahant three pistols were found. One was of extremely large calibre.

He was caught in the lower hall. He attempted to escape by dashing for his room on the second floor. Inside the room he tried to trick his captors into relaxing their vigilance. But four gun barrels stared at his head until he was started to Lynn police headquarters.

Police and secret service agents charge he is mixed in at least two score criminal deals. Here is a partial list of the charges against him:

MANY CHARGES.

Highway robbery and pirating of rum cargoes from smuggling ships.

Impersonation of a federal officer at Marblehead, Swampscott, Magnolia, Manchester-by-the-Sea and Waltham.

Robbery of cellars of wealthy

Continued on Page 4, Column 1.

N.E. Roads Win Joint Rate Battle

By International News Service.)

Washington, Feb. 19.—The grant to New England railroad lines by the Interstate Commerce Commission of a fifteen per cent. increase in their proportion of joint rates was sustained today by the Supreme Court of the United States, all objections raised being overruled.

HUGE ICEFIELD IN SHIPPING LANES

North Atlantic shipping is menaced by a huge field of floating ice about 400 miles southeast of Halifax off the Nova Scotia shore and about 900 miles due east from Boston.

The ice was reported in a wireless message received at Boston today from the steamship Eastern Coast bound for Boston.

At 4:45 p. m. Sunday the Eastern Coast passed the eastern end of a "large field of drift ice extending west fully fifty miles or more."

SEIZE FUEL TO RELIEVE DISTRESS

Anthracite in Springfield to Be Taken for Distribution; Roxbury Yard Mobbed

The coal situation reached the breaking point today with seizures of coal by public officials in behalf of the people, storming of coal companies by women and children, and near riots provoked by the bitter coal.

The police were called to disperse a mob which stormed the Garrett Walsh fuel station at No. 826 Albany street, Boston.

At Springfield the city coal yards

Continued on Page 3, Column 3.

PHELAN PROBE ORDERED

A public hearing, the opening of a probe into the office of Fuel Administrator James J. Phelan, will be held at the State House tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock before the Joint Rules Committee of the Legislature. An order calling for the hearing was passed today, the order being sponsored by Representative John H. Drew of Roxbury.

RACE SCRATCHES AT NEW ORLEANS

1—Slotter, Jim Sanda, Patsy Howe, Lasting Love. 2—Razzano, Spectator, Simplicity, Marse Jimmy, Alcatraz, Futen. 3, 4—None. 5—Harry B. 6—Sea Mint, Primo, Whalebone, Exhorter, Citation, Wylie, Our Birthday, Hello Pardner, Normal, Toreador, Jack Fairman. Weather clear; track fast.

THE WEATHER

Boston and vicinity: Fair tonight; Tuesday unsettled, possibly followed by light snow; slowly rising temperature; moderate west to south winds.

Sun rises at 6:30; sets at 5:21.
Moon sets at 9:14 p. m.
High tide at 1:35 a. m.; 1:58 p. m.
Temperature: Maximum 46 at 11 a. m.; minimum 6 at 7 a. m.; average 10.5.
Light all vehicles at 5:51 p. m.

6 SEPARATE PROBES OF MADHOUSE FIRE THAT KILLED 25 ARE BEGUN

CHARGE THAT CITY FAILED TO GIVE ADEQUATE PROTECTION

By International News Service.

New York, Feb. 19.—As searchers probed today among the still smouldering ruins of the State Asylum for the Insane on Ward's Island, for the bodies of maniac blaze victims, a bitter controversy was raging between asylum officials and New York City officials over responsibility for the tragedy in which twenty-five lives were lost.

The flames, which are believed to have started as a result of a short circuit caused by a premature explosion on the island Saturday evening, found the large institution with no adequate means of combatting the fire.

A single horse-drawn fire engine of antiquated type and a volunteer brigade of attendants, who distinguished themselves by their bravery was all they could muster.

City apparatus rushing to a point on the bank of the East River opposite the island, were unable to get across on the small ferry and by the time two firehoats arrived on the scene the tragedy was complete.

Saturday evening when the blast rocked the building, many of the violent cases confined in Ward No. 43 believed the end of the world had come.

"It is the crack of doom," they shrieked.

Sunday morning that prophecy was justified for twenty-two of them and three attendants.

Six separate investigations into the tragedy were begun today. Probes were started by Acting Mayor Hulbert, the fire department, State Hospital Commissioner C. Floyd Haviland, Captain Arthur Carey of the homicide squad, Attorney General Carl Sherman and Chief Medical Examiner Dr. Charles Norris.

Dr. Norris, after studying the remains of the building, declared he would seek to detect the cause of the blaze. He said it would be extremely difficult to connect the detective wiring with the blasting because all evidence would have been destroyed by the fire.

When the flames were discovered early Sunday morning the huge asylum, which contains over 6,000 patients, many of them violently insane, became an inferno.

Madmen tugged grimly at barred windows, sobbing and invoking. The contest between asylum authorities and city officials to fix blame for the disaster has led to a frantic search for precedent and technicalities on the part of city and State executives to demonstrate their lack of responsibility.

"It is what I have feared," Mrs. Caroline L. Iselin, a member of the board of directors of the asylum, declared today.

"We have been fully aware that the hospital lacked proper protection against fire. We have repeatedly appealed to the city and State authorities."

Dr. Haviland flayed the city government for failure to provide fire fighting apparatus.

"For some time the board of managers has been petitioning for adequate protection. We could not understand having an old horse-drawn apparatus when the whole city had abandoned that type."

Housed in the building which burned to the ground were more than twice the number of patients its capacity called for.

There were 1,600 men in the wing which was destroyed. The State asylum authorities assert, had refused to provide fire apparatus on the grounds that the institution was so close to New York city as to render it unnecessary.

City officials reply that Ward's Island was leased to the State and that it was up to them to provide at least emergency equipment.

Investigation today disclosed that a mysterious fire broke out in the same building two weeks ago, according to Fire Marshal Thomas F. Brophy.

"There was a fire two weeks ago in the same ward which was destroyed yesterday," he said. "That fire broke out in a corner of the flooring of Ward 43 in a room known as the recess.

"Two attendants saw the blaze through a crack in the floor. They extinguished the blaze. Today these two attendants said they were at a loss to explain the cause of that earlier blaze.

"We are investigating the theory that the shock of blasting at Hell Gate may have caused defective insulation and may have set off the fire."

RUINS OF MADHOUSE AND RESCUE SCENE

NILS GRON IS SECRETLY MARRIED

Continued from First Page.

it was all ingrowing chivalry. He had a delicate consideration for himself and for nobody else."

At the wedding of Grons and the woman reported to be his present wife only a few intimate friends of both were present, and no announcements were made. In fact both Mr. Grons and his bride took every step to keep their marriage a secret.

But the former Mrs. Grons, who is still at Portland, heard of the marriage—and smiled.

During the divorce case, mutual accusations were hurled at each other by the litigants, of a most spicy nature. Further interest was attracted to the case because of the international ramifications it possessed and because of the great prominence of some who were called to tell of intimate scenes in the most exclusive homes.

CHARGES MISCONDUCT.

Friends of Mrs. Gron were amazed when he replied to the suit of his wife by filing a cross bill alleging seventeen instances of misconduct. Trips to Monte Carlo with women of questionable character, a meeting in Paris with a member of the British Embassy and revels in the Latin quarter of Paris were among the things alleged by the Danish diplomat.

Mr. Gron has always had more than fair success with the ladies. Mrs. Gron was won in a lightning courtship, and describing it during the trial she said;

"When I came to earth after the first ecstacy of our honeymoon, I realized that his puritanical convictions frowned at all gay and merry things I loved. I was under his spell when I first met him. The stern moroseness of his Scandinavian nature appealed to me.

EXALTED HER.

"He made me feel exalted of all women. He told me I was the reincarnation of Joan of Arc. Swept off my feet I went on a love pilgrimmage with him to Rouen on Easter. At the foot of the statue of Joan he knelt at my feet and kissed the hem of my gown, and then my brow. I pledged my soul to him forever.

"But it was not long before I discovered we were not congenial. He was a vicious and vulgar meaning into everything I did."

The custody of the nine-year-old son of the Grons was awarded to Mrs. Gron.

HANDY BAG COUPON

No. 10 Clip It Now!

Present this coupon with two others clipped from the Boston American on consecutive days, with 33 cents, at the first floor of the Boston American, No. 80 Summer street, and receive one of Boston's New Handy Bags.

(Note—If you want it sent by mail send 3 cents extra. Address Handy Bag Dept., Boston American. Do NOT mail postage stamps as cash.)

IMPORTANT

Notice to Boston American readers who have mailed MONEY with coupons for

HANDY BAG

Delay in filling mail orders has been caused by the tremendous demand for this bag. Thousands of orders have been received. Your bag will be mailed you within the week. All orders received will be filled.

DOWNEY STORY ASSAILED BY BOOKMAKERS

The defence for Humphrey Lane and Robert L. Finn took into Paul F. Downey's testimony today.

Downey, former loan clerk for the Federal Trust Company, has turned State's evidence against Finn and Lane, bookmakers, and testified that the $127,000 he stole from the Federal Trust was lost to Finn and Lane in playing the horse races. Finn and Lane are on trial on charges of larceny of the $127,000.

Downey specified instances in which he won $17,000 on a horse named Susieanna, was paid $5,000 of it by Finn, but immediately lost the $5,000 cash and the balance of the $17,000 in a dice game with Finn and one McLaughlin.

DENY DOWNEY'S STORY.

Harry Harris, first witness for the defence today, testified that he was clerk for Finn, took bets over the telephone; that the $17,000 was paid to Downey on that day—although he did not see the money pass—that there was no dice game in Finn's Park square office that day or any other, and that no man named McLaughlin was in the office that day.

Harris said he first met Downey at No. 611 Washington street in 1921 when Downey was playing cards there. He met Downey once or twice in Finn's office.

He said he was present when Downey was paid $17,000 he had won on Susieanna. He denied there was any dice game in the Finn office that day, or any other.

Speaking of his relations with Finn, Harris said:

"I had power of attorney on Finn's bank account in January, 1921.

SAW CHECKS FOR DOWNEY.

"During Finn's absence from the office I was in charge. I talked with Downey over the phone frequently. I knew when he was employed. I knew his number. He would say 'this is Paul.'

"I frequently drew checks on the bank to pay customers.

When asked whether he had ever paid Downey "No," but added that he had seen checks drawn to the Exchange Trust Co.

Lane, according to Harris, had nothing to do with Downey bets after the middle of June, 1923, except the parlays.

Assistant District Attorney Maurice Cuvo went after Harris in cross-examination. Finn's Park Square office, witness said, had a door sign: "Gem Advertising Co.," with office hours from 10 to 12 a. m. and 1:30 to 5:30 p. m.

LOST $35,000 ON HORSE.

Harris answered the telephone and ran errands.

He was asked about Inspector John A. Dorsey's descent on the Finn office after Dorsey had arrested Downey and Finn last September.

CAPT. LAWLESS, CRACK RIFLE SHOT, IS DEAD

Captain Joseph Lawless, 82, of Co. I, 11th Regimental, Infantry, died of lobar pneumonia at the home of his parents, No. 40 Crescent street, Waltham, today. He was known as one of the best rifle shots in the State, and was a member of the Massachusetts State Rifle Team. He took a prominent part in the Olympic games. Captain Lawless had a spectacular war record, enlisting on the Mexican border and quickly rose from private to captain. He was a member of the Elks, the Moose and the Knights of Columbus.

HARDING CHANGES MIND ON H. S. NEW

Washington, Dec. 19. — President Harding was said by his friends today to have virtually decided not to appoint Senator Harry S. New of Indiana to a place in the Cabinet as postmaster-general.

Marry Me, Clara

And I'll buy the Ring at Wilson's Big Jewelry Store, Scollay Square, where they make and remodel Wedding Rings to order in a few hours. The Birthday Wedding Ring is the latest. Perhaps you might like one. Their store is bigger and better than it was 25 years ago. Come and see

Home Again

WE HAVE MOVED

Mark to the old store on Tremont Row, where Father and Mother bought the Wedding Ring, bought their Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware and Clocks, and had their Eyes Examined and Glasses Fitted in the days gone by.

A WELCOME AWAITS OLD FRIENDS AND NEW AT

WILSON BROTHERS BIG JEWELRY STORE

WATCHMAKERS AND SILVERSMITHS

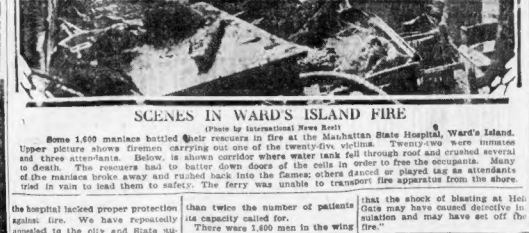
14-15-16 Tremont Row, Scollay Sq.

Eyes Examined, Glasses Carefully Fitted and Adjusted. Optical Repairing While You Wait

Your Broken

Watch Glass can be replaced with an Unbreakable Crystal. If your watchmaker fails to repair your watch and make it RELIABLE for us or do it for you. Our watchmakers are competent to put in through order. Ladies' tiny Swiss and American watches. Also to repair and adjust Gentlemen's high grade watches to beat cold and poor time. Out-of-town customers send watches by registered mail for estimate. When you want to buy a dependable watch, see us. Wilson's Big Jewelry Store, Scollay Square.

OPEN EVENINGS



SCENES IN WARD'S ISLAND FIRE

(Photo by International News Reel)

Some 1,600 maniacs battled their rescuers in fire at the Manhattan State Hospital, Ward's Island. Upper picture shows firemen carrying out one of the twenty-five victims. Twenty-two were inmates and three attendants. Below, is shown corridor where water tank fell through roof and crushed several to death. The rescuers had to batter down doors of the cells in order to free the occupants. Many of the maniacs broke away and rushed back into the flames; others danced or played tag as attendants tried in vain to lead them to safety. The ferry was unable to transport fire apparatus from the shore.

Filene's Automatic Bargain BASEMENT

Almost any kind of corset---all are famous brands--44 styles--imagine it!

READY TUESDAY at 9 A. M.

American Lady

Royal Worcester (IDEAL)

or C/B A LA SPIRITE

3822 corsets

Ideal low-cade elastic gored girdle

medium busts high busts low busts
STOUT models
maternity corsets
corset waists
corsets with elastic gores and inserts
plenty with Mighty bone

$1

ALWAYS low FIRST prices or the penalty of automatic reductions

25% after 12 sale days

50% after 18 sale days

75% after 24 sale days

Goods given away after 30 sale days samples

SECONDS
DISCONTINUED STYLES

Corsets to fit nearly every type of figure—heavy coutil, brocades or satin—back or front lace—but better come early for best choosing—sizes 20 to 36, except 33—in lot.

HUNDREDS OF OTHER LOTS—NO MAIL ORDERS

STRENGTH TO FIGHT COLDS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

THE GREATEST BODY BUILDER ALL PURE FOOD

GILCHRIST CO

TUESDAY

MERCHANTS STAMPS

Double Legal Stamps

This means a 5% Discount on every dollar you spend here, in addition to the savings which our Low Prices offer.

GILCHRIST CO.

WETHERN'S of Boston

Indisputably New England's Headquarters for "Worth While" Millinery and Accessories

The Millinery Business we know thoroughly

We stick to what we know

Temple Place thru to West Street

BOSTON AMERICAN
LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND
BOSTON, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1923
NIGHT EDITION

FOUR OVERCOME IN GARAGE

Charges Lawyers 'Sell' Congressmen

Today

Slow Killing
First on the Programme
To Dig Up Solomon
Coal to Canada

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1923, Star Co.

NEWS FROM the Ruhr drags along without much change, except a somewhat increasing coal supply for France. You recall Paul Bourget's article in the Echo de Paris quoted by Dean Inge: "This war must be the first of many, since we cannot exterminate 65,000,000 Germans in a single campaign."

IF EXTERMINATION is the idea, it is going on VERY slowly. In any case, modern ideas would not permit the extermination of women and children.

As for killing of men in battle, statistics show that population was not diminished by such death as much as by separating husbands from wives for military duty. Separations caused a decrease in normal growth of population amounting to at least 12,000,000.

ONE THING that should be done is the carrying out of Senator Borah's change in Supreme Court decisions. Now five men out of nine can decide any case, can declare any law unconstitutional. In other words, one single man on the Supreme Court can overrule the people's power to make their own laws.

IT IS no disrespect to the court to say that it is not made up of men very carefully selected for knowledge and impartiality, and also carefully selected because of their conservative views on public matters.

IN THE income tax case, for instance, one judge changed his mind at the last moment, voted against it, and then decided that the people hadn't the right to tax incomes. It took a Constitutional amendment to override that. There have been forty important cases in which one man's vote has decided, usually, needless to say, on the side of extreme conservatism.

Senator Borah demands that the vote of seven justices out of nine be required to make a law unconstitutional and override the will of the people as expressed in Congress by the Congress.

The Constitutional amendment that Senator Borah suggests should be the next business of the country and attended to promptly.

Mr. Borah's amendment is needed, not only to protect the people's right to make their own laws but also to preserve respect for the Supreme Court. It is a bad thing when the people see one single vote deciding against an income tax or against other vital laws. No need to worry about the requirement of seven votes out of nine. It will be a long time before any seven of the men our Presidents put on the Supreme Bench will vote for "Socialism," "Anarchy" or any of those bugbears of conservatism.

AN INTERNATIONAL group of archaeologists will dig ing to find the tomb of Solomon and his wives.

It would be a large tomb if he into the city of Jerusalem looking for David's palace and hopreally had a thousand wives.

Coue's Book

SELF MASTERY
Through Conscious
AUTOSUGGESTION

Only Authorized Book by EMILE COUE

PAGE 15

Since you will have digested your food properly, the function of excretion will be normal, and every morning, on rising, you will feel the need of evacuating the bowels, and without ever being obliged to take medicine or to use any artifice, you will obtain a normal and satisfactory result.

Further, every night from the time you wish to go to sleep till the time you wish to wake next morning, you will sleep deeply, calmly, and quietly, without nightmares, and on waking you will feel perfectly well, cheerful, and active.

Likewise, if you occasionally suffer from depression, if you are gloomy and prone to worry and look on the dark side of things, from now onwards you will cease to do so, and, instead of worrying and being depressed and looking on the dark side of things, you are going to feel perfectly cheerful, possibly without any special reason for it, just as you used to feel depressed for no particular reason. I say further still, that even if you have real reason to be worried and depressed you are not going to be so.

If you are also subject to occasional fits of impatience or ill-temper you will cease to have them: on the contrary you will be always patient and master of yourself, and the things which worried, annoyed, or irritated you, will henceforth leave you absolutely indifferent and perfectly calm.

If you are sometimes attacked, pursued, haunted, by bad and unwholesome ideas, by apprehensions, fears, aversions, temptations, or grudges against other people, all that will be gradually lost sight of by your imagination and will melt away and lose itself as though in a distant cloud where it will finally disappear completely. As a dream vanishes when we wake, so will all these vain images disappear.

Copyright, 1922, American Library Service.
To Be Continued Tomorrow.

FOUR NEAR DEATH BY AUTO GAS

Carbon Monoxide Overcomes Men Trying to Get Warm In Chelsea Garage

The fuel shortage nearly caused four deaths at Chelsea today when four truck-drivers were overcome by carbon-monoxide gas in the Metropolitan garage, Medford street at Tremont.

The men overcome were:

Peter R. Worner, No. 126 Wordsworth street, East Boston.

Michael Riley, No. 118 Spencer avenue, Chelsea.

Samuel Pivnick, No. 61 Walnut street, Chelsea.

James Partis, No. 20 Ash street, Chelsea.

The four men arrived in the garage and found the place icy cold. In order to warm up, they started the engines of their trucks going. The garage door had been closed in order to keep out the cold wind.

Half an hour later another driver arrived and found the four men unconscious near their machines and the place full of noxious fumes. He sent a call to the police, who took the four men to Chelsea Memorial Hospital.

Riley, Pivnick and Partis were able to go home after they had been given treatment, but Worner had been badly gassed and was forced to remain in the hospital.

Must Serve 20 Years in Prison

MRS. LILLIAN RAIZEN

DAZED BY RAIZEN VERDICT

Woman Who Killed to "Save Her Soul" Is Paralyzed When Found Guilty

New York, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—Watched night and day by two nurses to prevent a possible attempt at self destruction, Mrs. Lillian Raizen, who will be sentenced tomorrow for killing Dr. Abraham Glickstein, sits on the edge of her cell cot today dazed, paralyzed by the shock.

She was convicted of murder in the second degree.

The woman who "killed to save her soul" probably will be sentenced to from 20 years to life imprisonment when she is taken before Justice Cropsey tomorrow. She is the first white woman to be convicted of murder in New York for many years.

The last woman to be convicted, Mrs. Martha Place of Brooklyn, was executed for the murder of her daughter, 10s, at Sing Sing Prison, March 20, 1899.

The majority of the jurors who convicted Mrs. Raizen were reported to have been in favor of a verdict of murder in the first degree which would have meant death in the electric chair.

A minority favored a lesser degree, one of them maintaining that the woman did not know what she was doing, and the compromise verdict resulted.

Today a crowd of people believing she was to be sentenced this morning gathered in front of the courthouse.

After her sentence, Mrs. Raizen probably will be taken to Auburn to begin her jail term.

Police Get Evelyn in Cafe Row

EVELYN NESBIT

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—A warrant for the arrest of Evelyn Nesbit, former wife of Harry K. Thaw who yesterday unched the nose of a man said to be a prominent Pittsburgh physician, dining at the cafe of which she is part owner, was issued when she failed to appear to answer a charge of disorderly conduct.

Miss Nesbit was arraigned yesterday and released in $10 bail for appearance today. When she failed to appear the warrant was issued.

REFERS TO 'DEN OF 40 THIEVES'

New York Clique Use the Influence of House Members Without Their Knowledge

Washington, Feb. 19.—Charges that a clique of lawyers in New York City buy and sell the influence of Senators and Representatives without their knowledge were made today before the House Rules Committee by Chairman Johnson of the House Immigration Committee.

"There is in New York City," said Mr. Johnson, "a place absolutely known as the 'Den of Forty Thieves' a building full of lawyers, who make a living representing to persons that for stated sums they can obtain the influence of members of Congress.

"I know of one case where friends of an immigrant were told that for $2,000 the influence of a certain member of the House could be had to get the immigrant into the country under bond. I know that the member of the House had no knowledge of this matter. The lawyers got the money and got the man in under bond without ever going near the Representative whose influence they claimed they could obtain."

"Why hasn't that case been prosecuted?" asked Chairman Campbell.

"It will be prosecuted" replied Mr. Johnson, "just as soon as possible."

The immigration committe echairman declared that the proposed new immigration restriction law would do away with the practice of admitting aliens under bond.

BARTERING OF INFLUENCE, HE CHARGES

Washington, Feb. 19.—Charges that a clique of lawyers in New York City buy and sell the influence of Senators and Representatives without their knowledge was made today before the House Rules Committee by Chairman Johnson of the House Immigration Committee.

2 BROKERS ARE FOUND GUILTY IN THEFT CASE

Abraham Goldberg and John Friedberg, who did business as stock brokers under the name of Goodwin & Co., were found guilty in a sealed verdict returned to Judge Lawton in Suffolk Superior Court today on one count each of an indictment charging them in ten counts with larceny from customers.

This was the first of the so-called "bucket shop" cases in which several indictments have been obtained by the Attorney-General's office.

When the open verdict revealed the finding of guilty on one larceny count against each defendant Judge Lawton directed the jury to return verdicts of not guilty for each of the nine other counts in the larceny indictment and not guilty on another indictment charging conspiracy to commit larceny.

Goldberg was found guilty of larceny of a $300 check from Henry Sandler May 4, 1922.

Friedberg was found guilty of larceny of shares of stock in the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., valued at $1,400, the property of Angelo Caladrons of Brockton.

ARMLESS X-RAY HERO UNIQUELY HONORED

Paris, Feb. 19 (By the Associated Press).—Charles Valliant, celebrated doctor of La Riboisiere Hospital, with both sleeves hanging empty but standing erect and unbanished by misfortune, received this afternoon at the Hotel De Ville an honor unique in France.

For the loss of both arms in the use of X-rays during the last twenty years, he was anorded the grade of the Legion of Honor, a rate honor for a civilian other than the head of the State or a diplomat: the Carnegie Hero Medal, and the gold medal of the City of Paris.

WOMAN OF 93 DEAD IN KEROSENE BLAZE

Framingham, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—Mrs. Fanny A. Hayden, ninety-three years old, was burned to death at her home, No. 7 West avenue, Mountwaite, an outlying district, when she attempted to light a fire with kerosene today. The fire flared up and the aged woman's clothing was ignited.

Late Trains

From	Due	H.M. Late
New York (Shore Line)	6:48	On time
New York	9:05	:15
New York (Night Ex.)	7.09	On time
New York (Owl)	7:40	:50
Plymouth	7:53	:30
Newport	8:08	:15
Plymouth	8:15	:15
Fall River (Boat train)	8:30	:10
Providence	8:41	:15
Plymouth	8:44	:16
Hyannis (Cape)	8:53	:20
Plymouth	9:00	1:16
Newport	9:05	:10
Campello	9:12	:30
Providence	9:12	:10
Colnasset	9:17	:13
Whitman	9:24	:32
Randolph	9:46	:05
Washington (Fed. Ex.)	7:58	2:40
Pittsburgh	8:58	1:53
Willimantic	9:45	:30
Hyannis	9:33	:06
Plymouth	10:14	:10
New London	10:25	1:00
Woonsocket	10:35	:20
Providence	10:42	:15
Franklin	11:06	:05
Providence	11:24	:03
Fall River	11:40	:15

PASS BILL TO CHANGE BANKRUPTCY LAWS

Washington, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service)—A series of sweeping changes in national bankruptcy laws were approved by the Senate this afternoon in passage of the Spencer Bill amending the Federal Bankruptcy Act. The principal changes were to reduce the time limit in the filing of claims against a bankrupt from a year to six months and the extension from four months to a year of the period preceding bankruptcy in which an insolvent debtor is liable to prosecution for the concealment or destruction of assets.

BRITISH DEBT BILL NEAR ENACTMENT

Washington, Feb. 19.—Final Congressional action by tomorrow on the bill sanctioning the British debt settlement agreement was forecast today by Chairman Fordney of the House Ways and Means Committee after a conference with Representative Burton, Republican, Ohio, a member of the American Debt Commission.

A drive was begun today by leaders of the farm bloc to force immediate consideration of agricultural credits legislation in the House.

FARMER-LABOR PARTY QUITS PROGRESSIVES

Chicago, Feb. 19.—The Farmer-Labor party has decided to sever all connection with the conference for progressive political action, formed in Cleveland last year, it was announced today. In a letter to William H. Johnson, chairman of the conference, Jay G. Brown, secretary of the Farmer-Labor party, stated that the action of the conference in adopting a constitution at variance with that of his organization, made it impossible for them to continue.

8,000 COAL STRIKERS RETURN TO MINES

Lansford, Pa., Feb. 19.—The strike of the 8,000 anthracite miners of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company in the Panther Creek Valley came to an end today when the men returned to work as a result of an agreement with the company to consider grievances through regular channels. The men struck mainly over a refusal of the company to employ more platform men on one of the breakers.

THERMOMETERS IN GARDNER 40 BELOW

Gardner, Mass., Feb. 19.—Street thermometers here showed readings of forty degrees below zero early today. The mercury rose during the forenoon.

LONDON INSURANCE HEAD HELD IN FRAUD

London, Feb. 19.—Edmund Mansell, formerly general manager of the City Equitable Fire Insurance Company today, was charged with conspiring with Gerald Lee Bevan to defraud the company. Bevan, who was formerly chairman of the corporation is now serving seven years for defrauding the concern out of sums said to total more than $1,000,000. Both men were prominent in the financial and social life of London.

PASSES ICY SIDEWALK KICKS TO THE POLICE

So many complaints have been received by Public Works Commissioner Joseph A. Rourke, on account of the failure of property owners to remove the ice and snow from sidewalks that he has had inserted the following notice in the city record: "Notice is hereby given the citizens of Boston, that all complaints relative to the removal of snow or ice, upon sidewalks within the city limits, are to be referred to the Hon Herbert A. Wilson, Commissioner of Police, 29 Pemberton square, Boston."

TAKE BODY FROM TOMB AND HOLD AN AUTOPSY

Mrs. Thomas Mullen of McEnelly street, Marlboro, died in Marlboro Hospital February 8 as result of medicine which she took January 15 for unlawful purpose before entering the hospital, according to autopsy report filed today at the office of the Middlesex district attorney by Medical Examiner Norman Hunter.

District Attorney Reading will take action on this report and will submit the case to the jury evidence he may find involving any other person.

The body of Mrs. Mullen had been committed to a tomb in Hudson. It was removed for autopsy after relatives of Mrs. Mullen demanded investigation on the ground that deathbed statements by Mrs. Mullen warranted an inquiry.

The death return on the case, according to the district attorney's office, said death was due to peritonitis.

Continued on Page 9, Column 4.

SENATOR OWEN URGES WORLD'S CONFERENCE

Washington, Feb. 19.—Another vigorous appeal to President Harding to summon an international Economic Conference was made in the Senate today. Asserting the need for closer world-wide association of nations never was greater, Senator Owen, of Oklahoma urged adoption of his resolution requesting the President to call a three months' conference of all nations of the earth, the chief purpose of which would be formulation of workable methods for "promotion of international trade and understanding."

POLICE GET THREAT AFTER KU KLUX RAID

Springfield, O., Feb. 19.—Police Chief H. E. O'Brien announced today that he had received a second threatening note since he staged a raid on the local headquarters of the Ku Klux Klan last Wednesday and arrested W. M. Cortner, klonsle and organizer, on a charge of riotous conspiracy. The second threat said "We'll get you."

CATHOLIC CHURCH AT UTICA, N. Y., BURNS

Utica, N. Y., Feb. 19.—St. Francis de Sales' Church, one of the largest Roman Catholic churches in central New York, was destroyed by fire early today. Loss will approximate $60,000.

45 cigarettes to a tin
Just as good as machine-made and cost much less—

Ageing in wood takes all rawness—all harshness out of Velvet. You'll notice the difference.
Lorillard & Myers Tobacco Co.

Chandler & Co.
TREMONT STREET, NEAR WEST

French Kid
Novelty—Strap Wrist
Gauntlets

Bought away under present market prices, enabling us to sell them at the astonishingly low price of

2.95

Only a few weeks ago these same gloves would have cost us more than 2.95 at regular wholesale prices. They are for wear with new spring styles, providing just that touch of color to match the vivid coloring of the new Suits, Coats and Blouses.

All full pique sewn, gusseted fingers and thumbs, two-tone crocheted silk back, inserted gore at wrist, wide flare cuff, faced with kid of contrasting color, pearl buckle, pearl clasp.

SUSPECT IN $5,000,000 N. Y. BOND THEFT ARRESTED IN BEGUN

Continued from First Page.

residents at those places under the guise of a prohibition officer.

Actual theft of some of the $5,000,000 bonds.

Disposal of these bonds through the agency of Charles Solomon, Dope King of New England, and three Boston banks.

Connection with the wholesale theft of liquor from the United States Appraiser's stores in Boston.

There are other charges that the authorities will not discuss. Furey is one of the men involved with him, used three pretty girls as lures to attract wealthy Harvard students and wild youngsters of wealth to Boston hotels for parties.

WANTED BY NEW YORK.

The Lynn police say Furey's arrest is the most important in a decade. The New York authorities think the same and have sent two plain clothes men to Lynn.

The machinations of "Two Gun Ed," if the police and department of justice men are correct, are amazing. United States Secret Service men say "Two-Gun Ed" is supreme in the ways of crime.

Furey was arrested today in his pajamas. Daniel Casey, Federal agent, and Inspectors Torchess Wallace and Remson drew their pistols before he surrendered.

A search of his room revealed clothing worth $2,000. There were suits of clothes that the inspectors figured must have cost $200. There were ordinary sack suits, English walking suits and evening clothes. There were silk shirts, beautifully wrought gold cuff links—in fact, it was the layout of a meticulous millionaire.

ROBBED BOOTLEGGER.

"Two-Gun Ed" could afford finery, for on January 3, police say, he went down to Swampscott, held up an Italian bootlegger for $200 "hush" money on the grounds he was a representative of Elmer C. Potter, the prohibition director.

Then he went away with eighty-one cases of Scotch, easily worth $8,000 to him.

Furey has a right to the name of "Big Bill." He stands six feet three. He is broad of shoulder and mighty of arm. He weighs close to 270. He has iron gray hair.

He knows law, even to fine points that many lawyers have to refresh their memory on. He proved that today.

A Lynn police official attempted to finger print him at headquarters. "Two Gun Ed" jerked his hand away. He boomed in that resonant bass voice of his:

"You, Mr. Federal Officer, must protect my constitutional rights. I stand accused of a crime against the Federal statutes, therefore I am a Federal prisoner and as such I cannot be finger-printed until proven guilty."

MAY START CLEAN UP.

Agent Casey of the Department of Justice directed the Lynn police to stop. Furey was then held in bail of $10,000 after arraignment in Lynn court. He will be brought to Boston and put into the United States Court, probably tomorrow.

Furey's arrest may result in a "clean up" of a mystery that has intrigued the interest of criminologists the world over—$5,000,000 Wall street bond thefts.

It is said today that certain of these securities were sold through three Boston banks and that some passed through leading brokerage houses in the financial district. The brokers and bankers, except in one instance, are believed innocent.

It may also lead to explanation of how trucks loads of fine liquor could vanish from the United States Appraiser's stores, Atlantic avenue and Northern avenue.

Certain United States officials admitted to the Boston American today that they "expect this arrest will lead to many things" and then they casually referred to the appraiser's stores case.

Here is the modus operandi, so the authorities say:

"Two Gun Ed," who can make up to play the part of a gay spender, accompanied by another friend and two women, enter a resort.

They played the Copley Plaza, the Somerset at ten time, the Westminster, the Brunswick and the Lenox. They made a play for the acquaintanceship of the wild young men of families of wealth.

At parties the men gossiped about their wine cellars located in some mythical place "out west." The young Bostonians told much about their fathers' parents' cellars.

Then leater a couple of big machines would whirl up to some citizen's cellar. Out would step a group of men. They were "prohibition agents." They showed badges and warrants.

WOMEN! DYE WORN FADED THINGS NEW

Sweaters	Dresses	Draperies
Skirts	Kimonas	Ginghams
Coats	Curtains	Stockings
Waists	Coverings	Everything

Diamond Dyes

Each 15 cent package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her old worn, faded things new, even if she has never dyed before. Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade or run.

Freedom!

Mrs. Nellie Mockins, 609 East 156th St., New York City, writes: "For the last year I had suffered greatly from Kidney and Bladder trouble, distressing pain in the back and hips, with rheumatic twinges and frequent nervous headache, accompanied by nervousness, chills, and fever, also a frequent desire to urinate, a smarting, burning sensation, with pain in the region of the bladder. I would frequently have to arise at night, my sleep being disturbed by the pressure and inflammation in bladder. Beginning the use of Balmwort Tablets, I noticed almost instant relief, and continuing to use them I am now totally well and relieved of all pain and distress from which I suffered. I am glad to recommend Balmwort Tablets as a reliable, benefical medicine.

The foregoing letter describes in detail the distressing symptoms which are overcome by the soothing, healing, mild and good medicine. Your case is probably just as simple, so go to druggist for Balmwort tablets now. 60c and $1.25. Free Medical Book and Sample Medicine to anyone sending 10 cents in stamps to the Blackburn Products Co., Dept. R, Davies, Ohio.

Dr. Edwards' Balmwort TAB LET

Advertisement

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard.

But the old-fashioned mustard plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Try Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia). 35c and 65c, jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.00.

Better than a mustard plaster

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

Advertisement

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics or trying to patch up a poor digestion they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

TODAY'S NEWS IN EUROPE

GERMANY

Berlin.—French troops have advanced from Bochum to Dortmund in the Ruhr valley and it is believed intend to occupy Hamm, fifteen miles east.

GREAT BRITAIN

London.—Preparations have been made by the British to surrender all the railways through the British zone of military occupation on the Rhine to the French, according to a Central News dispatch from Cologne.

IRELAND

London, Feb. 19.—A report that the arrest of Eamon de Valera will falsely originate of the amnesty period, was received by the Evening News from Belfast.

TURKEY

Constantinople — The Turkish National Assembly will receive Ismet Pasha's report on the Lausanne peace conference, Wednesday or Thursday and debate on the Allied terms will open immediately. Ismet will confer with the Angora leaders, including Kemal Mustapha Pasha, tomorrow.

MR. AND MRS. "NICKY" ARNSTEIN

Mrs. Arnstein is known on the stage as Fanny Brice, star comedienne of Follies and other productions. (Photo by International News Reel.)

Advertisement

How to Use Vicks VapoRub For Deep Grippy Colds

First, It Is Very Important That a Thorough Rubefacient Or Counter-Irritant Effect Be Produced On the Surface Of the Skin Around the Lungs.

This Draws the Blood From the Congested Lungs and Lessens the Danger of Pneumonia.

THEN TREAT WITH VICKS

Deep grippy colds, frequently leading to pneumonia, have been unusually prevalent this winter. In some sections they are called influenza, but are so much milder than the influenza cases during the first epidemic that health authorities have not agreed as to whether these cases are all due to the same infection, or even whether there has been any real influenza.

"Flu" Germ Discovered

New light has been thrown upon these matters by the announcement by Dr. Simon Flexner, director of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, that the germ of influenza has been identified. The Institute staff, thru experiments on rabbits, has found how this germ injures the lung tissue so that it is no longer able, as it is in health, to destroy the common bacteria of the nose and throat that cause bronchitis and pneumonia.

Dr. Flexner also says: "Recent reports received from abroad and from cities in the United States indicate that a secondary wave of epidemic influenza, relatively mild in character, is passing over parts of Europe and America."

The Danger Is From Pneumonia.

All, therefore, behooves anybody who develops a deep grippy cold to take his case seriously and work fast if all danger of pneumonia is to be avoided. What is needed is something to decrease the congestion of the lungs. For this purpose there is nothing like rubefacient or counter-irritant, as witness the use of blisters, poultices and plasters for generations. This counter-irritation reddens the skin—draws the blood from the congested parts to the surface; the circulation is improved; there is a sense of warmth and the possibility of pneumonia is greatly lessened.

Quick Counter-Irritant Needed.

The value of this counter-irritant effect is greatly increased if it is produced quickly. Nearly every family has its favorite method—onion poultices, turpentine stupes, mustard plasters and poultices of various kinds—all are good.

A very simple method is to apply towels wrung out in hot water, as hot as the patient can stand. This not only reddens the skin quickly, but also opens the pores so that more Vicks can be absorbed. Some, however, prefer to use an ordinary mustard plaster, as the reddening effect lasts longer.

Parts To Be Treated.

Whatever method is used, the application should be applied over the throat and chest until the skin is thoroughly reddened in very deep colds, the sides and especially the back from the middle of the shoulder blades to a point just above the waist, should also be treated.

The patient should be given a good purgative and if convenient, a hot mustard footbath for ten minutes—one tablespoon of mustard to a gallon of water.

Rub Vicks In, Then Spread On.

After the skin is thoroughly reddened, it should be dried lightly and immediately the patient should be given a brisk massage with Vicks all over the parts. Continue this for five minutes. This increases the counter-irritant effect. Then apply Vicks thickly over all the parts that is, spread it on as you would a poultice—about one-sixteenth of an inch thick or more—and cover with two thickness of hot flannel cloths.

Vicks Acts in Two Ways.

Thus applied, Vicks has a double action. First, Vicks is so made that the body heat gradually releases the ingredients in the form of vapors. The more Vicks applied, the stronger will be the vapors and the longer these vapors will last. The night clothing should always be loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a tunnel. These vapors being lighter than air, rise up from the chest and, if the bed clothing is properly arranged, pass by the nose and mouth and are thus inhaled with each breath, carrying the medication directly thru the air passages to the lungs.

The second action of Vicks is external—by absorption thru and stimulation of the skin.

Repeat From the Beginning.

When the vapors begin to lose their strength, fresh Vicks should be applied over the throat and chest. This to keep up the continuous supply of vapors. When the redness of the skin dies out, all the Vicks remaining should be wiped off and the entire treatment repeated. That is, the hot wet towels or mustard plasters should be used until the skin is again thoroughly reddened, then massage with Vicks, spread on thickly and cover with hot flannels, just as previously done.

When the Patient Chokes Up.

Sometimes when the patient is badly choked up, the vapors from the application on the chest are not sufficient to make the breathing easier. In these cases drop a tablespoonful of Vicks into a bottle of boiling water and allow the patient to inhale the warm steam and vapors combined for about 10 minutes. Do this several times a day if needed. Keep the water boiling and put in additional Vicks whenever the vapors decrease. Put a sheet over the patient and the tea-kettle, making a kind of a tent.

Must Be Used Freely.

This is vigorous treatment, but to check congestion requires vigorous measures. Vicks must be used freely to be effective. The cost of the treatment is insignificant compared with the results which are frequently obtained.

Does Not Take the Place Of the Physician.

In all cases a physician should be called. These deep colds are too serious and have too many complications to rely entirely on any home medication. Vicks however, does not interfere with any treatment that the doctor may prescribe. In addition the formula of Vicks is given on every circular, so there is no reason why any doctor should object to its use, except the fact that a few physicians do not care to use anything which is advertised directly to the public.

A Pharmacist's Discovery.

Vicks VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina pharmacist. From the back room of a little drug store its use has grown until today literally tens of millions of families are never without the familiar blue jar. It is their standby for all forms of cold trouble and, in addition, is useful for the many minor ailments of the home. It is particularly a boon to mothers with small children, because it is externally applied.

Over 17 million jars are used yearly in the United States alone.

BRAGGIOTTI GIRL WRITING NIFTIES

Miss Berthe Braggiotti, society dancer, may now and hereafter be referred to as "the society dancer and author."

For Berthe has joined the illustrious group of Nifty Writers. She submitted a Nifty which vibrated in tune with the Nifty Editor's funny bone, and for that Berthe gets a dollar.

The Nifty Editor needs that dollar a whole lot more than Berthe does, but rules is rules, and the rule is that when a Nifty is accepted for publication a dollar is paid to the author. Several hundreds of dollars have been paid out to readers of the Boston American since the Nifty feature started, and we plan to continue the feature as long as the Nifties keep coming in.

Nifties do not have to be mere fiddles. Anything smart, short, to the point, is a Nifty. A Nifty may take the form of a riddle, an epigram, a wise crack, a bon mot, an anagram, an acrostic, a sapient saw, a clever gag—anything along these lines that hasn't been heard before by the Nifty Editor.

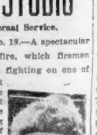
Berthe Braggiotti
Photo by Arlington Studio

FIRE DESTROYS COSMOPOLITAN FILM STUDIO

By Universal Service.

New York, Feb. 19.—A spectacular and disastrous fire, which firemen had difficulty in fighting on one of the coldest mornings of the Winter, swept through the studio building and offices of Cosmopolitan Productions, Inc., at Second and One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, early Sunday.

Virtually the entire contents of the big moving picture structure, covering about a square block, were either burned or ruined by water.



Marion Davies.

NEW FILM PROPS DESTROYED.

Sets and "props" for a new picture, a large production called "Little Old New York," on which work had been going forward for months and about two-thirds finished, were all destroyed, including expensive ballroom furniture, paintings, sculptures and other works of art. Joseph Urban, production manager, mourned the loss of beautiful antique mantels and Watterford glass chandeliers and other effects which had taken much time and money to collect.

MISS DAVIES LOSES COSTUMES.

Miss Ella Williams, secretary of Miss Marion Davies, star of "When Knighthood Was in Flower," "Adam and Eva" and of "Little Old New York," the picture being made, reported, after reaching the fire, that Miss Davies' wardrobe had been destroyed.

It will take about three months it was said, to rebuild the studio, and work was immediately begun. The loss to the building and contents was estimated at approximately between $600,000 and $600,000, fully covered by insurance.

MUNYON'S Rheumatism Remedy

Munyon's remedy has relieved so many of Rheumatism, Gout and Lumbago as has Munyon's Rheumatism Remedy. Try it and then bid good-bye to crutches, canes and pains. It does not put the disease to sleep, but drives it from the system. Relief again in from one to three hours, and often cures before one vial has been used. Send for Guide to Health, free.

MUNYON'S, Scranton, Pa.

MONEY STORY TO RE[illegible] AND BAKERS

Women May D[illegible] Lydia E. Pinkham Vegetable Comp[illegible]

Minneapolis, Minn.—"[illegible]ork for the so much about Lydia E. [illegible] Vegetable has turned pound the[illegible] and prevailed [illegible] to take some[illegible] torelieve me. Fe[illegible] and backach[illegible] and to help bu[illegible]ness up I began to [illegible] that, I had [illegible] on sick off and on [illegible] years and barely [illegible] weighed a hun[illegible]dred pounds, but now I have had such good results that I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to every one."—Mrs. J. J. BIESZK, 2039 18th Ave. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

Finds a True Friend

"Every woman who values her health should be proud to have a true friend like the Vegetable Compound," says Mrs. W. E. Shaw, 4227 Walnut Street, Chicago, Illinois. "I had female weakness so badly that I could not stand on my feet. Half of the time was spent in bed and I had pains in my back which were unbearable. I tried everything I could think of to help myself, and when a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began taking it at once. I recommend it without hesitation."

SHUMAN CORNER

A February CLEARANCE SALE of men's and young men's

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

offering substantial savings on all of our better tailored garments

Original Price	Recent Price	Reduced to
$35	$24.50	$21.50
40	29.50	26.50
45	33.50	31.50
50	37.50	34.50
55	42.50	39.50
60	47.50	42.50
65	52.50	47.50
70	57.50	52.50

A. Shuman & Co. Boston

Jordan Marsh Company—Proprietors

THE STORE FOR MEN

A SEPARATE STORE IN A SEPARATE BUILDING

BELIEVE TWO BODIES REST IN KING TUT-ANKH-AMEN'S TOMB

QUEEN OF BELGIANS PRESENT AT OPENING OF CHAMBER

Luxor, Egypt, Feb. 19 (By There may be two bodies instead of one in the 3,000-year-old tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen, in the Valley of the Kings, according to belief expressed today by Egyptologists who were present on Sunday at the formal opening of the inner chamber.

Supposition that there is more than one mummy in the inner chamber was based upon the size of the double canopied sarcophagus and the wide variety of jewelry and other articles strewn about the tomb. So extensive is the find and so fragile are some of the objects, notably woven clothes and frail furniture, that it is estimated by Howard Carter, one of the chiefs of the exploring party, that it may take two years to remove all the articles from the tomb.

DISTINGUISHED ASSEMBLY.

Never before has such a distinguished assembly of modern civilization been seen in the Valley of the Kings as that of Sunday to witness the opening of the tomb.

Queen Elizabeth

Photo by International News Reel.

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, with Prince Leopold, the highest Egyptian officials, the Marquise and Marchioness Granby, the American, Belgian and French ministers, with fully a hundred other visitors and a score of excavators, entered the tomb, which, brilliantly lighted by electricity, provided a dazzling spectacle.

TO CLOSE TOMB AGAIN.

The secret of the sarcophagus, with its golden canopies secured by great bolts hung on hinges of pure bronze, may not be revealed until late next Autumn. Unless present plans are changed the inner chamber of the tomb will be closed as soon as all the portable articles are removed this week.

No effort will be made to pry into the contents of the sarcophagus.

On account of the weather prevailing at this season of the year in Egypt many treasures will be left untouched at the time being. The greatest care must be taken even with those that can be removed at this time. The finely woven garments are so fragile that the most delicate handling will be necessary. Already some of them appear to be crumbling to dust, but the marvelous colors remain, a monument to the coloring art of the ancient Egyptians.

The favored few who were allowed to enter the inner chamber with Lord Carnarvon and Mr. Carter on Sunday declared that the splendors which greeted their eyes are beyond human imagination.

REMARKABLE ART WORKS.

Mural decorations upon the interior of the chamber and the finely wrought frescoes may disclose a new school of Egyptian art whose history long ago was lost in the mists of antiquity.

It is impossible to estimate the value of the jewels in modern money. The sum would be fabulous; in history they possess a worth that is beyond mere monetary consideration.

One thing that struck the onlookers with amazement was the freshness of the colors on the walls and upon the statues. One statue of a cat with partly-opened mouth, looked as fresh as though it had been deposited in the tomb only recently.

Tut-Ankh-Amen Is Badly Overrated, Curator Says

Tut-Ankh-Amen wasn't so much after all. At least so says Ashton Banborn, curator of Egyptian antiquities at Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

The talk about the relics found in his tomb being worth three or four million pounds is, in Ashton's opinion, the well known apple sauce produced from the fertile brain of Lord Carnarvon's press agent.

Said the curator. "It is foolish to say they're worth so much. They have no commercial value. They cannot be sold."

Tut wasn't so much as a king. He come to be a Pharoah by luck. He married the daughter of a soniess king and then waited for his father-in-law to die.

Tut's father-in-law was Amenophies IV., who, in spite of the handicap of his name, was pretty successful in his Pharoahing, managing to stir up trouble with the priests of Thebes, and then he built a village called Tel-el-marna for his capital and some temples for his new religion.

Tut—he resigned for eight years—was hardly more exciting than a Thursday evening prayer meeting. All he did was to call in the well known priests of Thebes and shake hands and called it square.

STATE WAR ON COAL CROOKS

Continued from First Page.

on Summer street were attacked by 1,500 people, mostly women and children, driven desperate by lack of fuel. As a result, Christopher G. Simpson of the Overseers of the Poor, announced that he would confiscate coal in transit through the city in order to provide for the poor.

At Saratoga Springs, N. Y., nine carloads of anthracite standing in the yards of the Delaware & Hudson, were seized by Dr. Arthur J. Leonard, Commissioner of Public Safety, and diverted to a nearby coalyard for distribution among emergency cases. This happened after a woman froze to death because of lack of coal in her home.

SERVES COFFEE.

Failing to provide coal to those who rushed city yards at Springfield, Street Commissioner Robert E. Marsh gave the cold and hungry women and children hot coffee and bread and butter.

The trouble at the Albany street yards in Boston came when about a hundred women and children, arriving with sleds to get fuel, found the gate padlocked. For the past week Garrett Walsh and his son John J. Walsh had been doling out coal to the poor in 100-pound lots.

An opening was finally forced and the applicants supplied with coal, after, the police had been notified.

GIVES OVERWEIGHT.

The reason the yard was closed, Welsh explained, was because of trouble with the man who had leased him the space. He is exceedingly popular in the district, and has a reputation for giving overweight.

Attorney-General Jay R. Benton today began a State-wide attack on dishonest coal dealers.

Dealers who have been giving short weight or mixing coal with slag, rock, shale or other foreign substances will be rounded up by a special bureau established at the State House, assisted by the full force of the State Constabulary.

Orders have also been sent by Benton to all sealers of weights and measures, and all police chiefs in the commonwealth, urging their cooperation.

Complaints from the public will be received by the State House Bureau, in charge of ex-Representative Jacob Bitzer of Arlington, assisted by Hermann C. Lythgoe, analyst for the commission on food and drugs.

Attorney-General Benton took his action after conferring with James J. Phelan, emergency fuel administrator; B. Preston Clark, of the emergency fuel committee; Allen M. Macleod, executive secretary of the committee; Colonel Alfred F. Foote, State commissioner of public safety; Eugene C. Hultman, chairman of the committee on the Necessities of Life, and Mr. Lythgoe.

Boston and New England awoke today to face another twenty-four hours of the misery that goes with cold weather and a shortage of fuel.

Leaps from Window

MR. AND MRS. J. F. KELLY.

After rescuing his wife and mother-in-law from a burning Brighton building, Kelly found himself trapped on an upper floor. He leaped from a window and landed safely in a snowbank.

LEAPS THROUGH WINDOW AFTER RESCUING KIN

After rescuing his mother-in-law, John F. Kelly of No. 74 Hobson street, Brighton, was trapped in the burning building today.

He saved himself by leaping to the street from a window. He landed unhurt in a snowdrift.

Working on an oil-burning furnace in the basement of the house, Kelly overturned a barrel of fuel oil, which caught fire and spread rapidly. Kelly rushed to the nearest fire box and turned in an alarm. Then he ran upstairs, where his mother-in-law, Mrs. C. W. Norwood, was lying ill. He carried her downstairs and into the home of a neighbor. After this he led his wife to safety.

Then, thinking he could save some valuables in the house, he ran back. He found his way of escape by the stairway cut off by smoke and flames, and took the leap out of the window. The firemen succeeded in keeping the fire from spreading to the upper part of the house, which was occupied by C. R. Marshall and his family.

GRILL TYPIST IN COAST MURDER

Los Angeles, Feb. 19 (By International News Service)—Important developments in the murder of Earle R. Remington, clubman, were expected to follow a conference today between District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine and Captain of Detective George Home with Miss Estella Lesage, a public stenographer.

It is understood she was able to trace Remington's movements the last few hours of his life.

Miss Lesage, member of a gay party on Wednesday night with Remington, told police she saw him the night of his murder and was with him until a few minutes before he drove home. They had dinner together and attended two motion picture theatres.

Remington, she told police appeared tired and worried over business affairs. Miss Lesage said Remington frequently dictated letters to her and that they had gone out together on several occasions.

ONE KILLED IN FEUD; ANOTHER IS DYING

A feud started in Italy claimed two Sangus brothers as victims. They were shot down at Broadway and Fisk street, Revere.

Felix Caporalle of Bristow street is dead. Rocco, his older brother, is dying at the Massachusetts General Hospital. Search was directed toward Lynn today for Severino Calabretto, twenty-three years old, of No. 169 Broadway, Revere, who is suspected as the murderer. He is believed to have lost the top of a forefinger in a fracas which preceded the gunplay.

The brothers were visiting with Calabretto, say the police, and had some wine. An argument, which began inside the house, was continued on the street. It was deduced from the conversation that Calabretto had shot at a cousin of the brothers the night before.

Rocco tried to pull his brother away from Calabretto to avoid a row. Felix slipped in the snow and fell. The police say Rocco made a threatening gesture toward Calabretto, and the latter fired four shots. One killed Felix.

Telegraph Briefs

Delanco, N. J. — Ledge Smith, a motorman, today shot and seriously wounded his wife at their home here, then turned the revolver on himself, dying a short time later. Jealousy is believed to have been the cause.

San Francisco.—"An order for 50 locomotives of the mountain type have been added to the Southern Pacific's 1923 equipment program, Julius Kruttschnitt announced.

Chicago.—Martin Post Blauvelt, 57, vice-president of the Illinois Central Railroad, is dead here.

New York—Four negroes lost their lives and six were injured in a fire that swept a tenement house in Fleet street, Brooklyn.

Manila.—The Senate and House have adopted a joint resolution asking President Harding not to apply the coastwise shipping law to the Philippine Islands, declaring the application of the law is prejudicial to the interests of the Philippines.

Mr. Phelan! Here's a Man Who Can Get Coal! Got a Vacancy?

Hon. James J. Phelan, State Fuel Administrator, State House.

Dear Mr. Phelan:

If there is a place open in your commission, we respectfully suggest that you offer it to Traffic Policeman Sawyer, who directs traffic at Scollay Square.

Sawyer was trying to keep from freezing at his icy post today when he saw a three-ton truck driven by George H. Marsh of No. 347 Senna street, Revere, back up and demolish a sled that had been loaded with wooden boxes.

The truck started to drive away, leaving the owner of the sled, eleven-year-old Dominic Forti of No. 46 Wall street, West End., weeping bitterly. Sawyer forgot all about his traffic job and chased the truck. So did Dominic.

"You ran into the kid's sled," Sawyer told Marsh.

"I have to go around with that sled every day to pick up wooden boxes," blubbered Dominic. "We got no coal in our house."

"I don't want to hail you into court," said Sawyer. "It seems to me th right thing for you to do is to buy the kid a new sled."

"Sure thing," said Marsh.

He took Dominic to a nearby department store, bought him a new sled, helped him load it up and sent him merrily on his way looking for more fuel.

Sawyer went back to his post and began to direct traffic over the snow and ice that has been in Scollay square for several weeks, waiting for nature to do what the department of public works is supposed to do.

Dominic had no right to get in the way of trucks. Sawyer had no right to hold court in the open street. Marsh was not bound to buy a sled for Dominic.

But the Forti home will have fuel. So if there's an opening on your commission, it seems to us Sawyer would be a good man. Sincerely,

BOSTON AMERICAN.

INVESTIGATE REPORT OF QUIGLEY'S 'DEATH'

Mayor Lawrence F. Quigley of Chelsea desires it to be known that he is alive and well. A dozen people called Mrs. Quigley on the phone last night to condole with her over the "death" of her husband. How the report started is not known, but it seemed to spread rapidly. After receiving several calls, Mrs. Quigley aroused her husband and asked him if he were dead. He assured her he was not, and today wishes to assure everybody else. The police are investigating to find out how the report started.

SENATE TO GET CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

Washington, Feb. 19.—Advocates of a child labor constitutional amendment won the first stage of their fight today when the Senate judiciary committee ordered a favorable report on a committee resolution providing for submission of such an amendment to the States.

Opponents of the resolution declared they would prevent its adoption by the Senate.

FIGHTS FOR ACTION ON MUSCLE SHOALS

Washington, Feb. 19.—The fight for action by the House on Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals was renewed today before the rules committee with Chairman Campbell reiterating his opposition. Urging action before March 4, Acting Chairman McKenzie, of the military committee, declared Muscle Shoals was the "paramount" question before the House, adding he felt the people of the country were entitled to a vote by the House at least on the question.

GEN. ALLEN TO LEAVE FOR HOME TONIGHT

Coblenz, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service)—Major General Henry T. Allen, commander of the former American Army of Occupation, will depart for home tonight.

Thirteen more snow-storms for New England, says the Weather Man!

Why not leave the ice and snow for a never-to-be-forgotten

Easter at Atlantic City

Only 12 hours from Boston, only 3 hours from New York, by the best appointed and fastest trains in the world.

If you feel extravagant, we can secure you luxurious accommodations at one of the world-famous hotels for $20 a day, European plan; or on the other hand, we can make you very comfortable at one of the less pretentious houses at $1.50 a day, European, or $4, American.

In either case, it's the same fascinating ocean, eight miles of board-walk, five amusement piers—(an annual Horse Show Easter Week on Young's Million Dollar Pier)—and the same opportunities for Golf, Roller Chairing, Indoor Swimming, Dancing, Horseback Riding and Concerts.

Hundreds of thousands of pleasure-seekers are annually attracted to this Fairy Land of the Sea.

Will it be the Easter of a Thousand Happy Memories for YOU?

For further information and reservations just telephone or write to our Hotel and Travel Editor, Mrs. Marjorie L. George, or perhaps you can find it convenient to visit

The Boston American's

INTERNATIONAL BUREAUS
HOTELS. RESORTS. TRAVEL AND EDUCATIONAL

NEW YORK, BROOKLYN, HARLEM, BOSTON, CATSKILL POINT, ROCHESTER, SYRACUSE, WASHINGTON, ATLANTA, CHICAGO, DETROIT, MILWAUKEE, SEATTLE, TACOMA, SAN FRANCISCO, OAKLAND, LOS ANGELES, PASADENA, LONDON AND PARIS.

Filene's

Come TUESDAY if you didn't come Monday

Stocktaking Clearance

All day tomorrow. Wednesday, from 11 to 5:30

Small lots, broken sizes and accumulations reduced

1/3, 1/2, and more

So many fine lots that even today's crowds leave good choosing

$25,000 STOCK OF NEW EDISON PHONOGRAPHS and EDISON RECORDS at One-Third Reductions

Sale Positively Ends February 28th

BARITE TALKING MACHINE CO.

246 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.

Our New Store at 95 Summer St. has a complete line of Victrolas and Victor Records

FORBES' VIEWS ON FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

Business do boom!

Industrially, commercially, financially, employment-wise, things are moving along remarkably satisfactorily.

Agriculturally, the improvement is less notable, and this is really where improvement is most needed.

Internationally, things are still go-so.

* * *

Significant developments include these.

Railway traffic never before was so heavy at this season of the year. The railroads are placing unprecedentedly large orders for equipment. The Pennsylvania Railroad, for example, has just ordered 275 engines, and the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company is in the market for 320 new cars. Railroad earnings for last year, figures just published show, equalled 4-14 per cent, but it is significant to note that the net operating income of December was at the annual rate of 5-15 per cent. This year receipts and profits promise to be large enough to enable the roads to continue adding very substantially to their facilities.

* * *

The iron and steel industry is operating practically at as full capacity as labor and transportation conditions permit. This means that output is now running very far ahead of any pre-war year. Despite heavier deliveries, the Steel Corporation's volume of unfilled business on hand again shows an increase. Naturally, price changes have been upwards, and premiums for prompt deliveries are freely mentioned.

* * *

Copper has taken a sudden spurt appreciably above 15 cents per pound. The indications are that this industry will, before long, experience conditions not unlike those which have sprung up in the steel trade, now that the huge surplus left after the war has been pretty well worked off.

* * *

"Automobile Loadings at Record High in January," says a headline. From what I learn, production of motor cars this Winter will prove to have greatly exceeded all previous Winter records. Indeed, the output has been so abnormally heavy that demand will have to be extremely good to absorb all the cars which will be available.

* * *

A sensational rise in sugar was caused directly by an ill-advised "scare" report issued by the department, predicting a shortage. The relapse was almost as sudden and drastic as the first-up, then down, however, sugar is likely to move in harmony with the general price level during coming months.

(Copyright, 1923, by B. C. Forbes.)

Boston Notes

RELICS from tomb of Tutankhamen are hardly more dust-covered than a mining issue which it is proposed to resurrect on the Boston Curb.

COLONY Mills at Harrisville, N. H., are being enlarged to about three times their original size. For years these mills have been among the largest in southwestern New Hampshire.

NEWPORT, R. I., will receive proposals until 5 p. m., Feb. 21, for discount of a temporary revenue loan of $100,000, dated March 1 and payable Sept. 4, 1923.

WELLESLEY will receive proposals until noon Feb. 17, for discount of a temporary revenue loan of $75,000 dated Feb. 19 and maturing Nov. 19.

KENNECOTT is expected shortly to call either a part or all of its $15,000,000 7 per cent. notes.

CALUMET & Hecla's conglomerate lode continues rich at depth. New drifts opened at both sides of No. 7 shaft at 8,100 feet, are in copper rock fully as rich as average in upper levels.

PRESENT orders will carry Lake copper well into March.

BOSTON & Maine business for January held up remarkably, as this is usually an off month. Coal movement was up over 52 per cent, as compared with same month last year.

WALDORF System earnings in 1922 were more than 2½ times the dividend of $2 now being paid.

UNITED Fruit during 1922 converted only enough stamps from coal to oil burning and two more are now being similarly converted.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Published daily (except Sunday) at 80 Summer St., Boston 10, Mass. ARTHUR HOLMAN, NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CORPORATION

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass. Also at the Postoffice Impérial Canada

Domestic rates (subscriptions by Mail Postpaid) One Month, 50c; Six Months, $2.75; One Year, $5.00. Sunday only, one year, $2.00. Outside the Postal District, Sunday Edition rates are as follows: One month, 50c; six months, $2.75; one year, $5.00. Foreign rates, three times these rates.

The Boston American maintains no financial department but will supply that part of any advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately if any error in such ad occurs.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Oils and Specialties Active in Irregular New York Market; Money 4½%

ANACONDA HITS FRESH HIGH FOR YEAR

Oils and specialties were most active issues in a New York market that turned irregular on profit-taking after displaying strength in the forenoon. Money renewed at 5 and dropped to 4½ per cent.

Western Union rose three at 119. Among issues making new tops for the year were Western Union, White Eagle Oil, Anaconda, Butte & Superior, Chino, Cerro de Pasco, Inspiration, Kennecott, Utah Copper, United Fruit, Texas Company, Kelly-Springfield, Continental Can and Canadian Pacific.

There were point or more advances for Chino, Canadian Pacific, Continental Can, Inspiration, Gulf States Steel, Kennecott, Kelly-Springfield, May Stores and Union Pacific.

American Locomotive was off ⅜ at 125⅛, following issuance of its report of poor showing in 1922.

Du Pont sagged 6¼ at 116⅝ on news of lower dividend. United Fruit rose 3 points. Baldwin dropped 2 points at 135½.

In the last few minutes of trading Stromberg Carburetor advanced 8⅝ to 77, a new year's high and American Bosch mounted 3 to 43, also a new high for 1923.

Copper Stocks Up Again in Boston Transactions

Copper stocks followed up last week's solid front of prices advances with additional progress extending to three and five points in some instances on the Boston Stock Exchange More than a dozen stocks added a point, or more to last Saturday's finals.

Lake Superior issues again were most resilient. Calumet & Hecla advancing 5 to 320. Allouez and Ahmeek each running up 3½ and 4 points to 29 and 68½ respectively. Copper Range 3⅝ to 44, and three-point improvement gracing Osceola at 39½ and St. Mary's Mineral Land at 48.

Outside of this field, the only big event was a new record peak for Eastern Steamship common, which sold up 1½ points to 99½.

WALTHAM WATCH BONDS OFFERED

Syndicate headed by Kidder, Peabody & Co. is offering $3,500,000 first mortgage 6 per cent bonds of the Waltham Watch & Clock Co., due June 1, 1943. The bonds are secured by a closed first mortgage on all of the real estate, plant and machinery of the company and also on patents, trade marks, copyrights and goodwill.

The following information has been summarized from the letter of Harry L. Brown, treasurer of the old Waltham Watch Co., dated Jan. 18, 1923:

The company began manufacturing watches in 1853. Average sales for 25 years, $4,452,655.

Average net profits after taxes and before interest and depletion on buildings and machinery, $561,943.

During 1921 and 1922 the company suffered an inventory shrinkage of $2,812,483, which is deducted before giving net profits.

Building and machinery after proper depreciation appraised by Day & Zimmerman, Inc., engineers, on Jan. 1, 1922 $5,015,500.

The fixed assets, according to the same appraisal, have a reproduction value of $6,267,000.

At present the company is employing 3,000 workers, about one-half of whom are women and about 10 per cent of all are American-born. Present daily production is about 1,800 watch movements, 500 automobile clocks and 200 speedometers.

NORTH AMERICAN CO. DECLARES 2½ P. C.

North American Company declared quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent, on common, payable in common stock April 2 to stock of record March 1. Company announces par value of common will be reduced from $50 to $10, subject to approval of stockholders.

Stockholders who desire cash instead of common stock which will be issued to them in payment of such dividend may, by returning dividend order not later than March 19, dispose of such dividend stock at rate of $5 for each $1 par value of such stock.

COTTON FUTURES' TONE REACTIONARY

New York cotton futures became reactionary in latest trading. March was off seven points at 28.33; May, off 14 points at 28.54; July, off 13 at 28.12, and October, off 19 at 27.72.

WHEAT SELLS OFF AFTER STARTING UP

Wheat futures in Chicago sold off after starting up. Latest prices were: Wheat, May, 119½; July, 115¾; September, 112⅝. Corn May, 74⅛; July, 76½; September 77. Oats May, 46⅜; July, 45⅝; September, 43⅞.

COPPER SALES ARE MADE AT 16 CENTS

Sales of 2,000,000 pounds of copper at 16 cents delivered, April shipment have been made in New York.

New Issue

$3,000,000

Waltham Watch and Clock Company

(Originally called Waltham Watch Corporation)

First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds

To be dated March 1, 1923 — Maturing June 1, 1943

Coupon bonds in denominations of $1,000 and $500 may be registered as to principal, or fully registered in denominations of $1,000. Registered and Coupon Bonds interchangeable. Interest payable June 1st and December 1st without deduction of the Normal Federal Income tax up to 2%. Redeemable in whole or in part on any interest date on thirty days' notice at 110 and accrued interest.

Principal and interest payable in United States Gold Coin at the office or the Old Colony Trust Co., Boston, Trustees, or the office of the Bankers Trust Co., New York.

The Waltham Watch and Clock Company was originally called the Waltham Watch Corporation formed on February 9, 1923, as a successor to the Waltham Watch Company. The initial issue of securities is as follows:

First Mortgage 6% Bonds due 1943	$3,000,000
Five-Year 6% Debenture Notes	3,000,000
7% Cumulative Prior Preference Stock	1,700,000
6% Preferred Stock	5,000,000
Class A Common Stock	25,000 shares (no par value)
Class B. Common Stock	70,000 shares (no par value)

These bonds are secured by a closed first mortgage on all of the real estate, plant and machinery of the Waltham Watch and Clock Company and also on the patents, trade marks, copyrights and good will of the company.

Mr. Frederick Dumaine has been elected president of the new company and is in active charge of the company's business.

The plan of recapitalization provides from the sale of securities junior to the $3,000,000 first mortgage bonds, cash in excess of $4,250,000.

We offer the above bonds, when, as, and if issued, and received by us at

98 AND INTEREST, TO YIELD OVER 6.17%

All legal details pertaining to this issue will be passed upon by Messrs. Gaston, Snow, Saltonstall & Hunt.

Kidder, Peabody & Co.
Blodget & Co.
Jackson & Curtis
Pearson, Erhard & Co.

F. S. Moseley & Co.
Hayden, Stone & Co.
Paine, Webber & Co.
Wise, Hobbs & Arnold

The information and statistics contained in this advertisement have been obtained from sources that we deem reliable, and while not guaranteed, are accepted by us as correct.

BOSTON STOCKS

Prices on the Boston Stock Exchange had the following range:

Stocks.	Open.	High.	Low.	Last.
Almont	66	68½	66	67¾
Ahmeek	30c	30c	30c	30c
Allouez Mining	28	29	28	29½
Am Ag Chem pf	83	83	83	83
Am Pneu Service pf	17¾	17¾	17	17
Am Sugar pf	107½	107¾	107½	107¾
Am Tel & Tel	122¾	123	122¾	123
Am woolen	29¼	29¾	29¼	29¾
Am Woolen pf	111	111¼	110¾	111
Am Zinc	18⅝	18¾	18¼	18½
Anaconda	68	69	68	68¾
Arcadian	61⅛	60½	51
Arcadian Consolidated	3¼	3¾	3	⅜
Arcos Corporation	11	11¼	10½	11¼
Atlas Tack Corp	19½	19½	19½	19½
Brigham Mines	17½	18	17½	18
Butte & Alaska	146½	147	146½	147
Boston & Maine	18½	19½	18	18½
B & M 1st pf Ct A	25	25	25	25
B & M 1st pf Ct B	44	44	44	44
B & M 1st pf Ct C	38	38	38	38
Boston & Providence	160	160	160	160
Boston Con Gas ctfs	103½	103¾	103½	103¾
Boston Elevated	81½	82	81½	82
Boston Elevated 1st pf	120	120	120	120
Boston Elevated 2d pf	103	103	103	103
Calumet & Arizona	62	63	61½	63½
Calumet & Hecla	315	320	310	318
Caron Hill Mining	3½	3⅝	3½	3⅝
Centennial	8	8¼	8	8¼
Chino	38	38	38	38
Copper Range	42	44	42	42¾
Davis-Daly Mining	2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾
East Butte	10½	10¾	10½	10¾
Eastern Mfg Co	17¾	17¾	17¼	17¾
East Mass Rr	18	18	18	18
East Mass Rr pf	68½	68½	68½	68½
East Mass Rr adj	36	36	36	36
East Mass Rr T ctfs	35	35	35	35
Eastern Steamship	99	99½	98	99½
Edison Electric	160½	160½	160	160
Elder Corp	9	9	8½	8¾
Franklin Mining	2	2	2	2
Gain & Houston Rlty	28	28	28	28
Gardner Motors	13¼	13¼	13	13¼
General Electric	127	127	127	127
General Motor Special	11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼
Gray & Davis	13¼	13¾	13	13¾
Greenfield Tap & Die	23	23	22½	22½
Hancock	2	2	2	2
Helvetia	1	1	1	1
Hood Rubber	36	37	37¼	37¼
Indiana	55c	75c	50c	75c
Isle Royale Mining	20	20	20	20
Int Cotton Mills pf	76	77	75	76
Inland Creek Coal	1½	1 7/16	1½	1½
Inland Creek Coal pf	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾
Isle Royale	29	29¼	29	29¼
J T Cahoon	35	35	35	35
Kennecott	1¼	2	1¼	1¼
Lake Copper	1¼	1¼	1¼	1¼
La Salle	1½	1¾	1½	1½
Libby, McNeil & Libby	9½	9¾	9½	9¾
Loew's Theatre	10	10	10	10
Maine Central	28	28	28	28
Mason Coal Mining	2	2	2	2
Mass Gas	82½	83½	82	83½
Mass Gas 1st pf	93	93	93	93
Mer Amer Co	34½	34¾	32½	34¾
Michigan Cop	2⅞	3	2⅞	3
Mo River Power	26	26	26	26
Mo River Power pf	64	64	64	64
National Leather	8½	8⅝	8½	8⅝
New Cornelia	20	20¼	20	20¼
New Dominion	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
N E Telephone	118	118	117	117
N Y N H & H Rr	19¼	19¼	19¼	19¼
Nipissing	6	6	6	6
North Butte	1¼	1¼	1¼	1¼
North Lake	6c	7c	6c	7c
Old Colony	119½	119½	119½	119½
Old Dominion	25½	25½	25½	25½
Osceola Mining	37	39½	37	39½
Pacific Mills	97½	97½	97½	97½
Quincy Mining	42½	44	42½	43½
Rutland Rr	25	25	25	25
St Mary's Land	47½	48	47	48
Seneca Copper	11¾	11¾	11¾	11¾
Shannon Copper	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
Superior & Boston	3½	3½	3½	3½
Superior Copper	31¾	31¾	31¾	31¾
Swift & Co	103½	103⅝	103	103⅝
Swift International	19⅝	19	18½	18½
Tenn G Plant	83	83	83	83
Torrington	46¾	47	46½	46¾
Trinity Copper	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Tuolumne Copper	60	62c	50c	55c
Union Twist Drill	9	9	8	8
United Drug	82¾	83¾	82¾	83¾
United Drug 1st pf	47	47	47	47
United Fruit	172	173½	172	173½
United Shoe Mach	53¼	53¾	52½	53⅛
United Shoe Mach pf	37	37	36¾	37
U S Smelting	41	41¼	41	41¼
U S Smelting pf	46½	46½	46⅜	46⅝
U S Steel	107¾	107¾	107½	107¾
Utah Apex	4	4	3¾	3¾
Utah Consolidated	2	2	2	2⅛
Utah Metals	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Ventura Oil	29	29½	28½	28¾
W Va Main RR	96½	96½	96½	96½
Valdorf System	40¾	40¾	40⅝	40⅞
Waltham Watch	50c	50c	50c	50c
Waltham Watch pf wi	4½	4½	4	4
do ex warrants	3½	3½	3½	3½
Walworth Mfg Co	17½	17½	17	17¼
Warren Bros	29	29¼	28½	28¾
Warren Bros 1st pf	34	34	34	34
Wolverine Mining	8	11	9	10¼
Wyandotte	50c	50	50	50c

GOVERNMENT BONDS

Liberty 3½s	101 34	101 34	101 34	101 34
1st 4¼s 1947-52	99 44	99 44	99 44	99 44
1st 4s 1944	98 44	98 44	98 44	98 44
1st 4½s 1938	98 88	98 88	98 84	98 84
2d 4s 1927	94	94	94	94
2d 4½s 1927	98	98	98	98
3d 4¼s 1928	98	98	98	98
4th 4¼s 1933	98	98	98	98
4th 4¼s 1938	98 88	98 88	98 84	98 84
Victory 4¾s	101 84	101 84	101 84	101 84

Boston Curb

Boston Curb prices were:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Last.
Bagdad Silver	8c	9c	7c	9c
Bay State Gas	7½	7¾	7½	7¾
Bonanza	80c	80c	80c	80c
Bos & Mont Copp	1½	1½	1½	1½
Calaveras	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Cadillac	75c	75c	75c	75c
Cons Nev Utah	15c	16c	15c	16c
Cons R Hood C M Ltd	80c	80c	80c	80c
Crystal Cop	1 7-16	1⅜	1⅜	1 7-16
Dunbar Tire Corp pf	4¼	4¼	4¼	4¼
Empire	4c	4c	4c	4c
Federal Sugar	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾
First Nat Copper	50c	50c	50c	50c
Gadsden Copper	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Goldfield Con	1 7-16	1 7-16	1 7-16	1 7-16
Goldfield Deep	18c	18c	18c	18c
Goldfield Merger	1½	1½	1½	1½
Imperial Copp	2c	2c	2c	2c
Iron Cap	2½	2½	2½	2½
Jerome Ver Dev	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
La Rose C M Ltd	50c	50c	50c	50c
Majestic Mines	6c	6c	6c	6c
Mining Corp of Can	1	1	1	1
Mohican Copper	16c	16c	16c	16c
Mot Tr of Am	1½	1½	1½	1½
Salida	2c	2c	2c	2c
Stan Oil Invest	1 7-16	1 7-16	1 7-16	1 7-16
Stan Oil Kentucky	20½	20½	20½	20½
Su States Coca	15c	16c	15c	16c
SW Miami (pd)	1¼	1¼	1¼	1¼
Troy-Ariz	1c	1c	1c	1c
Utah Apex Mining	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
Verde Cent Cop	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾
Yuba Mines	1c	1c	1c	1c

GENERAL ELECTRIC HAS BIG BUSINESS

General Electric Company, in two weeks prior to February 13, booked new business in excess of $14,000,000. One of the weeks included the $1,500,000 car equipment contract from Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, but the other week brought only normal business. The two weeks' bookings, which were above the ordinary rate, should not be taken as basis for a monthly or annual estimate. General Electric gives little heed to weekly fluctuations, and predictions even on a quarterly basis are tentative.

For 1922 General Electric booked $242,739,527 new business against $179,721,630 in 1921, an increase of 35 per cent. About $40,000,000 of unfilled orders were carried over into 1923.

SEEKS TO TIE UP MERGER IN STEEL

Allied Chemical & Dye Corporation will make a motion Wednesday next before chancellor of Delaware for a preliminary injunction and restraining order enjoining Steel & Tube Company from carrying out proposed sale of property to Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company and from holding stockholders' meeting or otherwise securing consent of its stockholders to such sale.

TOBACCO SHARES SYNDICATE ENDED

Syndicate which last fall acquired a substantial block of Toronto Products Corporation Class A shares has been dissolved. All stock has been sold. This syndicate was formed at the time of acquisition of control of United Retail Stores Corp. by Tobacco Products.

STOCKS ARE STEADY IN LONDON MARKET

Stocks were steady in London. Canada were 57¼, up ¼; British war 3½s 95⅝; 5s 101, up ¼; 4½s 86; 4s 102; funding 4s 95¾, up ¼; French 4s 58⅜, unch; Russian 5s 8, 4½s 8; 4s 5; Rio Tinto 33½, off 1

Westinghouse Gains

Bookings of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company from February 1 to 15 were 25 per cent. ahead of corresponding period of January.

TEXAS COMPANY advances Maxia and Currie, Texas, crude oil 10 cents a barrel to $2.20 and $2.60 respectively.

PUTS and CALLS

What They Mean How They Work

Their uses in Wall Street trading explained interestingly in our latest compilation. Write for free copy today.

CANTEY & CANNON
50 Broad St. — New York City

Is This the Time to BUY or SELL

EUREKA CROESUS

Write or Telephone for Latest Information

WILSON, HOOKER & CO.

50 Congress Street, Boston

TELEPHONE CONGRESS 7138

THE EQUITABLE

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE U. S.

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

The year 1922 was the most successful in the history of THE EQUITABLE. A copy of the 63rd Annual Statement, from which the following figures are taken, will be sent to any address on request.

OUTSTANDING INSURANCE, Dec. 31, 1922....$3,061,423,952

NEW INSURANCE issued and paid for in 1922... $495,249,040
Exclusive of $48,296,733 of Group Insurance

PAID POLICYHOLDERS in 1922..... $111,022,000

PAID POLICYHOLDERS Since Organization...$1,569,676,000

CONDENSED BALANCE SHEET DECEMBER 31, 1922

ADMITTED ASSETS		LIABILITIES AND RESERVES
Mortgages on Real Estate, 1st Lien	$170,167,336 85	Insurance Reserve	$542,999,380 00
Real Estate	13,005,711 14	All other liabilities	20,487,912 48
Bonds	$49,248,723 13	Surplus Reserves:
Stocks	5,604,025 00	For distribution in 1923:
Loans on Society's policies	96,619,651 55	On Annual Dividend Policies	18,900,000 00
Loans on Collateral	700,800 00	On Deferred Dividend Policies	16,071,653 00
Cash ($6,795,980.95 at interest)	7,454,839 58	Awaiting Apportionment on Deferred Dividend Policies	21,597,805 60
Other Assets	20,045,946 77	For Contingencies	43,690,313 84
TOTAL	$663,747,064 32	TOTAL	$663,747,064 32

BROAD SCOPE OF EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE

THE EQUITABLE issues insurance to protect the family and the home; to provide life incomes for wife or children; to pay for the education of boys and girls; to strengthen the business and credit of individuals, firms, and corporations; to pay inheritance taxes; to settle estates; to safeguard mortgages; to extend death benefits to families of employes; and to support men and women in old age. There is an Equitable policy for every life insurance need.

W. A. DAY
President

BOSTON OFFICE: OLD SOUTH BUILDING, 294 Washington Street

ALBERT J. FARNSWORTH, Agency Manager, J. D. E. JONES, General Agent,

FREDERICK W. FULLER, General Agent, EUGENE H. RUSSELL, JR. Agency Manager,

FRANK H. STRATTON, General Agent, Mrs. FLORENCE E. SHAAL, Manager Woman's Dept., CHAS. E. TOWNSEND, General Agent.

Wall St. Gossip

AMERICAN Tobacco insiders deny reports that company is planning to distribute a stock dividend.

AMERICAN Can stock dividend rumors have so far been entirely without confirmation or evident good basis.

NORTH American, according to one report, will split up present shares, giving two for one with a $5 dividend.

SHARON Steel Hoop is operating at 100 per cent. for the first time since 1920. It has orders enough to run steadily several months.

STEEL Corporation mills in the Farrell district are running 100 per cent., except American Steel & Wire plant, which is on a 75 per cent basis.

Annual report of 1922 of American Bosch Magneto Co., which will issue about the middle of March, will show that the company broke approximately even on operations.

SUCCESS which attended 'olation of Yellow Taxicab shares is actuating other companies to place their securities with public. This will be "taxicab week." Bankers' plans calls for sale of Checker Manufacturing Co. and Fay Taxicab Co.

MEXICAN Seaboard production is running at rate of 10,000 bbls. a day from Toteco pool and its royalty oil from this same field amounts to 2,500 bbls., bringing up company's production now being run to 12,500 bbls. per day.

GENERAL Motors controlling interests are understood to plan dividend at the annual rate of $1.20 a share, at their meeting this week.

PERSISTENT buying of Timken Roller Bearing is attributed to expectations of monthly increase in earnings.

LOUISVILLE & Nashville orders 6,000 coal cars, 2,000 box cars, 51 all steel passenger cars and 36 locomotives of largest type, at total cost of $20,000,000.

EQUITABLE LIFE PASSES $3,000,000,000

The sixty-third annual statement of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States gives evidence of the company's continued progress. The new insurance written in 1922 totaled $495,000,000, excluding over $48,000,000 of group insurance.

The outstanding insurance on December 31 exceeded $3,000,000,000. Upwards of $111,000,000 was disbursed the policyholders and beneficiaries during the year in death claims, matured endowments, dividends, annuities and other payments, making a total return of $1,569,676,000 to policyholders since organization.

Nearly $35,000,000 has been set aside for dividends to policyholders in 1923. A large increase was made in the issue of policies payable on the monthly income plan, as well as those taken to protect business interests and to provide for inheritance taxes.

Over 98 per cent. of the domestic death claims were paid within twenty-four hours after receipt of due proofs of death. The statement calls attention to the broad scope of Equitable service, and to the many insurance needs covered by the company's wide range of policies.

DEMAND STERLING AT HIGH ON MOVE

Demand sterling, after opening at $4.69 3-16, made a new high on the move. Foreign demands were:

	Saturday.	Parity.
Sterling	$4.6913	$4.8665
France (Fr)	.0092	.0193⅝
France (Bel)	.0070	.0193⅝
Italy	.0475⅝	.0457⅝
Guilders	.3977	.4020
German marks	.0000034⅜	.2380
Rumania lei	.0044⅛	.0044⅛
Czecho-Slov K	.0028	.0296
Pesetas	.1564	.1930
Swedish kroner	.2654	.2680
Norwegian kr	.1500	.1681
Danish kroner	.1920	.2680
Canadian dol	.985	.94 17-32
Argentine peso	.3098	.9733

SACO-LOWELL HAS BETTER BUSINESS

Following the improving conditions in the textile industry which began in the South about nine months ago and reached New England in the Fall of last year, the business of the Saco-Lowell Shops is steadily recorded pick-up. The five plants of the company are running a little better than 93 per cent. capacity, and there are rising $5,000,000 of orders on hand.

Mutual Oil Mountain Producers Salt Creek Producers

Six advances in ten weeks in Salt Creek crude oils. More than 100% increase. The pipe line embargo to the Casper refinery lifted after March 7th!

The above trio of superlative Salt Creek (Wyoming) producing companies made excellent profits under the old conditions in 1922.

What of their earnings and dividends for the current year?

The extraordinary speculative possibilities immediately awaiting these wonderful Wyoming producing companies under newer beneficial conditions, are visualized in our special analysis just prepared.

Ask for S. C. 4

L. L. WINKELMAN & CO.
Stocks and Bonds
62 Broad Street, New York
Telephone: Broad 6470
Direct Private Wires to Branch Offices and all Principal Markets

For the man who is interested in the stocks and bonds traded on the New York Curb Exchange, we publish the

Investor & Trader

This week's issue will give you

—Volume of sales and range of prices on all the stocks and bonds traded during the week.
—Late news on the active stocks.
—Developments expected during the coming week.
—Rumors and market comment.

Free copy will be sent on request. Ask for T-2.

JONES & BAKER
Members New York Curb Exchange
Direct Private Wires
New York Chicago Boston Philadelphia Pittsburgh Detroit Baltimore Cleveland
BOSTON OFFICE—9
68 Devonshire Street
Telephone: Congress 6215

NEW YORK STOCKS

Best Comparative Daily Table Published in New England

1923 High	1923 Low	Stock and Div.	Rate in $	Open.	High.	Low.	Last.	Prev.
68	66½	Air Reduction (4).....	4½	66½	68½	66½	68	68
10½	9½	Alax Rubber		10	10½	9½	9½	9½
89¾	87½	Allis-Chal Mfg (4)...	4	89	89¾	88	89½	89
81¾	80½	Allied Chem & D (4)	7½	80½	81¾	80½	81¾	81
43½	37¼	Am Ag Chem com....		37¼	38¼	37¼	38¼	38¼
72¾	68¾	Am Ag Chem pf.....	6	69¾	69¾	69¾	69¾	69¾
40	31½	Am Best Sugar	4	40½	40½	40½	40½	40½
49	31¾	Am Bosch Magneto..	4	42¾	43	42¾	43	43
89½	81	Am Brake Shoe (5)..	5	89	89	89	89	89
70½	52¾	Am Can (2)	2	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾
201	181	Am Car & Fdy (12)...	12	194	196	194	196	196
14	8	Am Chicle		7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
80½	64½	Am Cotton Oil		67½	67½	67½	67½	67½
7½	6½	Am Druggist Syn....		7	7	7	7	7
17½	16½	Am Hide & Lather..	2½	17¼	17¼	17¼	17¼	17¼
74¾	58	Am Hide & L pf.....	7½	71½	70½	71½	71	71
122	99	Am Ice (1)		100	100	100	100½	100½
60½	24½	Am International		28½	28½	27¾	28½	28½
42¼	28	Am Linseed		28	28	28	28	28
156¾	112	Am Locomotive (3)...	12	129½	130¾	124¾	127½	125½
83¾	68	Am Metals (3)	3	68	68	63¾	63¾	63¾
120	88	Am Radiator (6)	6	88¾	88¾	88¾	88¾	88¾
8¾	2¾	Am Saf Razor (2c)..	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
38¼	31¾	Am Ship & Com.....	1½	38¼	38¼	38¼	38¼	38¼
67½	49¾	Am Smelting & Ref..	6	64¾	64¾	64¾	64¾	64¾
104½	86¾	Am Sm & Ref pf (7)	7	101¾	101¾	101¾	101¾	101¾
40½	30	Am Steel Fdries (2).	2	36	36½	36	36½	36½
8½	5½	Am Sugar Refining..	8	83	83½	82	82½	82½
47	25¼	Am Sumatra Tob		34½	35	33½	33½	33½
126¾	114½	Am Tel & Tel (9)	9	123½	123½	122	122	122
128½	119¾	Am Tobacco (12)	12	127½	128½	126½	128½	128½
104½	96¼	Am Tobacco pf (8)...	8	104	104	104	104	104
100¾	100	Am Tob Cl B (12)...	12	100½	100½	100	100	100
3¾	3	Am W W & Elec.....		3½	3½	3½	3½	3½
18¾	17¼	Am WW&E pf'r pf 8		18	18	18	18	18
106	78¾	Am Woolen (1)	1	103¾	103¾	100¾	100¾	100
61	48	Anaconda Copper....	3	60½	60½	60½	60½	60½
22	20	Ann Arbor pf.....		21	22	21	22	22
68½	62	Ann Dry Goods (4)..	4	62	62	62	62	62
96½	91½	Atch T & S Fe (6)...	6	101¼	101½	101½	101½	101½
95½	88	Atch T & S Fe pf(6)	6	90	89½	89½	89½	89½
5	3	Atlanta Birm & Atl..	2½	3½	3½	3½	3½	3½
124½	82	Atlantic Coast L(7).	10	121¼	118½	120½	118	120½
43¾	19½	Baldwin Loco (7).....	4	19½	19½	19½	19½	19½
103½	92½	Baltic & Ohio	5	92½	92½	92½	92½	92½
105½	95	Barnsdall Class A...	3	31	31	31	31	31
85½	30	Beech Nut Pack(4)	6	84½	84½	84½	84½	84½
82¾	80½	Beth Steel Cl B (6).	8	81½	82	81½	82	82
108½	94	Beth St pf new (7)...	7	96½	96½	96½	96½	96½
116½	101	Beth Steel 8% pf(8).	8	107½	107½	107½	107½	107½
10½	3½	Booth Fisheries		6¼	6¼	6¼	6¼	6¼
118	115	Bklyn Edison (8).....	8	115½	115½	115½	115½	115½
6¾	6¾	Brooklyn Rap Tran..	11	11	11½	11	11½	11½
34½	9½	Bklyn R T cifs dep.	5%	10¼	10¼	9¾	9¾	9¾
134½	78	Bklyn Un Gas (8)...	12	122	125	122	125	125
64¼	43	Brown Shoe	4	61½	61½	61½	62¾	62¾
89	39½	Buffalo Rch Cl B (2)	3½	39½	39½	39½	40	39½
19½	8¼	Butte Cop & Z (6)...	1½	11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼	11¼
28½	20½	Butte & Superior (2)	3½	24	23	23½	23½	23½
24	18	Butterick Co	1½	19	19	19	19	19
19½	6½	Caddo Cent O & R...	8½	8½	8½	8½	8½	8½
80½	70½	Calumet & Ariz (3).	8½	81½	81½	81½	81½	81½
82	70	California Pack (8).	8	85	84½	84½	84½	84½
71½	43½	California Pet (2)....	6	44½	46	44½	46	46
11½	8½	Callahan Zinc Lead..	1½	11½	11½	11½	11½	11½
151½	110½	Can Pacific (10).....	10	148½	149½	148½	149½	149½
44¾	29½	Central Leather.....	2	39½	39¾	37¾	37¾	37¾
82¾	63¾	Central Leather pf...	6	78	78½	78	78½	78½
46¾	32¾	Cerro de Pasco Cop.	2½	46¾	46¾	46¾	46¾	46¾
47¾	37¾	Chandler Motor (4)..	7½	47¾	47¾	47¾	47¾	47¾
78	64	Ches & Ohio (4).....	3	75½	74½	74½	75	75
108½	100½	Ches & Ohio pf (4)...	4	104	104½	103¾	104	104
13¾	10¼	Chi & Alton.....	3%	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾
20¾	8¾	Chi & Alton pf.....	6	8¾	8¾	8	8	8
24½	21½	Chi & East Ill pf...	6	23½	23½	23½	23½	23½
10½	6	Chi Great West.....	6%	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
24½	7	Chi Great West pf...	4	15	15	15	15	15
36¾	10½	Chi Mil & St Paul...	2½	33½	33¾	33¼	33¾	33¾
60	29	Chi Mil & St P pf....	4½	43½	43½	42½	43½	43½
18½	6½	Chi & N West pf....	5	16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾
89½	80	Chi Pneu Tool (4)...	4	86½	87¼	86½	87¼	87¼
60	30½	Chi Rock I & Pac....	3½	30½	30½	30½	30½	30½
28¾	16½	Chile Copper		16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾
23¾	23¼	Chino Copper		23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾
70¾	43	Chrysler Motor (5)..		68	70	67	70	70
83¾	41	Coca-Cola (6)		76	78	76	78	...
24	16	Col Fuel & Iron....		19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾
114½	84½	Col Gas & El (8).....		100	100	100	100	100
2	1¼	Columbia Graph'as..		2¼	2¼	2¼	2¼	2¼
21	8	Columbia Graph pf..		8	8	8	8	8
79¾	58½	Com Tab Rec (8).....		78½	78½	78½	77¾	78½
39¾	29¾	Con Cigar		35½	35½	35½	35½	35½
82¾	67½	Cons Gas new (6)...		68	68	68	68	68
48¾	42¾	Cont Can (2).....		42¾	43	42¾	43	43
64¾	50¾	Continental Ins (4).		50½	51½	50½	51½	51½
11½	10½	Cont Motors Corp....		10¾	10	10	10¾	10¾
149¾	91½	Corn Prod Ref (4)...		146¾	149¾	146¾	149¾	149¾
19½	8	Cosden & Co		13½	13½	13½	13½	13½
83¾	31¾	Cosden Co (4).....		80½	80½	80½	80½	80½
84¾	62¾	Crucible Steel.....		80¾	80¾	80¾	81	81¼
28	14½	Cuban Amer Sugar...		14½	15¾	14½	4	14½
18¾	6½	Cuba Cane Sugar....		17½	17½	17½	17¾	17¾
41½	16¼	Cuba Cane Sug pf...		37	37	37	56	56
26¾	23½	Davison Chemical...		32½	33	32½	32½	32½
24½	21½	De Beers Mines.....		23	23	23	23	23
143½	100½	Del & Hud (8).....		124	126	124	123	123
140	110½	Del L & W (7).....		118	118	118½	120	118
118½	100½	Detroit Edison (8)...		121	121	121	121	121
109½	118	Du Pont de Nem (6)..		106	108½	105½	107¾	106
80½	78	Eastman Kodak (5)..		80	80½	80	80½	80½
68¾	49½	Elec Stor Bat (4).....		66¾	67	66¾	67	67
28	14¾	Elk Horn Coal.....		17	17¼	17	17	17
24¾	15½	Emerson Phon (8)...		17	17	16	17	16½
10¾	7	Erie		10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾
21¾	15½	Erie 1st pf.....		19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾
20¾	7½	Erie 2d pf		14	14	14	14	14
107	78½	Famous Play L (8)...		89	89	86¾	89½	89
178	150	Fisher Body		168½	171	168½	171	171
78	70½	Fisk Rubber		16¾	16¾	16¾	15¾	15¾
37¾	31¾	Fleischman Co.....		35½	35½	35½	35½	35½
27¼	12½	Freeport-Texas		21	23	20¾	20¾	20¾
37¾	33¾	General Asphalt		47¾	48	46¾	47¾	47¾
93	85	General Cigar (6)...		93	93	93	93	93
146	136	Gen Elec (4).....		138¼	142	138	138½	138¾
127½	8	Gen Motors (50c)...		15¾	15¾	14½	14½	14½
8¾	4¾	Goldwyn Pictures ..		6	6	6	6	6
25	22	Granby Consol		23½	23½	23½	23½	23½
8	3	Gray & Davis.....		7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾	7¾
24½	22	Greene-Cananea Cop		23½	23½	23½	23½	23½
87½	72½	Gt Northern pf (8)...		72½	72½	72½	72½	72½
45¾	34½	Gt Nor ofs ore pr(2)		33½	33½	33½	34	34
44¾	34½	Gulf States Steel....		42½	42½	42½	42½	42½
102	90½	Hartman Corp (3)...		91½	91½	91½	94¼	94¼
21¾	16	Hendee Mfg		22	22	22	21¾	21¾
87½	79	Houston Oil		79	79¾	79¾	79¾	79¾
37½	19½	Hudson Mot Car (3)		28¾	29	28½	28½	28½
26¾	16¼	Hupp Mot Car (3)...		26¾	26¾	26¾	26¾	26¾
8¾	5½	Hydraulic Steel		8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
119¾	71½	Illinois Central (7).		113	114½	112¾	114½	114½
28	15¾	Indiahoma Ref new.		16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾
48	31	Inspiration Copper..		40½	41¾	40½	41	40½
28½	26½	Int Cement (3).....		28½	28½	28½	28½	28½
28½	25¼	Int Comb Eng (2) ..		26¾	28¼	26¾	28¼	28¼
118¾	73¾	Int Harv new (5)...		88	88	88	88	88½
12½	8	Int Nickel		10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾
47¾	41½	Int Mer Mar pf (3)...		43¾	43¾	43¾	43¾	43¾
19¾	11¾	Int Nickel		15¾	16¼	15¾	16½	16½
65½	43½	Int Paper		57¾	58¾	57¾	58¾	58¾
53¾	24	Iron Products		51	51½	50½	51	51
53¾	34	Jewel Tea		34	34	34	34	34
84½	84½	Jones Bros Tea (4)...		86½	86½	86½	86½	86½
71½	71½	Kansas & Gulf.....
20¾	17	Kansas City South...		23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾
48¾	34	Kayser & Co.....		43½	43½	43	43½	43½
35¾	31¾	Kelly Springf'd Tire		34¾	34¾	34¾	34¾	34¾
48¾	38½	Kennecott Cop (3)...		43¾	43¾	42¾	42	42
34¾	24¾	Keystone Tire		27¾	28	27¾	28	28
72	58½	Lehigh Valley (3½).		63½	63½	60½	60½	60½
69¾	52	Lima Loco (4).....		66¾	68¾	67¾	67¾	68
13¾	11	Lowell Inc		11½	11½	11½	11½	11½
14¾	9	Lst's Inc (1).....		10¾	11	10¾	11	10¾
144½	108	L & N (3).....		142¾	144½	140½	142¾	142¾
61¾	36½	Mack Trucks (4).....		74½	74½	72¾	73¾	73¾

GRAIN MARKETS PRONOUNCED DANGEROUS

By THOMAS TEMPLE HOYNE

(Author of "Speculation" and Mid-West Grain Market authority.)

(Written for Cosmopolitan News Service.)

Chicago, Feb. 19.—The grain markets have worked into a situation that makes them for the time being extremely dangerous. Temporarily, both corn and oats will undoubtedly be considerably affected by wheat and the course of that grain has become questionable, because of what may have taken place beneath the surface; that is, the private settlement of a large short interest with eastern holders.

This settlement in itself might mean nothing were the wheat market a true one, but, as has been pointed out here before, the world's situation in wheat is bearish. The recent advance has been in the face of that situation, and has been due to heavy eastern buying, stimulated by the natural tendency toward inflation to which the huge supply of gold in this country causes and by the avowed intention of the Government to help the farmer get better prices by means of legislation.

The meaning which a huge settlement with the east has under these circumstances—if it has taken place—is, perhaps, that the east is through bulling wheat. Withdrawing the money support the market has received, presuming that to be the case, would allow it to follow the natural course set by demand and supply conditions. This would be downward.

On the other hand, if there has not been the settlement which it is freely predicted has taken place, then the market is in as bullish a position as ever and is likely to respond to renewed buying on the part of the east and work higher again.

In corn the situation is altogether different. In this grain there are many inherent bullish conditions, such as a restricted crop, enormous feeding, and early marketing. Nevertheless, if wheat should weaken and take the downward course, corn undoubtedly would follow suit for the time being at least. The same remarks apply to oats.

For a day or two at least, therefore, it may be wise to keep out of the market. That, eventually will give pretty clear indications, of which of the two situations outlined above exists.

Sugar at 8.25 Cents

Federal Sugar Company is quoting 8.25 cents a pound for refined.

How Is Business Today?

Cottons—Demand strong; prices advancing; production at high point.

Silks—Demand good; prices firm; production strong.

Woolens—Demand for Fall goods strong; prices firm; production expanding.

Furs—Demand light; prices slightly irregular; for garment production delayed.

Apparel—Spring apparel in good demand; prices firm; production hampered in some quarters by strikes.

Rubber—More active demand from manufacturers; prices unchanged.

Leather—Demand for upper leather increasing; lightweight hides sell better, but heavyweight hides are weak.

Jewelry—Diamonds and pearls continue brisk; staples and novelties in more demand than usual.

Metals—Copper, tin, zinc and lead prices advance; steel and iron make fractional price gains; nickel and quicksilver touch new low levels.

AMERICAN LOCO SHOWS DEFICIT

American Locomotive Co. for 1922 shows net profit of $1,100,475, after charges and taxes, equivalent to $4.40 a share earned on 250,000 preferred stock. This compares with net profit in 1921 of $5,083,745, or $13.54 a share, on 375,000 common after 7 per cent. dividends on preferred stock. After payment of preferred and common dividends there was a deficit in 1922 of $2,149,521, against surplus of $1,833,785 in previous year.

Gasoline Increase

An increase of two cents a gallon is looked for this week in tank wagon price of gasoline in Chicago territory.

NEW COAL GETS BACKING IN BOSTON

Pond Creek Pocahontas Company has been organized with $25,000 no par shares to acquire 2500 acres of coal lands in McDowell County, West Virginia which will be developed and equipped for an annual production of 750,000 tons of coal. The management will be identical with that of the Island Creek and Pond Creek Coal companies.

Property is in a non-union field. It contains approximately 25 years reserve of coal at the contemplated rate of production. The coal is known as "Pocahontas Smokeless." Property is served by the Norfolk & Western railroad, main line of which runs through the centre of property, and Appalachian Power Company.

Present owners of the property are taking stock at $15 per share, representing the exact cost of the property to them, and those interested in the management have subscribed at $15 per share to over $2,000 of the shares now being sold to finance development and equipment.

Property is underlain by two seams of coal of which one is from five feet to five feet 10 inches thick and the other three to four feet thick. These two veins contain an estimated recoverable tonnage of over 25,000,000 tons of the highest grade of bituminous coal and ordinarily commanding the highest price.

Throughout the Middle West this coal is in great demand for domestic use. Of a total bituminous production of over 500,000,000 tons annually, only about 35 to 40 million tons of this quality coal is produced.

Directors of the new corporation will consist of Ben P. Bole, T. B. Davis (president), J. A. Downs, J. D. Francis, Frederick H. Goff, Charles G. Rice and Galen L. Stone.

New York Curb

By Cosmopolitan News Service.
Latest prices on the New York Curb

Acme Coal	1¾
Angio American Oil	13½
Anglo-Chilean	4
Atlas Service	1.00
Atlas Service Pf	6½
Cleveland Automobile	64½
Carib Syndicate	2¾
Columbia Carbon	41½
Continental Oil	20½
Durant Motors	22¾
Ford Motor, Canada	450
Galena Signal Oil	60½
Gilliland Oil	42
Gillette Safety Razor	27½
Glen Alden Coal	21
Greene's Oil	1.90
Gulf Oil	17¾
Humble Oil	38
Homestead Prods	3¾
Howe Sound Company	6¾
Hudson Company's pfd	10¾
Imperial Oil (Canada)	11½
Indiana Pipe Line	2¾
International Petroleum	25
International Rubber	3¾
Maracaibo Oil Exploration	11½
Magnolia Petroleum	2¾
Mammoth Oil	51¾
Mexican Oil Corporation	3
Mohawk	37
Mutual Oil	2¾
Nay Dent Store	3½
Ohio Oil Company	205
Prairie Oil & Gas	503¾
Penn-Mex Fuel	11½
Radio Corporation of America	2¾
Salt Creek Producers	20½
Sapulpa Refining	6¾
Simms Oil	1.50
Southern States	17½
Standard Oil of Kansas	4¾
Standard Oil of Indiana	67¾
Standard Oil of Ky	10
Standard Oil of New York	47
Stutz	20¾
Tobacco Producers Export Corp	7
Tonopah Extension	1¼
Tucson Oil	65¼

GRAIN EXPORTS ARE LOWER FOR WEEK

Grain exports from the United States last week totalled 3,650,000 bushels as compared with 6,649,000 bushels for the week previous.

INTERNATIONAL CEMENT GAINS

The International Cement Corporation announces that it is calling for redemption its 8 per cent. five-year notes now amounting to $1,250,500. Inasmuch as these notes are convertible into common stock at $33 1-3 a share and the stock is currently quoted on the New York Stock Exchange at about 39, there is every probability that the holders will elect to convert their shares into stock rather than accept the call price of 110, which is equivalent to a fraction over 36½ for the stock.

The retirement of these notes calls attention to the steady improvement in the financial position of the company in the past two or three years, and the fact that International Cement undoubtedly faces the best year in its history.

In 1923 the company earned approximately $4 per share on its 323,878 shares of common stock after 7 per cent. dividends on the small issue of 15,580 shares of preferred and interest on $1,350,000 convertible notes.

New York Central Loadings

In January New York Central lines loaded 66,621 cars of bituminous coal, against 42,978 in January, 1922.

WELLESLEY LOAN IS BOUGHT IN BOSTON

Wellesley has sold a temporary revenue loan of $75,000, dated Feb. 15, and maturing Nov. 15, 1923, to First National Bank, Boston, at 4.02 per cent discount plus $1.75 premium. Other bidders were: Shawmut Corporation, 4.02 per cent; Old Colony Trust Co., 4.05 per cent plus $3; F. S. Moseley & Co., 4.09 per cent; and Bond & Goodwin at 4.10 per cent.

$14,505,800

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company

8% Cumulative Prior Preference Stock

(Voting Trust Certificates)

Redeemable as a whole or in part at 110 and accrued dividends on 60 days' notice. Dividends payable quarterly January, April, July and October 1. Par value of shares $100. Total authorized $40,000,000; issued $23,458,000; purchased by Company for retirement $13,058,000; under contract to the Company for purchase and retirement on or before February 1, 1924, $5,000,000. Stock free from all present Ohio taxes except Inheritance Tax. Also free from United States Federal Income Tax. An attractive annual sinking fund provides for purchase at or below 110 and accrued dividends, or if not so obtainable, for call at that price. The $5,000,000 stock (Voting Trust Certificates) under purchase contract will be redeemed for the sinking fund, which should redeem the entire amount now outstanding within thirteen years.

Registrars: The New York Trust Company, New York, and The Cleveland Trust Company, Cleveland
Transfer Agents: Guaranty Trust Company of New York and The Union Trust Company, Cleveland

Application will be made in due course to list Voting Trust Certificates on the New York Stock Exchange.

The following information is summarized from a letter by Mr. E. G. Wilmer, President of the Company:

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company is the largest manufacturer of rubber tires in the world, producing at present approximately 20% of the total automobile tires manufactured in this country, as well as an extensive line of mechanical and other rubber goods.

ASSETS PER SHARE

The Company's balance sheet as of December 31, 1922, adjusted to give effect to certain subsequent capital changes, as certified by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Company shows net current assets of $47,766,830 or $238 per share of Prior Preference Stock, including the shares under contract of purchase by the Company on or before February 1, 1924.

Net tangible assets for the Prior Preference Stock are shown to be $75,297,597, or $376 per share.

EARNINGS

For the four fiscal years ended October 31, 1919, during which period there was no funded debt, net income after all charges, and available for interest and dividends, as certified by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Company, averaged $11,493,793 per annum. Deducting annual charges on present funded debt leaves $6,229,124 which would have been available for dividends on Prior Preference Stock had the present capitalization then been in existence.

During the sixteen months from October 31, 1919 to February 28,1921,there occurred the extraordinary trade depression which precipitated the Company's reorganization. The losses sustained were subsequently absorbed through adjustments of capitalization at time of reorganization.

For the ten months from February 28, 1921, to December 31, 1921, income after interest, taxes, extraordinary adjustments and all other charges, and applicable to dividends on Prior Preference Stock, was $3,620,043,while for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1922, such income was $3,551,182. For the last three months of 1922 income available for dividends on the Prior Preference Stock was at the rate of $6,000,000 per annum. Annual requirements are $1,600,000 for dividends on the stock outstanding, including the $5,000,000 par value, under contract of purchase by the Company.

Both First Mortgage Bonds and Debenture Bonds are retireable respectively by semi-annual and annual sinking funds, as more fully described in the President's letter, which through their operations, materially reduce interest charges ahead of the Prior Preference Stock and increase its equity.

CAPITALIZATION

	Outstanding
First Mortgage 20 Year 8% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds	$27,750,000
Ten Year 8% Sinking Fund Gold Debenture Bonds	27,500,000*
8% Cumulative Prior Preference Stock (par value $100)	20,000,000
6% Cumulative Management Stock	10,000
7% Cumulative Preferred Stock (par value $100)	65,079,600
Common Stock (no par value) declared value	1,000,000

*Includes $2,500,000 par value acquired by the Company in anticipation of Sinking Fund retirement.
Includes $5,000,000 par value under contract to the Company for purchase and retirement. Entire outstanding amount in a Voting Trust expiring May 1, 1941 or earlier at option of Voting Trustees.

OUTLOOK

During the last two years the rubber industry has labored under frequent reductions of the selling prices of its products imposed by the continued downward trend of the market prices of the principal raw materials. In the face of this the Company was obliged to use and pay for high priced materials purchased in 1920. These materials have now been taken in and consumed and the Company is again operating with inventories the average cost of which is at or under current market.

With better selling prices now prevalent, and sales volume steadily increasing the Company's outlook for a profitable business is excellent.

We offer the above Voting Trust Certificates with dividend accrued from January 1, 1923, at $98 per share (flat)

Further information contained in our circular, which may be had on request.

Dillon, Read & Co.

White, Weld & Co. — The Union Trust Company, Cleveland — Hallgarten & Co.

A. G. Becker & Co. — Bonbright & Co., Inc.

Chas. D. Barney & Co. — Dominick & Dominick

Cyrus Peirce & Co. San Francisco — Federal Securities Corporation Chicago

Anglo London Paris Company San Francisco

The information contained in this advertisement has been obtained from sources which we consider reliable. While not guaranteed, it is accepted by us as accurate.

USES KITCHEN KNIFE TO END LIFE; WAS ILL

Despondent because of ill health, Thomas Brennan, 36, of No. 24 Rollins street, South End, killed himself today by slashing his throat with a kitchen knife. The body was removed to the South morgue.

For Pep
—5c everywhere

Little red boxes for 5c everywhere you go—full of luscious little raisins.

75% fruit sugar — 1560 calories of energizing nutriment per pound in practically predigested form so it goes to work almost immediately.

Also rich in food-iron—taste good when you're hungry—prevent 3 o'clock fatigue — provides real pep. Try and see.

Little Sun-Maids
"Between-Meal" Raisins
Had Your Iron Today?

MAN SLASHED; SHIELDS GIRL ASSAILANT

M. J. Poyer, twenty-two years old, is at the City Hospital suffering from severe knife wounds of the face. He told hospital officials he had been slashed by a girl who wielded a fish knife in her attack on him.

The police found him wandering in the street, bleeding freely from knife wounds on each side of the nose and cheek. The latter removed him to the hospital. Poyer steadfastly refused to divulge the identity of the girl who slashed him.

Poyer is single and lives at No. 116 Camden street, South End.

MEN SAVE DROWNING DOG AT SWAMPSCOTT

A drowning collie dog was saved off Lincoln House Point, Swampscott, by Dr. N. R. Martin and Elmer Boyd, who rushed a boat over the frozen bay and then into the water, pulling the dog into the boat and bringing him ashore. A large crowd cheered the rescue. The animal was chasing another dog across the ice when it gave way, plunging him into the water.

TETLEY'S
Makes good TEA a certainty

Warm your teapot—use teaspoonful of Tetley's Orange Pekoe for every two cups—be sure water is freshly boiling—steep five minutes. Then you have a real cup of tea.

Polly Cabot to Give Skating Exhibition at Society Carnival, Says Betty Alden

By BETTY ALDEN.

MISS POLLY CABOT, who cuts all kinds of figures on the ice, is as devoted to skating in the Winter as she is to tennis during the warmer months.

Last week she took part in an ice fete held at New Haven, and next week she's to be one of the "star" performers at the skating carnival being held on Tuesday evening at the Arena. The event, which is in the hands of prominent society folk, is in aid of the Ellis Memorial House.

Miss Cabot, who's the younger daughter of the T. Handasyd Cabots of Newbury street, is a blonde of medium height. Besides being a skilled skater and wielder of the racquet, she's known for her grace as an artist of terpsichore. Her older sister, Miss Elizabeth Cabot, was married in September to Henry Holt, Jr., of New York, the ceremony taking place at the Cabots' country place at Dublin, N. H.

THE dress which Miss Marian Fenno wore to the Junior supper dance the other night came as near to being hoop-skirted in the really old-fashioned way as anything I've seen this season. The frock was of silvery blue—becoming to her light hair and blue eyes—the hooped skirt having inserted bands of white lace. Miss Fenno —she's the third daughter of Mrs. L. Carteret Fenno—had just returned from a visit to Baltimore, whither a number of Boston girls were invited to join in the season's gayeties.

Speaking of the supper dance, Mrs. George Richmond Fearing, Jr., was there, just back from a trip abroad. The one-time Hester Cochrane wore a smart creation of green and gold, suiting admirably her auburn-tinted hair.

AN imposing array of motors will doubtless wend their way to No. 46 Beacon street tomorrow evening for the recital which Mr. Alfred Cortot is giving in aid of the Rheims Music School, under the auspices of the American Friends of Musicians in France. Mrs. Robert Jordan has lent her home for the occasion.

Mrs. "Ollie" Ames, Jr., heads the list of patronesses, the latter much too long to be printed in these columns, but of the usual "four hundred" calibre.

MISS LUCIA WARREN has joined her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hobart Endicott Warren, at their Winter residence in Palm Beach. The Warrens have a Summer place at Beverly Farms.

MRS. L. CUSHING GOODHUE is opening her Beacon street home on the afternoon of the 27th—Tuesday—for a "Back Bay Parlor Talk." These affairs have been arranged to further interest in the Community Health Association, of which Mrs. Morton Prince is the secretary.

Miss Mary Beard, director of the organization, is to speak on the 27th, when Mrs. James Lawrence and Mrs. Philip Dalton will preside at the tea tables.

Betty Alden

MRS. HARCOURT AMORY, JR.

Mrs. Harcourt Amory, Jr., (Susannah Wood) whose wedding to the Harvard '16 man was solemnized on Saturday at Emmanuel Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan Wood of Dayton, Ohio, and Ipswich. (Photo by Garo.)

AID RUSHED TO 4 SHIPS IN DISTRESS

"S. O. S. calls from four vessels in distress off the Massachusetts coast sent rescue craft rushing to aid.

Twelve men were saved in a sensational rescue at sea, forty miles south of Nantucket Lightship, by the crew of the steamer Egremont.

These were the crew of the Boston-bound collier Santino, waterlogged and sinking.

Shortly after, the coast guard cutter Acushnet arrived and reported that she would make an attempt to tow the Santino to port. The distressed vessel was bound from Norfolk with a cargo of coal. At New Bedford and Vineyard Haven, frantic calls for assistance were received by wireless from the steamer Coyote, the schooner Frederick J. Lovett and the passenger steamer Sankaty.

The Frederick J. Lovett was reported in such serious distress with her hull cut with ice that the Acushnet, standing by the sinking Santino, left for her assistance. The schooner is reported about 2½ miles south of Handkerchief Shoals light vessel.

Late radio appeals from the schooner said that she was dragging her anchor and in danger of being washed against the shoals.

The passenger steamer Sankaty stuck in the ice within a half mile of her pier at Nantucket on the trip from Oak Bluffs. The passengers walked ashore over the frozen surface of the harbor.

FOOD PRICES DROP 1 PER CENT. IN MONTH

Washington, Feb. 19.—The average family paid per cent. less for its food in January than in December, the Department of Labor announced today, adding, however, that as compared with January, 1913, the level of prices represented an advance of 47 per cent., but that the increase from January 15, 1922 to the same date last month was only 2 per cent. Forty-seven cities reported declines in family expenditure for food during the period and seven experienced increases.

SILK MANUFACTURE SHOWS DECLINE

Washington, Feb. 19.—Silk manufacturing establishments turned out products valued at $583,248,000 in 1921, as compared with $688,470,000 in 1919, according to figures reported by 1,563 plants. While the 1921 total represented a decline of 15.3 per cent., it showed a considerable increase, however, over the value of $254,611,000 for 1914. Decreases also were revealed in the number of employes in the industry and in the amounts paid salaries and wages.

WOMAN VICTIM OF GAS IN WEST END

Mrs. Leona Cannuli of No. 5 Billerica street, in the West End, was overcome by fumes from a gas-heater in her home today. She was found unconscious in her bed by her husband, Nicholas. She was sent to the relief station, where her name appeared on the danger list.

"Prices realized on Swift & Company sales of carcass beef in Boston for week ending Saturday, Feb. 17th, on shipments sold out, ranged from 7.00 cents to 14.75 cents per pound and averaged 12.59 cents per pound."—Advt.

HUB GIRLS SAVE MEN TRAPPED IN BEAR DEN

Conway, N. H., Feb. 19.—Four Greater Boston girls formed a chain of their bodies and rescued two Melrose men from a bear den sixteen feet under snow into which they had fallen at Tasker Hill while on an Appalachian Mountain Club snowshoe hike.

The girls were the Misses Hazel White of Winter Hill, Somerville; Edith L. Caverly of Winchester, Gladys F. Gove of Wellesley Hills and Grace E. Miller of Wahan.

The two imprisoned men were Arthur F. McMullin and Hazen Jones.

McMullin and Jones were covering the rear of the party as they hiked up the south slope of Taskar Hill. Without warning, the snow, which hitherto had been firm, gave way under them and they dropped down directly into the den of the bear.

The den was known to them as the refuge of a she-bear and her cubs. Both men were without weapons and, fearing to arouse any animal in the den, they did not call to the party ahead of them.

Every effort to climb out of their veritable prison was in vain.

In the meanwhile the four girls had missed their companions. Turning back they picked up the trail of the men who had been in the den for an hour before their rescue.

The whole party left in pangs today for Mosi Mountain to start a ten-mile hike to North Conway.

SUN YAT-SEN TO ABANDON WARFARE

Hong Kong, Feb. 19 (By Associated Press).—Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, ex-President of South China, outlined to Sir Robert Ho-Tung here today plans for reorganizing the government at Canton, whither Dr. Sun will go Wednesday morning.

The Southern Republican leader said he planned to abandon military expeditions, to disband 50 per cent. of the soldiers in Kwangtung Province, and re-employ them on road construction.

FORMER TEACHER AT SMITH COLLEGE DEAD

Manchester, N. H., Feb. 19.—Miss Agnes Hunt, formerly assistant professor of history at Smith College, and active in the affairs of the New Hampshire Federation of Women's Clubs, is dead at her home here.

DRY AGENT SLAIN IN OWN HOME

Cleveland, Feb. 19.—Carl Metta, thirty-four, until recently a government prohibition agent and who, in his three years of federal service, made himself feared by local whiskey runners, was summoned to the door of his home today and shot dead. The assassin escaped.

Metta quit the federal service last October, rather than accept a transfer to Toledo.

Since that time he has been a deputy enforcement officer for D. J. Zinner, Mayor of Fairview village, a suburb.

Police believe the man who slew him was among those Metta had arrested recently.

Frederick T. Steinway
WRITES

"The selection of a player action to be incorporated with the Steinway Piano, was a matter of supreme importance . . . many months were spent before a final decision was reached and your instrument chosen."

The DUO-ART
REPRODUCING PIANO

The only instrument which faithfully re-creates the exact playing of the great pianists. Hear them in your own home as often as desired.

Prices $750 to $4200
Sold on Liberal Terms

Your are invited to hear

Three Great Phenomena of the Twentieth Century—Paderewski's Art, the Duo-Art and the Duo-Art in the Steinway.

M. STEINERT & SONS
Steinert Hall 162 Boylston St.

WASHINGTON
6-DAY TOURS
Personally-Conducted
FEBRUARY 23; MARCH 9, 23; APRIL 6, 20; MAY 4 AND 18
Round-Trip Rate from Boston
$47 $49 $52 According to Hotel Selected
Stop-over at Baltimore, Wilmington, Philadelphia and New York on return trip.
For itineraries and detailed information apply to Rodney Macdonough, New England Passenger Agent, 209 Washington St., Boston
PENNSYLVANIA R.R. SYSTEM
The Route of the Broadway Limited

The Rare Delicious Flavor of sweet sugar cane in a syrup of highest quality—Domino Syrup
"Sweeten it with Domino"
Granulated, Tablet, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown; Golden Syrup; Cinnamon and Sugar; Sugar-Honey; Molasses

CORNED beef hash browned to perfection, steaming hot, and deliciously savory with a rich and flavory dash of Gulden's Mustard! Um-m, yum—It makes you hungry just to think about it. Gulden's Mustard, 15c everywhere.

GULDEN'S Mustard
READY-TO-USE

You Must Drink Something
There is nothing better than
LIPTON'S TEA
Largest Sale in the World

Are you going to Europe?
The new 20,000 tons, all-burning Cunarders, Scythia, Samaria and Laconia, SAIL FROM BOSTON every fortnight carrying Saloon, Second Cabin and Third Class passengers.
Send for Sailing List A 24

Cunard Line
126 STATE ST. BOSTON
Sail From and To Boston by the New Cunarders

$175

ADDING LISTING
CALCULATING
CAPACITY 9,999,999.99
81 KEYS

PORTABLE
VISIBLE
FLEXIBLE
AUTOMATIC
CLEAR SIGNAL
RED TOTALS & SUB TOTALS

A Better Adding Machine at a Lower Price

Every office and store can now have adding machine service without a large investment. Small, light and compact, taking up very little desk or counter space, and readily removable to any part of the store or office. Add-Index Adding Machines are manufactured in standard sizes at prices ranging from $125 up. Their use saves time which is the same as money. They prevent and uncover mistakes. Their employment substitutes profitable accuracy for wasteful errors.

Write or 'phone for demonstration—prompt and courteous service, without the slightest obligation to buy if you are not convinced that it is to your own best interest.

Salesmen Wanted for Good Territory

ADD-INDEX CORPORATION
Joseph Hallwood, Sales Agent 168 Dartmouth St., Boston
Telephone Main 4873 Near Back Bay Station

SELECTIVITY AND POWER COMBINED

Using a single circuit tuner and an ingenious filter, J. C. Hamilton, patent attorney and mechanical engineer of No. 7 Water street, has devised a very remarkable receiver which combines strength of signal and selectivity.

Mr. Hamilton has experimented with a great variety of hookups, including the various supers, and he has finally come back to the standard single circuit.

"I have never found anything that was the all-round equal of the so-called single circuit," he says. "It is easy to pick up the desired station, signals are powerful, and it is simple in construction.

SEEKS TO PERFECT.

"With this in mind I set out to perfect the auxiliary filter attachment, the hook-up of which I have enclosed. This consists of simply a variable condenser and vario-coupler addition to the outside of any single circuit receiver.

"My set is located less than two miles from WGI and not over seven from WNAC, and with this combination I am able to receive all stations of any size between here and Louisville, Ky., and Chicago, Ill. during the broadcast from either of those two stations without hearing the slightest chirp from either of them, and using two audio amplifiers on a horn. Signals can be heard in any part of the house at these ranges.

"Other distant stations have been heard, at times as far distant as London, England, Fort Worth, Tex., and California, using a headset.

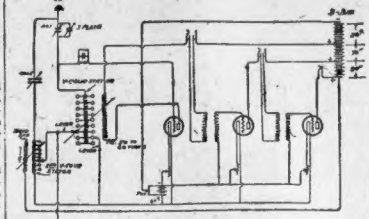
"To tune 360-meter stations, I set the filter coupler at about thirty turns on the stator and the rotor at the maximum, and tune in on the regular circuit in the usual way. After picking up the station, I then make a finer adjustment of the filter condenser and rotor moving both the rotors at the same time to get the position of maximum signal strength.

WILL TUNE SHARPER.

"In case where the regular single circuit set tunes rather broadly itself, leave off the A and B battery connections to the filter coupler, and it will tune considerably sharper. The type and length of the aerial will have much to do with the position of the switch levers on both couplers for maximum efficiency, and this will require some experimenting with their settings to suit the particular location.

"This set will bring in WEAF, WOO, WJZ, KDKA, WGY, WBZ and many others, with neither aerial or ground wire as usually used, by simply attaching about thirty or forty feet of wire to the set and throwing it on the floor from one room to another with the filter disconnected. This, however, will not work out on every set, as much is due to the particular type and make of the apparatus to obtain just the proper electrical balance. The filter, however, will work on any single circuit to a marked degree, and on most multiple circuits."

UNUSUAL DETECTOR WINS FREE TUBE



WITH TWO STAGE AMPLIFIER

This remarkable detector and two stage amplifier devised by a Boston attorney and engineer wins the free vacuum tube for last week's best suggestion. Two variocouplers are used, one of them being a filter attachment. Any standard variocoupler may be used for the latter, simply by rewinding the rotor with 100 turns of No. 28 or 30 cotton covered wire. Selectivity and strength of signal are combined in this receiver.

SOCIETY DINERS FLEE SHOTS IN CAFE MURDER

By International News Service.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Society slummers were shocked today as they witnessed the killing of Stephen Kelliher, prominent labor leader, in the cafe of Al Tearney, Minor League baseball president.

Kelliher was shot dead by Daniel McCarthy, business agent of the Plumbers' Union.

The shooting took place before 200 guests in the restaurant and cabaret. A spectator, Mrs. Thomas Golden, who was dancing with her husband, was shot in the shoulder by a stray bullet.

The dancing stopped abruptly as the shooting began and several women fainted. Scores fled, leaving pocketbooks and other belongings behind.

Eyewitnesses said McCarthy and two other labor leaders were seated at a table near the dancing floor with three young women when Mr. and Mrs. Kelliher entered the place.

Mrs. Kelliher, it was said, came over to the table and addressed some warm remarks to McCarthy. McCarthy and Kelliher had been friends, but "broke" recently. McCarthy made remarks in kind.

Kelliher drew a gun and began shooting. McCarthy then shot Kelliher and fled. He was caught by a policeman.

"I killed him in self-defence," said McCarthy.

ASYLUMS HERE ARE SAFE, SAYS DR. KLINE

Massachusetts insane hospitals are amply safeguarded from fire, according to Dr. George M. Kline, State commissioner of mental diseases, in commenting on the New York asylum holocaust.

"There are fifteen hospitals in the State, housing 20,000 patients," he said.

"Fire is one of the bugbears of institutional men, and they are always on the alert against it. All of the newer buildings are of most modern equipment, with special care to the safeguarding of the inmates against the danger of fire.

"Most of the danger spots in the other institutions are guarded by sprinkler systems. There are weekly fire drills in all of the institutions.

"In larger cities, the asylums are in close touch with the fire department officials, and they are equipped with special alarm boxes.

"In places like Gardner, three miles from the city, the fire apparatus would have a difficult time answering an alarm; but the hospital is built to afford ready egress from either end of each ward, and there is always someone on duty.

"I suppose every building, both public and private, in every city could be made safer, but as a matter of fact we have no great anxiety as to the safety of the patients, as we think they are amply safeguarded."

REPORT BILL TO REVISE HUB CHARTER

A resolve for the appointment of a special commission to consider a revision of the Boston city charter, including abolition of the Boston City Council and the plan to cut the Mayor's term to two years, was reported favorably in the Legislature today by the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs.

Under the terms of this resolve the new Charter Commission would consists of two Senators, to be appointed by President Allen; five Representatives, to be appointed by Speaker Young; two members to be appointed by the Governor, and two by the Mayor of Boston." All the members would have to be residents of the city.

The resolve is almost identical with the Charter Revision Commission bill filed by Representative Martin Hays of Brighton.

TO GO TO PEOPLE.

Hays has declared that he will take no part in the present drive against Mayor Curley and that he will support no charter changes which are not submitted to the people of Boston for their acceptance or rejection.

The resolve provides that the commission shall submit any recommendations possible by May 1, "and shall, if not able to report on its recommendations by that time, file its final report with the clerk of the House of Representatives on or before the second Wednesday in January, 1924."

It is exceedingly doubtful if the Commission will find it possible to report anything worth while this year. It will hold public hearings at the State House, report its findings to the next Legislature and such of its recommendations as may be adopted will doubtlessly be sent to the people at the State election in November, 1924.

WELCOME DBY CURLEY.

The Commission, with its power to investigate all city departments, can hold a club over Mayor Curley's head, but it is exceedingly doubtful if any of its important recommendations could go into effect until about the time the Mayor's four-year term will expire.

Mayor Curley has said he does not object to a study of the charter, "if the purpose of such a study would be to work out something useful and worth while."

The Charter Guards and Good Government Association would prefer a commission to be made up primarily of members nominated by the Chamber of Commerce, United Improvement Association, Central Labor Union and similar other organizations.

PLAN TO "KILL" SHIP SUBSIDY

Washington, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—The administration's ship subsidy bill, storm centre of the greatest legislative fight in years, went into the Senatorial arena today in battle for its life.

With only thirteen days remaining before adjournment of the Sixty-seventh Congress, the outlook was not bright for the measure. Its opponents openly declared they would strike today or tomorrow in an effort to kill the bill outright by an unfavorable vote, or if unsuccessful would "talk it to death" in the next two weeks.

FAVOR PEOPLE'S VOTE ON CONSTITUTION

Washington, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service)—A movement to submit all future constitutional amendments to the people for direct vote on ratification gained favor today before the Senate Judiciary Committee. A proposal to amend the constitution itself to authorize such popular ratification was considered, with indications it would be approved at the next meeting. The proponent was said to result from criticisms of the votes of state legislatures on the prohibition and woman suffrage amendments.

MRS. HARRISON FREE OF RUSSIAN PRISON

Moscow, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Marguerite H. Harrison of Baltimore, American magazine writer, arrested several weeks ago at Chita, has been released from prison and is to leave Moscow next Thursday.

CONFERENCE TO FIGHT BRITISH RUBBER BAN

Washington, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service)—A general conference of American manufacturers in the rubber industry has been called for February 27-28 in Washington to consider measures against British export restrictions, which have added millions of dollars to the American Rubber Consumers' Bill.

PRINCE GEORGE HAS CLOSE CALL IN CRASH

London, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service). Prince George, third son of King George, and Lord and Lady Montbatten, who were riding with him, had a narrow escape today when their motor car collided with another near Ripley. The trio were badly shaken up, but were able to proceed on their way after a rest.

COAL POCKET DOOR KILLS WORKMAN

Jeremiah Sullivan, forty-three years old, No. 81 Adams street, Malden, was instantly killed while at work at the plant of the Melrose & Malden Gas Light Company. The sliding door of a coal pocket fell on him. He leaves a wife and three children.

AGED ROXBURY MAN OVERCOME BY GAS

George C. Parker, eighty, of No 17 Albion street, Roxbury, is on the danger list at the City Hospital as the result of gas asphyxiation. He was found unconscious in his room gas escaping from an unlit wall jet. The leakage is believed to have been accidental.

THIBAUD AND CORTOT GIVE FINE RECITAL

By ZOE FABER.

What was unquestionably one of the best and most enjoyable recitals of the season took place in Symphony Hall when Alfred Cortot, French pianist, and Jacques Thibaud, French violinist, gave the fifth and last of the Steinert series of concerts.

There were two numbers, the Kreutzer Sonata of Beethoven and the Saint-Saens Sonata wherein the artists were heard together and one could not conjure up a playing that was more perfect in ensemble and more entirely pleasure-giving, considered from any angle. The Beethoven was especially fine.

If it is the outdoor antenna that's been holding you off—you want the

D-7-A DeForest Radiophone

It uses an Indoor Loop Aerial

The size of a small picture frame—and brings in the broadcasting of half the American Continent.

M. Steinert & Sons

162 Boylston St.

35 Arch St.

Radio Program

WGI, MEDFORD.

8:00—Late news flashes—early sports news —Boston American.
8:15—Solo parties, lesson No. 10.
8:30—Boston Public Library boosts. "Vocal market reports." Shared bulletin board.
8:45—"What Washington Means to the Youth of America," W. M. Howey, headmaster of the Eagleton High School of Boston. Seventy-eighth Tufts College lecture.
11:58 A. M.—Time signals.
4:00 P. M.—Dance music, Shepard Colonial Orchestra.
5:00—Selections on the Pianola. Dance music, orchestra. Selections on Victrola.

WGY, SCHENECTADY.

7:45 P. M.—Musical program: "Connecticut March," Rosoman, orchestra.
Reading, "Something of Interest to All."
Violin solo, "Gavotte," ..... Gosse
Miss Elizabeth Lawson.
Reading, "On Trial" ..... Hawley
Anne Guider.
Orchestra selections.
(a) "How's Old Sweet Song" ..... Molloy
(b) "The Chimes" ..... Armstrong
Orchestra.
Soprano solos (Mexican Folksongs arranged by Frank La Forge).
(a) "Twilight."
(b) "O, Ark of the Stars, Be ored."
Marion Dudley.
Address, "The Burning of Fuel Substitutes." Charles E. Pritchard.
Instrumental selections.
(a) "March Pontificale" ..... Gounod
(b) "Eternal Spring" ..... Engelmann
Orchestra.
Reading, "Who's Afraid" ..... Dooley
Anne Guider.
Violin solo, "Liebesfreud" ..... Kreisler
Elizabeth Lawson.
Martha Graham, accompanist.
Instrumental selection, "Bobin's Lullaby" ..... Arther
Orchestra.
Soprano solo, "The Gypsy Trail" ..... Galloway
Marion Dudley.
March, "The Ambassador" ..... Bagley
Orchestra.

KDKA, EAST PITTSBURGH.

6:15 P. M.—Dinner Concert by the KDKA Little Symphony Orchestra.
7:15 P. M.—News. Weekly Survey of Business Conditions.
7:30 P. M.—"The Visit to the Little Folks by the Dreamtime Lady."
7:45 P. M.—Items of Particular Interest to Men.
8:15 P. M.—"Outlawry of the War," by Raymond Robbins.
9 P. M.—Concert by the KDKA Little Symphony Orchestra.

WJZ, NEWARK.

9 P. M.—Business and Industrial Conditions.
7 P. M.—"Bedtime Stories."
7:10 P. M.—Music.
8:30 P. M.—Program arranged by the National Thespians, Metropolitan, New York.
8:00 P. M. — Concert by Lewis Hills, dramatic soprano.
9:10 P. M.—Band & Army Night. Program: March, 16th Regiment Band, by Losey; Overture, "Snowdrop's Voice in Outing," by Metz, two cornets and two trombones; Selection, "The Queen of Love," by Ballard; Solo, "Silver Moon," piccolo solo by Wilfred Roy; Medley, "Meet Me Next Spring," by Snyder; Selection, "Harry Steinbouer," "Annie Laurie," Spilman; "Grand Entree," Vandercook.

KYW, CHICAGO.

(400 Meters.)

9 to 10 P. M.—Musical program: Kate Finch Estelnick, soprano; Nora Fenlon Heaney, accompanist; W. J. Mills, tenor; Mrs. Jessie Mills, accompanist; The Royal Blue Democratic Piano Duo: saxophone, also saxophone and banjo, cornet, drums and brass tones and high register, at College Inn, Sherman Hotel, Chicago.
10 P. M.—Music and news.
10:05 P. M.—Talk on "Types of Radio Receivers," by Frank Conrad.

"Carolina in the Morning"

You'll never hear this captivating fox-trot played with finer tempo, rhythm and melody than on the Columbia Record made by Eddie Elkins' Orchestra.

"Silver Swanee" is its team mate on the reverse side. At

COLUMBIA DEALERS

A-3737—75c

Columbia New Process Records

Quality and Charm Distinguish "SALADA" TEA

"The most Delicious Tea you can buy."

Sold only in sealed metal packets NEVER IN BULK

Amusements

GORDON'S OLYMPIA ~ Wash. St.

"OLD MELODY WEEK"—Beginning TODAY

EDWIN CAREWE presents the successor to "HUMORESQUE and "OVER THE HILL"

MIGHTY LAK' A ROSE

A picture that will echo in your heart like a magic melody. There's something about it that you won't see on the screen.

A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION

5 ALL STAR VAUDEVILLE ACTS

LATEST COMEDY

Amusements

TONIGHT AT 8:20

PREMIERE OF THESE SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

TWICE DAILY Thereafter at 2:15 and 8:15

The World's Surpassing Love Story and Drama

GOLDWYN presents Sir HALL CAINE'S THE CHRISTIAN

A MAMMOTH PRODUCTION

Directed by MAURICE TOURNEUR

WITH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

PARK THEATRE TREMONT ST. NEAR BOYLSTON

MATS. 50¢ to $1.00 EVES. 50¢ to $1.50

ALL SEATS RESERVED

THE MEISTERSINGERS Boston's Celebrated Triple Quartette

TODAY

Continued from Third Page.

and took what was needed. That ought to be a good hint to the administration. Does anybody in Washington imagine that Canadians would be shipping coal to the United States if there were any Canadian shortage? Advertisements have been appearing in Canadian newspapers offering American coal "hard or soft, immediate delivery, any quantity," and at prices less than people are paying in America.

Naturally, American coal dealers don't want to buy their Canadian trade. On the other hand, the Republican party does not want to lose its votes. The American people have long memories, but they will remember for a couple of years the treatment that they have had in this coal famine.

Seventy-five per cent. of the famine has been artificially fixed up to enable coal owners to get any price, and the government has worked for the coal men as it works for the railroads and not for the people.

Amusements

The Cosmopolitan Corporation presents

MARION DAVIES in ADAM AND EVA by Guy Bolton and George Middleton

SPECTACULAR pageants, magnificent homes, gorgeous gowns, the mad whirl of society and then—the peaceful serenity of pastoral life amid nature's greatest beauties. It's all in "Adam and Eva" which, as a play, ran a year on Broadway and is infinitely better as a film.

Directed by Robert G. Vignola
Settings by Joseph Urban A Paramount Picture

STATE THEATRE TODAY

A Cosmopolitan Production

STUART WILBUR Tel. Beach 4500 Seats also Little Side at Box Office Prices

EVES. at 8:10. MATS. Wed., Thur., Sat., at 2:10

TONIGHT at 8:10

Direct from Wilbur Theatre, N. Y. Run

LISTENING IN

The Joyful Mystery Comedy by CARLYLE MOORE, Author of "Step This" and "The Unknown Purple."

Original N. Y. Cast, headed by Ernest Glendinning

HOLIDAY MAT. THURS., FEB. 22

MODERN & BEACON

CONTINUOUS PROGRAM AT BOTH THEATRES

IS LOVE STRONGER THAN HATE?

The answer is found in this intriguing story that warms every heart.

THE KINGDOM WITHIN

MARK TWAIN'S PRINCE AND PAUPER

LARRY SEMON'S "No Wedding Bells"

SELWYN EVES. at 8:10 WED. & SAT. 2:10

Evs. 50c to 2.50. Wed. & Sat. Mat. 50c to 2.00

THE COMFORTING PLAY

"THE Fool"

Extra Mat. Washington's Birthday

In the midst of the fast labor about "THE FOOL," Commander in our midst over the day the millennium will reveal the cost of the two. Then, 54 years hence, just as Eg. R. Fahey, Founded St., Somerville, Mass.

SHUBERT Tel. Beach 4500 Seats also Little Side at Box Office Prices

EVES. at 8:10. MATS. Wed. Thur. Sat. at 2:10

TONIGHT at 8:10

The Joyful Love Triangle

ELSIE

POP. MAT. WED., BEST S... HOLIDAY MAT. THUR., FEB. 22

LOEW'S STATE

Mats. 25c & 35c—After 5 P. M. 50c-75c Sun. & Hol. Mats. 50c. Inc. tax. This GALA HOLIDAY PROGRAM

MARION DAVIES in "ADAM and EVA"

IN ADDITION TO

MARY MILES MINTER in "DRUMS OF FATE"

LARRY SEMON in "No Wedding Bells"

LATEST PATHE NEWS

SHUBERT OPERA HOUSE

Seats Also at Little Side at Box Office Prices. Evs. 8:10 Mat. Wed., Thurs., Sat. at 2:10

MESSRS. SHUBERT Present THE MUSICAL HIT OF A-GES

Blossom Time

Triumphant return to Boston at the Opera House and here for its 2nd engagement of the season. Seats now selling for the remainder of the engagement. Evs. $2.50 to $.50. Wed. Mat. $2.00 to $.50. Sat. Mat. $2.50 to $.50. Last Week—Holiday Mat., Feb. 22

ST. JAMES Tel. Beach 4500 Seats also Little Side at Box Office Prices

Evs. 8:10 Mat. Wed. & Sat. 2:10

Let's Go

Direct from Plymouth Theatre, N. Y. Run

BOOST STOCK COMPANY

MATINEES TODAY & THURSDAY

"UP THE LADDER"

By OWEN DAVIS

NEXT WEEK—"ROLLO'S WILD OAT"

TREMONT TEMPLE Tel. Beach 4500 Daily at 2:15 & 8:15

Prices: 25c 50c 75c & $1.00 Reserved Seats

LAST WEEK WILLIAM FOX Presents THE FILM SENSATION

THE TOWN that FORGOT GOD (Last 6 Days)

MAJESTIC Tel. Beach 4500 Seats also Little Side at Box Office Prices

EVES. at 8:10 MATS. Wed. & Sat. at 2:10

SHUBERT VAUDEVILLE

GEORGE and JESSEL SISTERS

TROUBLES of 1923

2nd Degree & Co., Marguerite Farrell, Chas. O'Brien-Ed. Marcus, Sam Bernard, Ann Lowenberg, Ultra Erving Bartlette, Gerrade Hayes, Jr.

LOEW'S ORPHEUM

CONTINUOUS—9:15 A. M. to 11:30 P. M.

METRO SUPER SPECIAL

MAE MURRAY in "JAZZMANIA"

—VAUDEVILLE ACTS—6

LARRY SEMON in "No Wedding Bells"

LATEST WORLD EVENTS

GORDON'S SCOLLAY SQ. OLYMPIA

RICHARD BARTHELMESS and DOROTHY GISH in FURY

BARNUM WAS RIGHT

4 OTHER ACTS

BOSTON THEATRE Continuous

BETTY BLYTHE "The Darling of the Gods"

A new Larry Semon comedy, "The Handy Man"

IN PERSON LEONE LAVELY Music Takes Us Along

GAYETY BURLESQUE BUDDEVALLE SHOW

"BROADWAY BREVITIES"

WALDRON'S CASINO

"STEP ON IT" Also Picture and Vaudeville Cont. 12:30 to 11:30 P. M.

HOWARD PAT WHITE and his NEW BURLESQUE SHOW, vaudeville and films. Always something doing. 3, 101 11.

Gladys Walton in "THE MORNING" and Thomas Meighan in "SACK AND SAND"

GLOBE "BUNCO ADAMS SAWYER" Dick Barthelmess in "Soul Fire"

THEATRE Weekly, ats. 10c, 50c, 30c Continuous 10:30 A. M. to 10:30 P. M.

FRANKLIN SQUARE

Gladys Walton in "THE MORNING" and Thomas Meighan in "SACK AND SAND"

BEKETH'S

Week of Feb. 19 at 2 and 8. Tel. Beach 1700

Special Engagement of Miss Mary Boland

DUNCAN SISTERS

Next Closest Girls to Us

BUTLER & PARKER A Bit of Louisville

Carleton & Bellew

MADELINE COLLINS LEAVITT & LOCKWOOD 5 SONG FEB. 22 at 1:30, 4:30 & 8:30 P. M.

MOORE & FREED

10 MILES From Broadway

HARRY ROBINETTE

COLONIAL Evgs. at 8:15. Mat. Wed. Sat. 2:15

ED WYNN "THE PERFECT FOOL" HIS NEW MUSICAL RIOT

TREMONT THEATRE DAVID BELASCO Presents LIONEL ATWILL in "THE COMEDIAN"

TONIGHT at 8:15 — Weeks Only

Wash. Birthday Mat. Thursday

ARLINGTON THEATRE

TONITE—LAST WEEK

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

MATS. WED. THURS. & SAT.

WASHINGTON THEATRE

Mary Pickford in "Tess of the Storm Country"

—Larry Semon in "No Wedding Bells"—Comedy

SHUBERT-PLYMOUTH Tel. Beach 4500 Seats also Little Side at Box Office Prices

Evgs. 8:15

Buy Seats NOW for Washington's Birthday Mat. & Night Thursday

"JUST MARRIED"

VIVIAN MARTIN LYNNE OVERMAN

John Keith and Minnie Dupree Present

GORDON'S

CAPITOL Evgs. at 8:15

G. W. GRIFFITH'S ONE EXCITING NIGHT

CAMBRIDGE CENTRAL SQ.

CODMAN SQ. DORCHESTER

OTHER GREAT PROGRAMS

BOWDOIN SQ. Tel. Haymarket 2000

CONTINUOUS FROM 10:30 A. M. TO 11:30 P. M.

SECRETS of PARIS with Barbara La Marr

at 10:00 and 2:00 THE CURSE of DRINK

at 12:00 and 4:00 LEFTOVER WIVES with Alice Lake

at 8:00 ONE WEEK ONLY

WILLIE HOPKINS and his BAND

LIBERTY 726 Blue Hill Ave., Dorchester

"When the Desert Calls" with Sheldon Lewis, Mary Miles Minter "Hurricane Breeder"

LANCASTER THEATRE

Thomas Meighan—"Back Home and Broke"

Viola Dana—"Love is the Night"

Wednesday—Thursday—Friday—Saturday

"The World's Applause" with Bebe Daniels. Also "LOVE IS THE NIGHT"

POLES RENEW ATTACKS ON LITHUANIANS

Warsaw, Feb. 19.—(By the Associated Press)—Polish attacks by the Lithuanians on Polish forces in the neutral zone allotted to Poland are reported here today. It is also said that the class of 1922 has been mobilized in Lithuania.

Paris, Feb. 19 (By the Associated Press).—Meagre details of the occupation of the neutral zone between Poland and Lithuania, received in official circles in Paris, indicate there has been action on both sides.

Dispatches from Polish sources to the Foreign Office say that as soon as the Poles completed the occupation of that part of the zone given them by the Council of the League of Nations the Lithuanians began firing with artillery upon the points occupied.

At the lithuanian legation here it was declared the Poles had not only occupied their own part of the neutral zone but had crowded over into the part assigned to the Lithuanians by the League. It was also averred that the Polish frontier guard's and officials needed for the administration of the region were accompanied by troops of all arms, contrary to the decision of the League Council which, while allowing the claimants each to administer a part of the zone intended the zone should remain neutral as far as military operations were concerned.

The impression voiced in French official circles is that the Lithuanians are carrying out the threat they made in the League Council to resist the occupation of any part of the zone by the Poles. Lithuania has an army of about 50,000 men.

DOUBT HUGHES CAN VISIT SO. AMERICA

Washington, Feb. 19.—The possibility that Secretary Hughes will be able to make his proposed trip to attend the Pan-American conference next month at Santiago, Chile, is becoming more doubtful. It was said today that while Mr. Hughes is still deferring a final decision as to whether it would be wise for him to leave the Capital at this time, he feels it may prove impracticable to make the projected visit to South America owing to the general European situation and pressure of other matters.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
IN USE FOR OVER 30 YEARS
Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Bright Spots in Shadowland

PHYLLIS HAVER, who was chosen for an important part in "The Christian," coming to the Park Theatre today, is one of the many bathing beauties to achieve dramatic honors on the screen. Miss Haver was loaned for the production by Mack Sennett, to whom she is under contract. In "The Christian" she impersonates Polly Love, a nurse in a London hospital who trod the primrose path disastrously.

Miss Haver's first screen experience was gained in a motion picture playhouse. It occurred to her that a good way of turning her musical gifts to advantage would be to play the piano that constituted the theatre's orchestra. Phyllis held that job, she says, until the proprietor got tired of the fifteen tunes that constituted her limited repertoria. Then she decided to become a screen actress and a mutual friend introduced her to Mack Sennett.

After that everything was easy.

DAVIDSON DOUBLES

WILLIAM DAVIDSON who has returned to the speaking stage in "Listening In," which comes to the Wilbur Theatre tonight is best known to Boston theatregoers through the medium of the silver sheet, having devoted his talents to pictures for the past eight years. He will be seen simultaneously in Boston on the stage and screen, for he supports Marion Davies in "Adam and Eve," which is being shown at Loew's State this week.

SUSPICIOUSLY NATURAL.

ONE of the scenes in Richard Barthelmess' next vehicle, "The Bright Shawl," is laid in one of the celebrated Havana hotels. During the filming of this scene numerous visitors watched it. Among them were a number who had been frequent visitors to Havana since Mr. Volstead made that city such a popular place for American tourists. "Why, it is so exact, that I can almost imagine myself sitting at a table sipping a Bacardi cocktail," one of the visitors said to Mr. Barthelmess.

GETS BEBE'S ROLE.

BECAUSE Bebe Daniels will require at least four more weeks to recover from her recent operation, Agnes Ayres will replace Miss Daniels as co-star with Antonio Moreno in "The Exciter," which Richard Ordynski will direct at the Long Island Studio. As soon as Miss Daniels has entirely recovered she will assume a stellar role in a picture which was originally assigned to Miss Ayres.

FIVE MORE DIE IN FLAMES IN NEW YORK

New York Feb. 19.—Five persons died in fires early today, bringing to thirty-one the total of fire fatalities in Greater New York for a twenty-hour period.

Mrs. Anna Webb, her daughter and the latter's two boys, six months and ten years old, negroes, died in their Brooklyn apartment home while the children's father, who was seriously hurt, attempted to lead police to the rescue. Three policemen were badly burned.

Three-year-old Rose Carmino lost her life when a blaze swept a five story tenement on the upper East Side early today.

Today's fires were the fifth and sixth of a series that started Sunday with the death of twenty-five at the Manhattan State Hospital for the insane on Ward's Island.

Another victim was a woman who dropped dead of heart disease at a fire in her Bronx home.

STRICKEN WHILE EATING; LOSES LIFE

A shabbily-dressed, unidentified white man of about 70 years became ill early today while eating breakfast at a restaurant at No. 5½ Castle street in the South End. He died on arrival at the City Hospital. Death is believed to be from natural causes.

YOU TAKE COLD EASIEST WHEN YOU ARE TIRED

Doctors will tell you that a person who is tired is the easiest victim of the cold or influenza germ. The power of resistance has been lowered, wasted tissue has not been rebuilt and the door is wide open for the entrance of the germs. You can build up your power of resistance and gain more energy for the day's work by taking a tonic food such as Father John's Medicine which is all pure nourishment, scientifically prepared in such a way that it is quickly taken up by a system that is weakened and run down. It is guaranteed free from alcohol and drugs, and has had more than sixty-seven years' success treating coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and building new strength.

Jordan Marsh Company

Where QUALITY as well as Price determines Value

Hand Made Porto Rican

BLOUSES

Extra Good Values at

1.95 | 2.95 | 3.95

The vogue of Porto Rican Hand Made Blouses continues and promises to be second to no other style in Lingerie Blouses for Spring and Summer. Every Blouse—and there are hundreds of them—in this remarkable offering bears the "ear marks" of higher priced models. For example:

French Seams, Tiny Tucks, Perfectly Made Button Holes
Well Fitting Collars and Shoulders, Hand Embroidery, Real Irish Lace
Real Filet Lace, Hand Drawnwork, Turn-Back Cuffs, Pearl Buttons

Styles in French Voile, Handkerchief Linen and Batiste

Other Hand Made Blouses from 4.95 to 18.50

Narrow Ribbon
Some very pretty ribbons in this lot, suitable for many uses. Plain and fancy effects. ½ to 1-inch widths. Included are picot edge, two-tone, metal and fancy edged ribbons. Yard 10c

Jordan Marsh Company
Great Basement Store
The Famous Store Within a Store
For the Sale of the Less Expensive Merchandise

Many other good values not advertised here will be found on sale throughout our Great Basement Store.

A Tempting List of Good Values in
The Very Things You Need
at Our Well-Known Basement Low Prices

Size 8.3x10.6 Seamless
Axminster & Wilton
Velvet Rugs
34.50
Will give you surprisingly good wear in any room in the house. Royal Axminsters and Wilton velvets at this price—size 8.3x10.6 ft. Excellent designs and colors.

Women's attractive
Dimity and Voile
Waists
98c
The popular new paisley effects are included in this lot of waists. Also white waists. Large assortment of styles, in round collar and V neck styles. Sizes 36 to 46.

Satisfactory value in Ruffled Marquisette
Curtains
98c pr.
These are very neat-looking curtains—the kind that will give wear. They're made with a neat hemstitched band, full narrow ruffle and tie backs.

Many pretty styles in Misses' Neat Dimity
Waists
98c
These are unusually good waists for such a moderate price. Choice of attractive styles with round necks. Some of them are effectively trimmed with color. Sizes 14 to 20 years.

Splendid selection of Pretty Figured
Cretonnes
25c YD.
These popular cretonnes come in a good assortment of attractive allover and stripe effects, with light and dark grounds. Very moderate price.

Men! A great value in Fine Woven Madras
Shirts
95c
Exceptionally fine lot of shirts in a great variety of smart new stripes and pleasing color combinations. Excellent woven madras and fine corded materials.

A special lot of Women's Silk
Underwear
1.90
At this moderate price are included women's silk crepe de chine chemises and step-ins. They come in pink, maize and orchid. Women will appreciate this good value.

Housewives—Note this 300 dozen good
Pillow Cases
4 FOR 1.00
Made of a fine grade of cotton—and remarkably good pillow cases for this small price. In the popular 42x36 size. A big chance to stock up and save money.

Size 9x12 ft. Seamless
Royal Wilton
Velvet Rugs
36.50
A splendid opportunity to replace the old rug with a nice, bright, fresh one. These rugs have a closely woven pile, and come in a good selection of colors and designs.

Parents! Note these Excellent Values in Infants' Wear
39c
Infants' long cotton flannelette kimonos.
Infants' cotton and wool shirts.
Infants' cotton flannelette gertrudes, long and short styles.
Infants' cotton and wool bands.

Miscellaneous lot of Women's Dainty
Neckwear
12½c
Odd lots of slightly mussed neckwear—in a wide selection of desirable styles. All of the washable kind. Some exceptionally good values here.

A special purchase of Women's New Spring
Trimmed Hats
2.39
Some very clever new models in this lot. Ostrich, vulture and hackle feathers, combined with visca and imitation hair cloth. In black and colors. Styles include pokes, turbans, off-the-face and mushroom effects.

The latest styles in Women's Kandy Cloth
Hat Shapes
98c
In black, brown, navy, sand, copen, pearl and strawberry. Eight different shapes to select from, including pokes, off-the-face, mushroom, tricornes and turbans.

A very low price for Women's Sateen
Petticoats
98c
Just what you need for every day wear. Choice of black, navy, copenhagen and brown. Women who know values will surely profit by this low price.

Real economy in Undermuslins
Much Underprice
Women's Muslin Night Gowns, also envelope chemises and bloomers 39c
Women's Cotton Taffeta Petticoats, in black and odd colors 29c
Women's Bloomers, in black and pink sateen, also washable crepe 69c
Muslin Night Gowns, pink and white; also pink washable crepe 79c

BOSTON, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1923

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

THIS PAPER IS NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT THE FIRST SECTION—GET BOTH

Two Complete News Sections, Two First Pages, Two Fiction Pages, 16 and 17, Two Pages of Comics, 14 and 15

HEIRESS TO KEEP HER DUKE

Free Weddings Go Begging

ANNA GOULD AND HER MATE VISIT HUB

DUCHESS OF TALLYRAND

DUKE OF TALLYRAND

NEW STEAMSHIP LINE, BOSTON-NEW ORLEANS

A new direct steamship service between Boston and New Orleans is announced by the Southern Pacific Company. First sailing will come with the departure of steamship El Lago, 4,600 tons, from New Orleans, Thursday, March 22.

Frequency of sailings will depend upon shippers. On the northward trips cotton for New England textile mills, formerly delivered at New York and transshipped to Boston, will go to Boston direct.

The management expects there will also be large movements of lumber and naval stores to Boston. Boston landings will be at Battery wharf or nearby.

BOSTON MAN HELD IN $15,000 SILK THEFT

Henry E. Sherman, nineteen years old, of Boston, alleged to be one of the gang of four that robbed the Paramount Petticoat Company, of Woburn, of $15,000 worth of silks, was held in $1,000 bail for one week when arraigned today in Woburn Court. The silks were recovered when the truck in which they were being taken away collided with a street car and was abandoned. Police learned that the truck had been rented to Sherman and his aides followed

ANNOYS GIRLS ON CAR; GETS 30 DAYS

Accused of annoying two young women on a Waltham street car Thomas P. McMullen, forty-two, of No. 166 Chestnut street, Waltham, was fined $10 and given thirty days in jail today. Conductor Patrick McGrath stopped the car to order McMullen off. The car happened in front of the home of Policeman John Monaghan, who arrested McMullen. The latter appeared in Newton court charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace

3 FIREMEN HURT IN W. SPRINGFIELD

Springfield, Feb. 19.—Two firemen were overcome by smoke, one was injured and ten people attired only in nightclothes were forced to flee to the street in the bitter cold today when fire destroyed the two-family frame house at No. 31 Field street, West Springfield. Delay in fighting the blaze occurred because the fire men could not locate the fire plugs, which were covered with snow.

Blizzard Grips North England

London, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—Nearly all of north England was stormbound today Sixty villages were isolated. A terrific gale of wind was accompanied by deep snow.

TITLED BEAUTY STIRS LONDON SOCIAL SET

London, Feb. 19.—Means of dis may from the British aristocracy

Ejaculations of "What's the world coming to?"

Sighs of "Is this never going to stop?"

All of which is inspired by the fact that on Wednesday Lady Ursula G. Grosvenor reaches the age of twenty-one, and with her becoming of age she receives a fortune.

But that's not the rub. The wailing and gnashing of teeth from the fast-dwindling society irreconcilables are due to an announcement that Lady Ursula is soon to marry a commoner. A commoner, and a jockey! Jack Anthony, pride of the steeplechase!

"Like mother, like daughter," the dismayed fashionables console them selves with. Once it were less majesto to say that about Lady Ursula's mother, the Duchess of Westminster.

But since her divorce from the Duke of Westminster, richest peer in England, and her marriage to Captain H Fitzpatrick Lewis, penniless variety actor, it is permissible to say anything

And the Duke, who is one of the most important personages in the British aristocracy, who owns most of the West End, who is so close to the King he can hear his heart beat, what does he think?

He doesn't. For he also did the unforgivable. After the Duchess divorced him, the Duke went out and married a commoner—Mrs. Violet Rowley, whose father owned a gross of meat stores, but not one coat of arms

ROXBURY WOMAN HIT BY CAR IS DYING

Mrs. Hannah Lynch, sixty years old, of No. 16 Whitney street, Roxbury, sustained concussion of the brain and possible fracture of the skull today when she was struck by an Elevated car at Tremont and Whitney streets. The woman was carried to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital nearby, by Motorman Joseph Hooker and Conductor William Coulter. It is believed she became confused in attempting to cross the tracks.

DUKE AND HEIRESS HAPPY

"Nothing to It at All," Anna Could Says, Regarding Separation

Just one year ago Paris and American society were discussing the divorce action brought by the Duchess of Tallyrand, the former Anna Gould, against her French royalist husband, the Duke of Tallyrand.

Today the couple are occupying the most expensive suite at the Copley-Plaza, completely reconciled

"Nothing to it at all, absolutely nothing," the daughter of the late Jay Gould, millionaire builder of railroads, declared in regard to her divorce action.

"Poof—it is nothing. There will be no divorce; we are quite happy," her husband affirmed.

SON OF HARVARD.

The Duke and Duchess, accompanied by the latter's nineteen-year-old son Count Jay de Castellane, are spending a few days in Boston. They came here to visit Count Henri de Castellane, their nephew, who is a student at Harvard.

Incidentally, young Count Jay's father is the Count Boni de Castellane, his mother's first husband, and his stepfather, the Duke of Tallyrand, is also his cousin

"Tanky," pedigreed Pekinese pug constant companion of the Duchess in most of her travels, had to be left behind when the ducal party left New York for Boston. He stayed there with Helen Violet de Tallyrand, the seven-year-old daughter of the Duke and Duchess

ON WORLD TOUR.

The Duke and Duchess are on a tour of the world. They left Paris about nine months ago and since then have traveled extensively in the Orient When they reached San Francisco they found that the hotel management had a specially selected pure bred Guernsey cow waiting to give forth fresh milk for the Pekinese pup. "Tanky," the pup, was of greater interest to San Francisco than his distinguished owners.

When the divorce action of the Duchess was first mooted in Paris a year ago, it was generally understood that the Duke would not contest the case. The grounds offered by the Duchess was the declaration that the Duke quit her room and did not return for two days When she asked him where he had been he refused an explanation

Then the Duke was ordered to leave the house. Next day he went to his castle on the Rhine

Despite a host of servants who accompanied the Duke and Duchess to Boston, it was the Duke himself, muffled up till only the tip of his nose showed over the edge of his fur coat, who attended to the unwraps of trunks that had to be located after the train arrived

The Duke of Tallyrand owns considerable estates in Germany and these have been restored to him since the signing of peace.

The Duchess of Tallyrand married her first husband, Count Boni de Castellane, in New York in March 1895. Ten years later, after a sensational divorce suit, the Countess obtained a divorce and was given the custody of their children

BREWSTER TO DINE WITH CARDINAL

Maj. Gen. Brewster

Major General A. W. Brewster, commanding the First Corps Area, will dine with Cardinal O'Connell Monday evening, and on Washington's Birthday will be the guest of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company at the City Club.

Isadore Blames Bad U. S. Whiskey for Serge's Cave Stuff

Paris, Feb. 19.—"Serge is the greatest Russian poet of modern times. He loves me and I love him. He couldn't have said the things he is quoted as saying in Berlin. When he gets over his hangover he will feel differently about things. He is suffering from the bad American whiskey served on the boat coming over."

So said Isadore Duncan today when informed that Serge Esenin declared in Berlin that he was through with her forever.

MAYOR CURLEY URGES ACTION ON SHIP BILL

Mayor Curley today sent to the city council a letter urging passage of resolutions favoring enactment of the ship subsidy bill, now pending in Congress

Attached to the communications is a resolution:

"Whereas the President of the United States, Warren G Harding has recommended the adoption by Congress of a ship subsidy bill for the preservation of American commercial independence and a necessary naval auxiliary in time of war, and whereas the adoption of a subsidy measure will be of direct and immediate benefit to New England and the United States of America, be it hereby resolved that we, the members of the Boston City Council respectfully commend to the Massachusetts Representatives in both branches of Congress favorable action on pending ship subsidy bill.

U. S. SHIPS HANDICAPPED.

Senator John McCormack of South Boston presented the same resolutions today to the Legislature

In his letter the Mayor says

"Foreign shipping is so heavily subsidized and American shipping so hampered, not only by lack of subsidy but by stringent rules if the same navigation laws, as to render competition impossible without direct financial governmental assistance.

"The future of Boston, in fact of all New England, coun[illegible] dependent upon the action of Congress on the question of governmental aid to shipping

"That independency be restored and maintained upon sea as well as upon land, it is vital that America's shipping be placed upon an equal competitive basis with foreign shipping

NEEDED BY THE NAVY.

"The value of an American Merchant Marine from the standpoint of national defence cannot be overestimated. Under the guise of maintaining an auxiliary transport system huge sums are expended annually by Great Britain, Japan and other foreign powers

"America today is required to compete for business in the markets of the world under handicaps that should not obtain. Outside markets are essential to the stabilization of industry and the promotion of industrial peace. The failure of Congress to adopt the ship subsidy bill would result in a return of the foreign shipping combine"

WATERTOWN WOMAN SAVES GAS VICTIM

A twenty-five cent gas meter endangered the life of Julia Garofalo, of No. 38 Clarendon street Watertown, today.

About four o'clock members of the household were awakened by the smell of escaping gas. They found Mrs. Carocivio unconscious in bed Patrolman James Riley worked the pulmotor until a physician arrived

The flow of gas in the meter became too feeble to feed a flame on a lighted gas jet. After the light was extinguished, the gas continued to flow

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE SANFORD TAKES OATH

Washington, Feb 19.—Associate Justice Edward T Sanford of Tennessee, took the judicial oath upon the reconvening of the Supreme Court today after a three weeks' recess.

Chief Justice Taft administered the oath

AUTO MEN MUST PAY 3 MILLION

Tax Officials Going After Big Sum "Dodged" by the Owners of Cars

Under the guidance of State Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long, the tax officials all over this State started at work today on a plan to collect $3,000,000 in taxes which auto owners are dodging every year.

There are in excess of 460 000 autos in the state. Mr. Long estimates that their taxable value is about $275,000 000

Autos are classed as tangible personal property and are taxable at the local rate

$7,700,000 TOTAL.

The average local tax rate in Massachusetts is $27.90 per $1,000 of value. Mr Long says that the auto owners therefore, should be paying the cities and towns $7,700,000 in taxes a year, but that only about $4,000,000 is being collected from them.

"Some of the owners fail to report their autos on the tax officials," said Mr. Long "Others find ways of concealing them on April 1, the tax day

OWNERS TABULATED.

"The auto owners pay about $10,000 000 a year in taxes and registration fees, yet the State, counties, cities and town expended $44,000,000 last year for the upkeep of old and the construction of new roads. The auto owners are paying only a small part of the damage they cause to the highways"

Mr Long is putting a force of clerks at work to tabulate the names of the owners and their cars which are registered with the State Registrar of Motor Vehicles. The copies will be sent to the local assessors and when they start out on April 1 to assess taxes, they will have a record of every car within their jurisdiction.

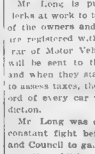
Mr Long was obliged to wage a constant fight before the Governor and Council to gain authority to employ the additional clerks He was opposed by the new State Department of Administration and Finance, which kicked at the expense The Governor and Council at first turned him down but the authority was granted at a subsequent meeting of the Council presided over by Lieutenant-Governor Fuller who is one of the biggest auto dealers in New England

Henry F. Long.

PHONE GIRLS' LEADER WINS LABOR VICTORY

Miss Julia S. O'Connor president of the Telephone Department, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, is credited with a victory in reconciliation between the Central Labor Union of Boston Operating Employees' Department and [illegible] by her.

Inauguration of [illegible] as O'Connor's organization were credited and seated at the regular meeting of the B. C. L. U. The action was taken after representatives of the Brotherhood termed the new union as "the only legal telephone operators' union in Boston."



Julia S. O'Connor.

PASTOR TO HOLD OFFER OPEN WEEK

Dudley Street Clergyman Plans Campaign to Curb Growing Divorce Evil

Johnny, get your girl!

Here's the chance of a lifetime.

The Rev. Arthur T. Brooks, pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist Church, will marry any couple free who appear at next Sunday night's service Boston's love lorn couples did not accept Dr Brooks' first offer, so he says he will hold it open one week longer.

"In making my offer to marry any couple free of charge, I had a definite purpose in mind," said Dr. Brooks. "My offer is to marry them free in the church

Rev. A. T. Brooks

BLOW AT DIVORCE.

"If the Protestant churches would conduct a crusade and insist upon marriages being performed in church, they would strike a tremendous blow at the divorce evil in my opinion."

Dr. Brooks lives at No. 60 Waverly street, Roxbury, and invites any couple desirous of being married in church free next Sunday night to get in touch with him this week

A list of "Don'ts" on marriage expounded by the pastor, follows

"DON'TS" FOR MEN.

Don't marry a pretty face—sweetness and character are preferable

Don't marry for fun—marriage is a God given, serious contract.

Don't think you are marrying an angel—your girl is as human as you are

Don't marry merely a pair of winged feet—they do not usually harmonize with the kitchen floor.

Don't have long engagements—they're wearing on the poetry of life

"DON'TS" FOR WOMEN.

Don't marry a man to reform him —better women than you have failed on that job

Don't marry a dashing, "good time" sort of a chap and expect happiness. A steady-going, temperate man wears better in double harness

Don't marry a "meal ticket" unless you have to—God meant you for better things. Keep your respect

Don't marry except on a 50 50 basis—remember in the twentieth century you are as important as your man

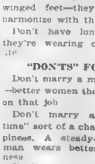
Don't leave love for money—love's always the best

GAS VICTIM BURIED IN LEGION LOT

The remains of Arthur Boisvert whose frozen body was found with that of Nellie Clemans on a lonely road in Tewksbury ten days ago, were shipped to his home, No. 112 Water street, Lawrence, from the morgue at the Tewksbury State Hospital.

Boisvert and the Clemans girl had been out riding on the night of their deaths and when they stopped the machine fumes seeped into the car and asphyxiated them both.

The funeral was at St. Ann's Church, with burial in the legion lot in the Immaculate Conception Cemetery.



Arthur Boisvert.

FLAYS SOCIETY WOMAN OVER BURNS' TALK

MRS. LOTHROP AMES

(Photo by Bachrach)

Society woman who was scored in an unsigned letter for inviting William J. Burns, famous detective, to speak at her home. The letter called Burns a "cur," and Mrs. Ames an "enemy of the common people." Inset shows Mr. Burns.

Mrs. F. Lothrop Ames, prominent society matron, received in her morning mail at her town house, Commonwealth avenue and Dartmouth street, today an anonymous letter denouncing her for opening her mansion for a lecture by William J. Burns, head of the Federal Secret Service, this afternoon.

The letter was evidently written by a woman

The letter writer branded Burns as a "cur" and Mrs. Ames as an "enemy of the common people."

Mrs. Ames ignored the letter and its hostile tone, so far as her lecture plans were concerned she said simply.

"The lecture will be held as planned."

She was so undisturbed by the missile, that she left her home at mid-morning after seeing that final arrangements for the lecture at 3 o'clock were completed to attend a child welfare talk at the Chilton Club

SHOWS BURNS LETTER.

At request of officials of the National Civic Federation, under whose auspices the Burns lecture is to be held, Mrs Ames decided to submit the letter to Mr Burns first and let him use his discretion before giving it out for publication

From one of two clippings in the letter Mrs. Ames assumed that the hostility of the writer to Burns was due to the Albert Badin case in Chicago, in which Badin is charged with criminal libel by Allen O Myers assistant general manager of the W J Burns detective agency

Mr Burns who is director of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice, which means that he is Uncle Sam's head detective, speaks on "The Responsibility of Citizenship" before the National Civic Federation in Mrs. Ames' Back Bay mansion.

He was invited to be a luncheon guest at the Chilton Club at 1 o'clock

Chairs have been assembled in one of the large drawing rooms in the Ames mansion and other arrangements made for the Burns talk.

When the opening mail was brought in to Mrs. Ames found among the social correspondence and other communications an envelope in a handwriting, strange to her and whose contents were stranger still Describing the letter briefly, Mrs Ames said later

"I received an anonymous letter protesting against the use of my home for Mr. Burns' lecture this afternoon.

"The letter was evidently written by a woman

"Two clippings were enclosed. One referred to the fact that Mr. Burns is to appear at my home and that my home has been placed at the disposal of the National Civic Federation for this lecture.

CALLED BURNS A "CUR."

"The other clipping, a long one, referred to the statements made by Albert Badin of Chicago, who was recently arrested in Chicago on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Allen O Myers, assistant general manager of the B. J. Burns International Detective Agency.

"The letter writer said that Mr. Burns was a 'cur' and worse than a criminal that I was an enemy of the common people if I permitted his use of my home for a lecture

"I presume that the person must have been in the audience concealed in the hall after reading the story of Mr Badin

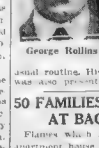
Some of the words in the letter were misspelled

The lecture will be held as planned

I have no doubt that other anonymous letters have been received by Mr Burns or his agents"

CHAPEL PROGRAM INTERESTS ROLLINS

Among the 600 confined at the Charlestown State prison who enjoyed the chapel entertainment provided by the Alpha Zeta Chi fraternity of Somerville High School, was George L. Rollins. The youth, who recently began a life sentence for the conviction of killing Ordway Hall in 1921, seemed especially to appreciate this break in the usual routine. His brother, Charles, was also present.



George Rollins

50 FAMILIES IN PERIL AT BACK BAY FIRE

Flames which spread through an apartment house at No. 10 Museum road, Back Bay, imperilled nearly fifty families and caused damage estimated at $7,500. The fire started in the basement from a defective chimney and burned through three floors damaging the apartments of Jacobson William A Post, Francis Carroll, Mrs. Corrine J Murray, widow of the late owner of the Hotel Roosevelt, and Jesse D Seaton

The building is owned by C Alcott of No. 76 Avon street Somerville

SLEEPING SICKNESS HITS 4 IN MERIDEN

Meriden, Ct., Feb 19—Four cases of sleeping sickness, three serious, are under treatment in a local hospital. Dr. J. A. Cooke, health officer, is seeking other reported cases.

AT THE TENT — "STIPPLE" — "BABE" FLAHERTY

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

AT THE TENT — "IRISH" CHISHOLM — "LEAPY" McCLAY

MONTREAL AND NEW YORK STARS COMPETE AGAINST BOSTON

IN TRI-CITY AMATEUR BOXING TOURNEY

Amateur boxers of two metropolitan clubs and the Boston Boxing and Sparring Association will clash with Boston's best in the three-cornered tournament to be held in the Boston Arena on Friday night, February 13. The bouts will be in the form of dual contests between the three clubs, each club entering a team of eight boxers, one in each class. The Boston team will be composed of members of the Boston Boxing and Sparring Association, while the New York team will be made up of members of the Knights of Columbus and the Metropolitan A. A. of New York. The Montreal team will be composed of members of the Montreal Y. M. C. A. and the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association.

The bouts will be held in the following classes: 112, 118, 126 and 135 pounds.

The Montreal team is sponsored by Eugene Brossard, middleweight champion of the Dominion, who will defend the title he has mastered the best team that has represented Canada in years.

Five Boston boxers will be entered in the New York team, which expects to win.

Jack Keating

Tommy Duffy

BIG WRESTLING SHOW ON THE HOLIDAY

A big wrestling show will be staged by the Howard management.

Stanley Stasiak

MANY VETERANS IN BIG MAT TOURNEY

The New England wrestling championships tournament are expected to attract a large number of veterans. The best in a number of years will be present. The tournament has been [illegible] Manchester Y. M. C. A. but now at Cambridge; Max Rapport of the Boston Y. M. C. U. and Ernest Stappenbeck of the Attleboro Y. M. C. A.

In the 118 pound class Harry J. Brunner of the Boston Y. M. C. A. is the champion of the 135 pound class he will defend against Carleton Haas of the Providence Y. M. C. A. and Ernest Stappenbeck of the Attleboro Y. M. C. A.

In the 145 pound class Harry J. Brunner of the Boston Y. M. C. A. will defend his title against Carleton Haas of the Providence Y. M. C. A. and Ernest Stappenbeck of the Attleboro Y. M. C. A.

In the 158 pound class Harry J. Brunner of the Boston Y. M. C. A. will defend his title against Carleton Haas of the Providence Y. M. C. A. and Ernest Stappenbeck of the Attleboro Y. M. C. A.

In the 175 pound class Harry J. Brunner of the Boston Y. M. C. A. will defend his title against Carleton Haas of the Providence Y. M. C. A. and Ernest Stappenbeck of the Attleboro Y. M. C. A.

In the heavyweight class Harry J. Brunner of the Boston Y. M. C. A. will defend his title against Carleton Haas of the Providence Y. M. C. A. and Ernest Stappenbeck of the Attleboro Y. M. C. A.

Carleton Haas

TUFTS TO PLAY MAINE AND CLARK

Tufts basketball teams face a hard week-end contests scheduled for the University of Maine Clark College of Worcester and Phillips Exeter. The Maine game will be played tonight, and for that reason Clark College is favored to win over the Brown and Blue five.

In the first game Tufts never was in the running and went down to overwhelming defeat, 56 to 11.

Little is known concerning the Maine aggregation, but basketball in the Pine Tree State has reached a high standard and the Orono five will be relied upon to furnish first class opposition.

The Tufts outfit has been in fine fettle since returning from the annual mid-year trip of New York, Philadelphia and Washington, and many [illegible] are confidently expecting victory for the Brown and Blue five.

The Tufts team is composed mainly of veterans, with [illegible] forward wound [illegible] college team, which [illegible] are finally performers in the team as a whole [illegible] which coach necessary [illegible] defend against [illegible] passing, especially on a large floor.

The Tufts gym is unusually small and the caliber of the team adapted to a short floor finds itself at a set on a long court.

The freshmen five under Coach Charles Downs has experienced signal success this year and the presence of such stars as Captain Dawson, Woodrow, Schenfield and Folsom augurs well for the future varsity teams.

John W. Waters

OWENS AND NEE BOX IN TRIPLE A. FEATURE

Tomorrow night at the Grand Opera House, Little Paddy Owens of Cambridge will oppose Tommy Nee of South Boston for the [illegible] amateur [illegible] bout of [illegible] tion of the A. A. A.

These two [illegible] and each [illegible] shows a [illegible] youth from [illegible] Owens in the first [illegible] month [illegible] brought [illegible] the bouts [illegible] Emerson [illegible] bout [illegible] a real [illegible] Nee are reported in fine shape for the meeting.

They are good battlers and will give the fans plenty of action. This is the only professional boxing show slated for the Hub this week.

There are three eight-round contests. The semi-final will show "Dutty" O'Neil, of the Shoe City, and Jimmy Manning of the metropolis.

[illegible] Welsh of Lynn will battle Jimmy Welch of Somerville. The [illegible] of Warren and Young Miller of South Boston are matched.

OCEAN RACE OF HYDROPLANES ON MARCH 3

By THOMAS L. CUMMISKEY
Universal Service Sports Editor.

New York, Feb. 19.—Hydro- [illegible] race 241 miles from Miami, Fla., to Morro Castle in Havana Harbor, via the Gulf Stream on March 3, for $10,000 and three cups, it was announced yesterday by Commodore [illegible] of the Tourists of Havana and the Havana Yacht Club will hold the event, with the assistance of the Miami Beach Yacht Club. It will be the second annual race, but is the first for money, as last year's prize was a trophy.

The money will be divided as follows: Five thousand to the winner, [illegible] $2,500 [illegible] $2,000 [illegible] has been donated as follows: Winner, Andy Stone; Pedro Nunez; Morro Castle, [illegible] Havana Yacht Club, [illegible] Miami Beach Yacht Club, [illegible] Miami Biltmore Hotel.

[illegible] are entered by Charles G. Fiske [illegible] by Gar Wood [illegible] by A. C. Newby, [illegible] entered by Julius [illegible]

The race will be soon after day break and the 240 miles it is expected will be sped over in nine [illegible]

HAMBONE KELLY OUT FOR TITLE

Hambone Kelly, [illegible] Boston [illegible] his [illegible] against the [illegible] title [illegible] Hambone [illegible] punch [illegible] has [illegible] some [illegible] [illegible] signed to [illegible] the [illegible] when he [illegible] he can [illegible] Providence [illegible] ing to sign up K. O. Loughlin to [illegible] Hambone February 25.

Hambone Kelly

WATERTOWN TAKES SUBURBAN HONORS

[illegible] champion of the suburban interscholastic [illegible] Basketball League and has a [illegible] the Durrell five-year trophy. Winchester is second and Arlington and Lexington are tied for third [illegible]

Murphy to Meet Landon

New York, Feb. 19.—Manager [illegible] Nate Lowe and Dick [illegible] N. Y. A. C. will renew [illegible] they have been carrying on this indoor season in the high jump at the Knights of Columbus games on February 25.

Movie of a Fight Fan

By McGurk

BOUTS AT LYNN WILL PLEASE THE FANS

The Casino A. C. of Lynn has a show booked for tonight that should give the patrons plenty of action. Jimmy Cox, the fighting Irishman, who lost a very questionable decision to Al Sears at Lynn three weeks ago, will be seen in the main event with Frankie Quill of Brockton. Cox has been in this country only a short time, but proved a sensation wherever he appeared. He did most of his boxing in Lowell, where he defeated Johnny Basham, the English welter champion. He served in the Irish Free State army under Michael Collins, and always wears the colors of the Irish Free State whenever he boxes.

Quill is a former Colgate University athlete. He has defeated Billy Carney, Billy Duffy, Frankie Fleming, Wild Man Gould, Young Peeler, Shaver O'Brien, Johnny Mello, Al Wiltse, Young Marcel and Johnny Red Allen. He held Nate Siegel to a draw.

Buddy Clark of Salem will be seen in the semi-final with Eddie Flynn of New York. Clark is one of the best lightweights developed in New England in years and has a terrific punch in his right.

Tiny Loring of Charlestown and Tommy Rowe of Providence are listed in the opening bout of six rounds and James Mario of this city and Jack Usher of Woburn will [illegible]

Jimmy Cox

Tabloid Sketches of New Major Leaguers

FRED M. RUSSELL,
Pitcher, Cubs.

Born—Sheridan, Mo., October 7, 1887.

Weight—157 pounds. Height—Five feet ten inches.

Bats [illegible] threws — Left handed.

Club in 1913—Lincoln, Nebraska State League, finishing season with Cubs.

First professional engagement—Bridgeport, Neb., 1914. Pitched semi-pro ball there after until he joined Lincoln.

Best feat—No-hit-no-run game of ten innings at Julesburg, Colo., in which twenty-five of the thirty-one who batted against him fanned.

1913 record with Lincoln—Won only game he pitched, striking out twelve men [illegible] passing two.

Home address—Central Hotel, Lincoln, Neb.

MURPHY WON RING FAME OVER NIGHT

Billy Murphy of Lowell, who won the featherweight title from Al Shubert of New Bedford, is one of the few boys to come out of the obscurity who [illegible] become a champion. Murphy fought under the name of Patrick Lynch and until about a year ago, he never had one [illegible] He had fought [illegible] bouts to date and has won each of them by K. O.'s and got the decision in the other six. Murphy is fast on his feet, hits hard, and most good judges declare that he is the best looking prospect that New England has turned out in years.

Murphy is ready to defend his [illegible] against any [illegible] opponent and any time, as his manager, Conny Lynch is ready to talk business with anyone.

Billy Murphy

HOCKEY STANDING

	W.	L.	P.C.
H. A. A.	6	0	1.000
New Haven	5	3	.714
Boston H. C.	4	4	.500
St. Nicholas	3	4	.428
Victorias	2	5	.286
Canadian Club	1	6	.143

Hockey Games This Week

WEDNESDAY
Harvard vs. Dartmouth

THURSDAY AFTERNOON
Interscholastic League games

THURSDAY NIGHT
B. A. A. vs. Canadian Club.
Boston Hockey Club vs. St. Nicholas.

FRIDAY
English High vs. Boston Latin.
Victorias vs. Aura Lees.

SATURDAY
B. A. A. vs. Aura Lees.

PALUSO PROVES REAL CHAMPION

Lew Paluso, of Salt Lake City, Utah, who defeated Red Chapman at the Arena A. C. show recently, is ready to defend his title against any fighter in the world, first come, first served. He bars neither black nor white. Paluso is eighteen years of age and a graduate of high school last year at Salt Lake City. He has been boxing for the past sixteen months and has never lost a decision. He is now a student at Columbia University, studying law, and proposes to box and pay his tuition out of the money he receives from boxing.

Lew Paluso.

New York—The International Education Board, founded by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has granted $1,000,000 in ten instalments to the Teachers' College, Columbia University.

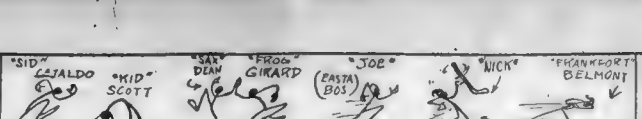
Where to Watch Pins Fall Tonight

[illegible]
AMATEUR [illegible] League
Boys' Interscholastic Boys' Basketball League Meeting is second [illegible] Wednesday). Reading will play [illegible]
[illegible] Basketball League [illegible]
[illegible] Boston Basketball League [illegible]
[illegible] Boston Basketball League [illegible]
[illegible] Boston

BOSTON AMERICAN

BOSTON'S LIVE WIRES

REVERE RUBBERS



WHAT'S YOUR LIST?

SPORTS

GOLD SKATES RACES FURNISHED THRILLING ICE CONTESTS

EIGHT DERBY RECORDS ARE ESTABLISHED

By CHARLES E. PARKER.

Sixteen Greater Boston boys and girls, or young men and young women, today are the possessors of the sixteen pairs of GOLD and SILVER SKATES offered by Boston sporting goods houses as prizes for those who finished first or second in the final events of Greater Boston's First Annual Ice Skating Derby—the GOLD SKATES RACES.

In the course of the week they will be fitted to skating boots, which will complete the prizes offered, and for the ensuing year they have sole claim to the titles of champions or near-champions of Greater Boston

The prizes and the honors came as the result of Saturday's thrilling races at the Boston Arena, which were pronounced by all who witnessed them as the greatest set of skating events ever staged in this vicinity.

As in the trial heats, the Dorchester section of the city captured the highest honors Janette Transman of No. 31 Browning street won the championship for girls under fourteen; Norman Sidney of No. 7 Nonquit street, was the winner in the race for boys fourteen to sixteen; Ralph Munros of No. 328 Harvard street, led the field in the race for boys sixteen to eighteen, and Eunice Buckley was crowned champion in the senior women's race.

The in-town section of Boston was next in producing athletes, for Harry Thorn, winner of the Greater Boston senior half-mile championship, lives at No. 28 Cumberland street; and Ida Kolodny, winner of the title for girls, fourteen to sixteen years of age, resides at No. 50 Forsyth street.

East Boston and Brookline furnished the remaining champions with Mary Nelson of No. 346 Bremen street, East Boston, capturing the victory in the race for girls sixteen to eighteen; and Richard Emerson of No. 60 Kilsyth street, Brookline, won the race for boys under fourteen.

Every One of the Winners Was in a Race.

But every one of the winners knew he or she was in a race before the titles were won. In most instances the winner's margin was very slight and in no case was victory certain until the skaters neared the finish line. In nearly all of events being won or lost in the last half lap of the course.

With one exception there was no hitch or complaint in the conduct of the meet. The exception in question arose in the final of the 880 yard championship for girls over eighteen. Early in that race Bertha Pinney, who had just set the record for the distance in her semi-final heat, was in the lead when pressed by Eunice Buckley and Anna Stamers.

Miss Pinney cut wide on the turn and Mrs. Buckley, observing the space between her and the pole cut in and captured the lead. Just as she was sweeping past Miss Pinney the latter cut back again and her arm came in contact with Mrs. Buckley, causing Miss Pinney to lose her balance and fall to the ice.

Officials Ruled No Foul Had Been Committed.

The officials ruled no foul had been committed and there was no immediate protest from Miss Pinney or anyone representing her. After the prizes had been awarded, however, a protest was made but in view of the ruling of the officials the protest was disallowed.

The victory of Harry Thorn in the senior half-mile championship was by far the most spectacular of the day. He was trailing for nearly prevented throughout the distance and barely managed to nose out Cecil Atkins for first prize.

The Boston American wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who aided in making the day such a huge success. The long list to which these thanks are due includes Mayor Curley, who sanctioned the affair, and the sporting editor, Messrs. Shea, Long, Walsh, Lane and other representatives of the Boston Park Department, and the following shoe or sporting goods establishments which furnished the prizes: Gregory & Read Shoe Company, Winchester-Read Store, A. G. Spaulding Brothers, James W. Hring Company, Horace Partridge Company and Wright & Ditson.

Thanks are extended to the nearly 1,000 skaters who entered the races and through their earnest and skillful efforts made them the greatest set of skating events ever conducted in this section.

The derby, by the way, is the first of an annual series of such events to be conducted by the Boston American, and those who failed to capture prizes this season will have opportunity to do so next year.

Results of All the Heats Are as Follows

220 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR GIRLS, UNDER 14)

First semi-final heat—Won by Florence Schenck, 50 Fairfield street, Boston; second, Richard Emerson, 60 Kilsyth street, Brookline. Time—38 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Ruth Peck, 66 Bernard street, Dorchester; second, Katherine Trueman, 31 Browning street, Dorchester. Time—31 2-5 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Janette Trueman, second, Ruth Peck; third, Dorothy Sheehan. Time—32 2-5 seconds.

220 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR BOYS, UNDER 14)

First semi-final heat—Won by Thomas Flynn, 89 Dana street, Somerville; second, Richard Emerson, 60 Kilsyth street, Brookline. Time—37 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Max Secord, 7 Nonquit street, Dorchester; second, Edward Cronin, 47 Bicknell street, Dorchester. Time—36 4-5 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Richard Emerson, second, Max Secord; third, Max Stone. Time—36 4-5 seconds.

220 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR GIRLS, 14 TO 16)

First semi-final heat—Won by Mary Shaker, 8 Gurney street, Roxbury; second, Frances Kinney, 81 Bella street, Roxbury. Time—34 1-5 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Ida Kolodny, 50 Forsyth street, Back Bay; second, Dorothy Long, 540 Saratoga street, Maiden. Time—33 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Ida Kolodny, second, Mary Shaker; third, Frances Kinney. Time—33 1-5 seconds.

440 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR BOYS, 14 TO 16)

First semi-final heat—Won by Thomas Mooney, 42 Forrester street, Back Bay; second, Louis Allen, 17 Woodrow avenue, Dorchester. Time—47 2-5 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Norman Sidney, 7 Nonquit street, Dorchester; second, Ralph Walsh, 466 Fulton street; third, Edward Henry, 127 Southern avenue, Dorchester. Time—51 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Thomas Mooney, second, Thomas Kenney; third, Louis Allen. Time—47 2-5 seconds.

440 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR GIRLS, 16 TO 18)

First semi-final heat—Won by Ethel Mary Lord, 20 Bernard street, Dorchester; second, Helen Maloney, 46 Yale street. Time—54 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Mary Nelson, 346 Bremen street, East Boston; second, Catherine Avers, 8 Donnybrook road, Allston. Time—54 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Mary Nelson; second, Ethel Lord; third, Ethel Maroland. Time—52 2-5 seconds.

880 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR BOYS, 14 TO 16)

First semi-final heat—Won by Andrew Moore, 42 East Dedham street, Roxbury; second, Hugo Broderig, 921 Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury. Time—1 minute 25 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Dwight Thorn, 28 Cumberland street, Dorchester; second, Thomas Kenney, 42 Forrester street, Dorchester. Time—1 minute 25 seconds.

Third semi-final heat—Won by Harry Thorn, 28 Cumberland street, Boston; second, Alfred Broadhurst, 81 Hanover street, Boston. Time—1 minute 29 2-5 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Harry Thorn; second, Dwight Thorn; third, Lester De Loss. Time—1 minute 30 4-5 seconds.

880 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP
(FOR GIRLS, OVER 16)

First semi-final heat—Won by Agnes Desmond, 10 Austin street, Somerville; second, Frances McDonough, 20 Harwood road, Dorchester. Time—1 minute 48 2-5 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Bertha Pinney, New England Hospital, Dumbarton avenue; second, Louise Barkley, 31 Bernard street, Dorchester. Time—1 minute 50 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Eunice Buckley, second, Agnes Desmond; third, Frances Mahoney. Time—1 minute 50 seconds.

GREATER BOSTON SENIOR
(880 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP)

First semi-final heat—Won by Harry Thorn, 28 Cumberland street, Boston; second, Alfred Broadhurst, 81 Hanover street, Boston. Time—1 minute 29 2-5 seconds.

Second semi-final heat—Won by Lester Bridges, 16A Forrest street, Roxbury; second, Cecil Atkins, 806 Washington street, Boston. Time—1 minute 29 seconds.

Third semi-final heat—Won by Israel Dubin, 18 Hazelton street, Mattapan; second, J. A. Corsetti, 81 Putnam avenue, Cambridge. Time—1 minute 30 1-5 seconds.

Final heat—Won by Harry Thorn; second, Lovell Atkins; third, C. A. Corsetti. Time—1 minute 32 1-5 seconds.

Record Makers at the Gold Skates Races

Those who set Greater Boston records in the eight events of the GOLD SKATES RACES program, several of whom, however, failed to win their final heats, follow:

220 Yards for Girls, under 14—Ruth Peck, 66 Bernard street, Dorchester. Time—31 2-5 seconds.

220 Yards for Boys, under 14—Richard Emerson, 60 Kilsyth street, Brookline. Time—25 4-5 seconds.

220 Yards for Girls, 14 to 16—Ida Kolodny, 50 Forsyth street, Back Bay. Time—29 1-5 seconds.

440 Yards for Boys, 14 to 16—Thomas Kenney, 42 Forrester street, Cambridge, and Norman Sidney, 7 Nonquit street, Dorchester. Time—47 2-5 seconds.

440 Yards for Girls, 16 to 18—Mary Nelson, 346 Bremen street, East Boston. Time—52 2-5 seconds.

880 Yards for Boys, 16 to 18—Ralph Munroe, 328 Harvard street, Dorchester. Time—1 minute 39 4-5 seconds.

880 Yards for Girls, over 18—Eunice Buckley, New England Hospital, Dimock street, Boston. Time—1 minute 44 seconds.

880 Yards Senior Championship—Harry Thorn, 28 Cumberland street, Boston. Time—1 minute 32 1-5 seconds.

JANETTE TRANSMAN. RALPH MUNRO.

MRS. EUNICE F. BUCKLEY.
Above—RICHARD EMERSON (left), HARRY THORNE (right), IDA KOLODNY.

MARY NELSON, NORMAN SIDNEY.

THEY MADE GOLD SKATES RECORDS

TUFTS CATCHER LOOKS TO BE FIRST CLASS

Frank Roach, who will catch for Tufts, has all the earmarks of a first-class backstop, but he must see an artist to earn the plaudits of the fans at the Oval.

Jumbo rooters have been accustomed to high standard of play behind the plate for so long that only a star of the first water can stir them.

In 1914, the first year of the Jack Slattery regime, Red Carroll started in to show Medford fans what a big league catcher was. Three years later Keefe took the position left vacant by Carroll's graduation, and the Watertown boy showed himself a star marksman, even as a freshman. With an ideal catcher's build, Keefe also possessed a rifle-throwing arm, and under the tutelage of Slattery became one of the smartest handlers of pitchers on colleges diamonds.

When the World War touched American college men, Keefe entered the naval forces and for two years was lost to baseball.

In 1919 Ed Callahan reported to the Tufts squad and before the season was over had proved himself on par with his predecessors of the mask.

Callahan was easily the foremost batsman of this trio of star receivers and for three years led the Tufts team in hitting.

Keefe returned to college in 1919 and alternated with Callahan and sometimes went into the box when the Brown and Blue pitching staff had been overworked.

A year ago Keefe was picked by some as the best college pitcher in the East. Callahan upon his graduation entered professional baseball and became the regular marksman on the Albany team.

Roach in his few trials last season demonstrated that he is a worthy successor to the Carroll-Keefe-Callahan trio. A heavy hitter, a natural receiver, gifted with an arm that is as good as the mighty whip of Keefe, Roach is looking in experience only.

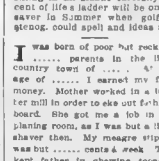
"Try To Hit It" The BULLSEYE By NICK FRATLEY

THE HANDY BIOGRAPHY

UNIVERSAL formula for benefit of successful business men in writing life stories for newspaper syndicates and such. By filling in all blanks carefully none of the essential steps in the ascent of life's ladder will be omitted. This will prove a wonderful time saver in Summer when golf calls. Also contains words that no stenog. could spell and ideas that might elude plutocratic author.

I was born of poor but reckless ..... parents in the little country town of ..... At the age of ..... I earned my first money. Mother worked in a lumber mill in order to eke out father's board. She got me a job in the planing room, as I was but a little shaver then. My meagre stipend was but ..... cents a week. This kept father in chewing tobacco, and I shall ever regret that biting a nail to a nickel plug made him so mad that he jumped from his seat by the stove, and chased out. Had he been able to afford cigars he might have pulled through.

Mother was so shocked the time Frank washing fluid and the set our humble home on fire. This gave me a start, and I decided to put out for myself. In my year at the mill, for it had been a year, I had saved ..... dollars by hard scraping and planing. I invested this in ..... and got a job on the railroad. As they put me on limited trains, it was no long before I was on my uppers again. Even then I was a keen student of human nature and had observed that talking trips from New York to Frisco made people cross.



At the age of ..... I had saved ..... dollars. On being arrested of short changing a drummer's ten dollar bill, I decided to strip out for myself, which I did, just in time. I wanted to go back to the old homestead in the worst way, so I made the trip by day coach.

* * *

I slipped the brakeman..... cents, which I though was fare enough. After ..... years on the railroad it was hard breaking the old ties, but even then the strength of will which is said to be my outstanding characteristic was noticeable.

THERE was no opportunity for poor boys in those days in the little town of ..... so I determined to go to the big city. After adventures, which loomed big then, but have since dwindled in what I might call a busy and useful lifetime, I arrived at ..... It did not take me long to discover that the reason people were poor and suffering was because they didn't make enough money. So I decided to make it for them. In ..... I learned that a poor imitation means nothing but trials. I promised to reform, if given time, which I was. After ..... years, I had but one conviction. When you do a thing, do it right. My imitations since have been said to be better than the originals. By keeping myself and my system secret, I have now reached a state of independence.

MY slogan for success is simple "Save your pennies, and other peoples' dollars. Just find out how to get the dollars. Then try to get 'em. I am ..... years of age.

* * *

I have a home in ..... and a splendid little Summer place in..... My..... sons have taken over my business and it is a source of great satisfaction to me that they never had to go to work at the tender age of ..... years, as their father did when a poor and honest little shaver in the humble town of .....

ADAMS COMES OUT OF THE WEST

Out of the West comes a dashing fine pugilistic aspirant in young Steve Adams, featherweight battler.

Adams has arrived in the Hub and is under the wing of Ike Woods. The visiting boxer hopes to clean up among the local talent as he has done in the Middle West and only wishes he will have time to take a swat at all in his class.

The visiting Steve Adams, ring star is a protege of Denny O'Keefe, the western welterweight, and in the West is handled by O'Keefe's brother Jack. Any matchmaker who desires to book this little fellow communicates with Ike Woods.

Legion Post Team Plays

The basketball five of the Stanley Hill Post, No. 38, American Legion of Lexington, will play the St. Joseph's Athletic Association team of Quincy, in the Lexington Town Hall, tomorrow.

IOWA RING STAR BACK AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

By TOM THORP.

Floyd Johnson is considerably improved in health. The sensational Iowa scrapper was taken with what promised to be a serious illness immediately after signing articles to meet Jess Willard, former title holder in the ring for the benefit of the Milk Fund at the Yankee Stadium on May 12. For a time it was feared that Johnson would be so weakened by his sudden attack of sickness that his chances of winning over Willard would be greatly impaired.

After a thorough examination yesterday the physicians decided that a few days of complete rest would be sufficient to put Johnson back on his feet ready to start training. No complications are expected from the seizure and the Iowa man has been laid up with.

The delay in starting his training is not going to hurt Johnson's chances in the slightest. The Iowa star is not the sort of fighter that must have a long siege of training to condition himself for a ring battle. Johnson is a young fighter trying to work his way to the top of the heavyweight heap. For that reason he is in fairly good physical condition.

If it were not for the fact that he was taken down with a severe cold a few days ago we would be willing to say that he is every bit as fit as any fighter in the heavyweight class. After he gets on his feet again and makes a trip to Hot Springs to recuperate, Johnson should be fit to take on any opponent in the pugilistic world.

GOING TO HOT SPRINGS.

Manager Cook has wired ahead to Hot Springs for reservations. It is likely that as soon as Johnson can get about he will be placed on a train and taken to the Arkansas health resort.

A couple of weeks at the baths and on the roads of this resort should send Johnson back in Gotham to start his hard work in preparation for his fight with Jess Willard. Johnson will do most of his training close to the scene of battle.

Jess Willard began his second week of intense training today. The big Kansan was scheduled to take a trip out on the road this morning. Manager Jack Reefer has mapped out a long route for the former titleholder to take each morning.

It is estimated that if Jess covers the full route he will have done sufficient work for him to rest until the afternoon.

The situation that confronts the former champion is far different from that of his rival. Willard must take off considerable weight, while Johnson must add to his build. In other words, Jess must break down fatty tissue while Johnson must build up the tissue in his endeavor to bring his weight up to as close to that of his rivals as is possible. For that reason, the fighters must train in an entirely different manner.

What is good for Willard would be disastrous to Johnson. Because of this the fans will not be able to draw any line of the condition of the two through the amount of work that each does. Willard must do a lot of work to get rid of the extra amount of work than his lighter rival.

JESS' WORK FRUITFUL.

Realizing that he must take off many pounds before he will be in fit enough condition to do any real amount of boxing, Jess has mapped out a course of training for himself that has accomplished wonders for the short time he has been at it. Willard is easily ten pounds under he weight he was upon his arrival in Gotham a few weeks ago.

In his work to date Willard has surprised the fans with his speed and stamina. Many thought Big Jess was pounds over the limit that would be possible to start training. When they once see him in action they soon change their minds. More than one who had been opposed to having Willard sign to fight another battle have been won over to his cause by witnessing him in one of his workouts.

The big fellow is going after a match with Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight title. The latter is out at Salt Lake City. Word from him states that he will not be East for some time to come. His father has not improved since his arrival.

In the meantime Jack Kearns has wired the Toole County American Legion Boxing Association of Shelby, Mont., that if they can offer $100,000 as Dempsey's share that he will sign for the champion to meet Tom Gibbons at Selby on Independence Day. No reply is expected from the Montana officials for at least a few days.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GOLF CHAMPION IS DEAD

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 19.—Clifford W. Bass, who won the State golf championship four times, is dead here after a lingering illness. He was prominent in the business life of this city.

Extra Pants Free

Someone bought the Eggs
Someone bought Milk
Someone bought Butter

I bought the Woolens from the farmers of New Hampshire, Virgin Wool collected by an aggregation of New Hampshire farmers and made up into cloth in the State of New Hampshire.

In order to keep a large force of help busy during the dull season, to each customer ordering a Suit of New Hampshire woolens during the next ten days I offer an Extra Pair of Pants Free with

SUIT TO ORDER $19.75

GENUINE ENGLISH BlueSerge

14 oz. in weight, during this Sale I will make

SUIT TO ORDER $15.75

NO FREE TROUSERS WITH BLUE SERGE

MITCHELL THE TAILOR

279 Washington St.

OPEN EVENINGS—Opp. Water St.

BOSTON AMERICAN'S TWO PAGES OF LAUGHTER

Have a Smile With Us

By Dave Sentner

A SMILE is a sun without any pep.

A city man's knowledge of trees is limited to the bottom line.

Oysters in season. A harp player eating an ice cream cone.

There are a lot of rainy days that could be postponed.

Origin of the name Antony was the last thing we heard.

Your pocketbook is an hair tonic, says a woman specialist. For the benefit of the scalp.

Recession professors give lists of ten books a day to read, but it is a safe bet none has included a cook book.

Mrs. Porta remarks that Mr. Porta, a civil war veteran, planted his foot a few miles west of a patch of poison ivy. Mrs. Porta, we understand, is the little woman.

Johnny Judge says there are only two kinds of women he likes—blondes and brunettes.

Maybe it was mouthwash. When the U. S. S. runs it's brand new.

A weak knee conveyor never wears his heart on his sleeve.

At a church bazaar a pocket book is more useful than a prayer book.

After a man gets married he gets over hard, instead of his wife's hands.

Native talks. You can't pick galoshes off a rubber plant.

If you smoke enough Egyptian cigarettes you'll be able to have a mummy of your own.

Governor Smith of New York points for home rule for cities. How about home rule for blue laws?

Eddy Kerr says that you should never wear suspenders when doing evil. It keeps you from reaching.

The Winning Nifties

Today's winners

What is best to buy an umbrella on a pleasant day?

It is a fine umbrella to go up when it rains. JOHN T. DIANA

94 West Sixth street, Lowell

What kind of meat is never eaten?

Venison. It's always deer.

JAMES NOLAN SHAFFY

220 Broadway, Revere

How can you hand a waif with handkerchiefs?

If they be ragabrie. (became ragged.) MICHAEL and A. "Dorchester road, Arlington Mass.

We pay a dollar for each Nifty printed. Send one to the Nifty Editor Boston American.

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart sayings," Boston American.

A visitor was to meet my little [illegible] first time. She was very fond to see him as [illegible] and enough of him. [illegible] was only five years old [illegible] was afraid to wash [illegible] to meet him.

Lady: "How are you dear?"

Child: "I'm pretty well, thank you. Have you any notion of getting married?"

MISS ROBERT T. WALSH

No. 62 Thurston street, Somerville (46).

THEN AND NOW

EGYPTIAN [illegible] Egyptian [illegible] for [illegible] years.

[illegible] commenced in Africa about [illegible] lost to Europe from [illegible] on.

[illegible] papyrus was used in Greece, [illegible] read by many can [illegible] 1000.

[illegible] offered 450 B. C. [illegible] in Rome [illegible] Greek [illegible] 105 B. C. [illegible] Rome [illegible] 16 A. D. [illegible] manufactured [illegible] 1800 [illegible] from rags [illegible] 1827 [illegible] 1850 [illegible] 1860 [illegible] 1870 [illegible] 1880 [illegible] 1890 [illegible] 1900 [illegible] 1910 [illegible] 1920 [illegible] 1923.

POLLY AND HER PALS

That's the Way Pa Dopes It Out

By Cliff Sterrett

ABIE THE AGENT

Getting the Order Is the Thing

By Hershfield

US BOYS

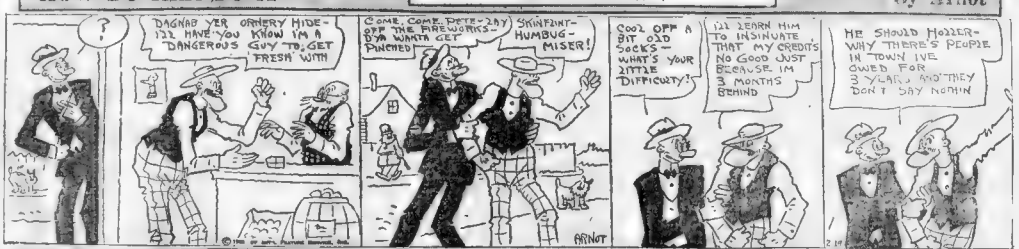
The System Is Working

By McNamara

HOW DO THEY DO IT

Just Rank Injustice

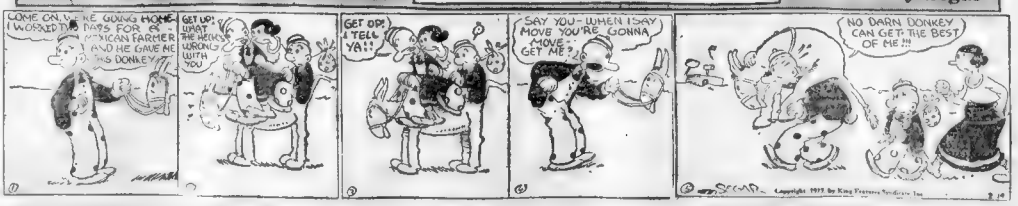
By Arnot



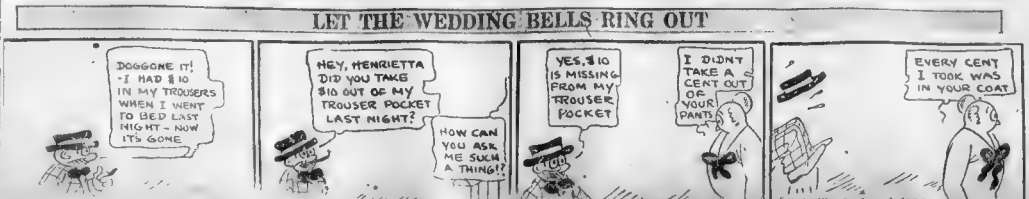
THE THIMBLE THEATRE

The Donkey and the Mule

By Segar



LET THE WEDDING BELLS RING OUT



Bobbie and His Pa

By W. F. Kirk

PA, I sed to Pa last nite, is it the true truth that we mortil hewman beeings can be anything we want to be by trying hard enuff, I sed to Pa

Ware did you git that Hine sed Ma

Our teecher was telling us, I sed

Yure teecher must be a hophed, sed Pa

What langwidge, sed Ma, hophed How can you use such terms in speaking to youre littel son? sed Ma

Well, sed Pa, it strikes me that there is a lot of junk beeing handed to the pew pils now-days, sed Pa. The idee of a teecher telling a lot of pew-pils that they can be anything they want to be. A littel gurl with a pig nouse & a hair lip cant be a Mary Pickford, sed Pa, & a yung peeper with a solid bone hed can never grow to be a Tom Edison or a John McGraw, sed Pa. It cant be dunne, sed Pa.

I think the teecher's idee was to make the chilleren aim high, sed Ma

That is the cheef trubbel with the nashun today sed Pa. A lot of fokes arent satisfied to be good mecanniks or good loomsters or good cooks sed Pa. The gurls all want to be movie queens & the boys all want to meen like the New York Giants sed Pa. If everybody wants to be the President of the United States, sed Pa, who will we find to go to Congress? sed Pa

Nobody, sed Ma

Exactly, sed Pa

Ant nobody in Congress now? sed you to Pa

Well, Bobbie sed Pa I wudnt say that nobody is in Congress sed Pa but I mite say that its unlikely, I dare Pa said.

Of course not sed Ma I no are not there Pa, natcherally sed Ma

They re, do no more than have me there sed Pa

Is that so? sed Ma

Certainly that is so sed Pa. Haven't I always told you how this nashun shud be runned? sed Pa

Yes, sed Ma, you always have told me & I have always yawned, sed Ma

Sum day you will yawn one too often sed Pa, & I will walk out of your life, sed Pa

Ha Ha sed Ma. No danger, sed Ma

THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston American will pay $1 for every letter published on "Best Joke" Address "Jokes," Boston American.

A man was showing a friend his new henhouse. He said to the friend, "I and my brother, Jake, built this henhouse out of our own and we got some wood left."

HAROLD A. HOURIE

No. 408 Chantry street, New Bedford, Mass.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Boston American will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment in My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Boston American.

I was sitting in the parlor with a girl I was visiting with a few days ago. She was telling me the [illegible] I might was wonderful [illegible] to me my feelings, when she could no longer in to [illegible] I [illegible] I [illegible] was [illegible] fellow that works with me and [illegible] I [illegible] I [illegible] I

BY HIGHEST SALARIED COMIC ARTISTS IN WORLD

BRINGING UP FATHER

Jiggs Will Take the Blame

By George McManus

HOW DARE YOU SMOKE THAT FILTHY PIPE IN THE DRAWING ROOM-
YOU'VE STOPPED ME IN ALL THE OTHER ROOMS-
THE COUNT DE CLINE IS CALLING TODAY AND I WOULDN'T WANT HIM TO SEE YOU SMOKING A HORRID PIPE
DON'T THROW IT AWAY-IT BELONGS TO PATTY O'DOWD!
THE COUNT DE CLINE SIR!
?
THIS IS AN OUTRAGE-SIR!
I CAN'T HELP IT-I WOULDN'T WANT MY WIFE TO SEE YOU SMOKIN' A PIPE IN THE DRAWIN' ROOM-
© 1923 BY "INT'L FEATURE SERVICE, INC."
GEO MCMANUS

Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaelis

I HAVE led what folks call an adventurous life. I've killed tigers in jungle land wild. I have carved vicious elephants up with my knife and I've made the rhinoceros mild. I have traveled this earth from equator to pole; I've seen buildings 600 feet high. I've viewed trees twelve feet through the hole and mountains that reached to the sky. I have heard the queer lingo the Japanese speak and the chat of the heathen Chinese; I have listened to lectures in Choctaw and Greek and read volumes in old Singalese. But I'll have to admit that in all of my stunts in my rovings from Nome to Brazil I've found no such excitment in travel or hunts as when coasting down Dingledine's Hill! I have gone up the Alps with a covey of guides and I'd say when they'd warn of a spill, or would get apprehensive of passing snow slides, "Boys, you ought to see Dingledine's Hill!" I was just six years old in those jolly old days, and I broke the world's records, I knew, when I coasted along its precipitous ways and landed in deep-drifted snow. You may talk of the speed that the airplane has made when it's doing a cross-country trip, but I claim that my sled threw such feats in the shade as it went down that hillside, zip-zip! Of life's seamiest side I have seen quite a lot, as I've journeyed about here and there; I have bobnobbed at times with the fierce Hottentot and I've bearded the grizzly in his lair. But, whatever I've known both of pleasure or dread, it is certain I've felt no such thrill as in times when I sat on my little red sled and went coasting down Dingledine's Hill!

SMILE AT THESE

Famous Bells

Dumb bell; patrol wagon; alarm clock bells of the ball, ante bellum wedding bells; door bell (furniture collector); belladonna; wild bells (ring out w bs., and telephone bell (operator's mistake).

Our Proscription List

An awful bore
Is Moe McGreek;
He thinks he is
A movie Sheik.

The Alimony Blues

Divorce cases oft remind us
As their pages o'er are turned,
That men and women leave behind them
Letters which they should have burned

All Bald Up

Barber—Well, what's on your mind?

Customer—Nothing; that's the trouble. I want a bottle of hair tonic.

BITS OF WISDOM

When a woman loses her head she often finds it on somebody's shoulder

• • •

Don't look for trouble unless you know what to do with it when you find it.

• • •

Some girls don't care if they are not taken seriously, so long as they're taken.

• • •

Money will buy everything except love and an appetite.

• • •

A man's age commends veneration; a woman's calls for tact.

• • •

An evil lesson is soon learned.

• • •

Reckless youth makes rueful age.

• • •

What you are worth is what you are.

• • •

See to it that the best company of all is your own.

• • •

Shallow men believe in luck, strong men in cause and effect

• • •

When men cease to improve themselves and their conditions, society is in danger.

• • •

No man has a thorough taste of prosperity to whom adversity never happened.

SO THIS IS MARRIED LIFE

Hold on! Whose Party Is This?

By Zere

TEN YEARS MARRIED NEXT SATURDAY! LET JOY BE UNCONFINED!! HOW SHALL WE CELEBRATE? MAKE IT A TWOSOME, OR SHALL WE LET A FEW FRIENDS IN ON THE FIREWORKS?
WE'LL GIVE A PARTY!! YOU MAY SELECT THE PEOPLE WHOM WE SHALL INVITE!!
WELL, WE'LL START OFF WITH JIM HOKUS, HE WAS THE LIFE OF THE LAST PARTY WITH HIS WISE CRACKING—
NO, NOT JIM HOKUS HE'LL BRING ALONG A PAIR OF DICE AND SPOIL EVERYTHING! MR AND MRS. NOBART. THE SMYTHES—OTTO EGG—MR. AND MRS. GLUTEN—CHARLIE YATES AND HIS SISTER EUNICE—
I'D LIKE TO INCLUDE JENNIE SPEE DO SHE CAN JAZZ UP THE OLD PIANO—
NOT JENNIE—SHE'S TOO LOUD!! WE'LL INVITE THE MINOR TWINS, THEY SING—THE FITZ-MUTTONS—MR AND MRS HADDOCK—THAT'S ENOUGH! JUST A NICE CROWD!!
FINE LOT OF DEADHEADS!! I'D TAKE A COUE TO INJECT ANY PEP IN THAT BUNCH!! THE LIVLIEST ONE ON THE LIST IS CHARLIE YATES AND HE SUFFERS FROM ACUTE MELANCHOLIA! I'LL HANG A CREPE ON THE DOOR THAT NIGHT, IT'LL BE IN KEEPING WITH THE COMPANY!!

STUMBLE INN

From Bad to Worse

By Herriman

OH, MISSUS STUMBLE, DEYS A REPPASENTATIVE FROM MR RICHITTS OR DE MANSION HOUSE IN MR. STUMBLES OFFICE TO C DECIDE WEDDA, OR NOT HUH, AH MR. RICHITTS IS TO BE FRIENDS OR ENEMIES—
OH, I DO HOPE THEY DECIDE TO BE FRIENDS
AND NOW TO SEAL THE BOND OF FRIENDSHIP- LETS SHAKE HANDS
OFFICE
GOLLY, I THOUGHT DEY WAS GONNA BE A FIGHT-
THANK GOODNESS - NOW ALL WILL BE PEACE AND HARMONY - I'M SO DELIGHTED GIVE MR. RICHITTS MY LOVE
URIAH !!!
OFFICE
RAP
OH DANG

JERRY ON THE JOB

Leniency Tempered With Mercy

By Hoban

MIGOSH = I GUESS I MUSTA TIPPED IT OVER OR SOMETHING
BAM
YOU GO RIGHT OVER TO THE CASHIER AND TELL HIM TO TAKE TWO BUCKS OFF YOUR WAGES!
I DIDN'T DO IT WITH MALICE AFOREthOUGHT
IF THAT'S JUSTICE I'M A GIANT
BACK SO SOON??? DID YOU TELL THE CASHIER WHAT I TOLD YOU TO TELL HIM??
WUH'S UH-NOSIZ..
I THOUGHT I'D GIVE MYSELF ANOTHER CHANCE.

KRAZY KAT

A Bouquet of Bricks for Krazy

By Herriman

LADIES AND GENTLEMANS, I WILL NOW RESIDE - THE "CURSE OR REGULAR"
CALM AND UNMOVED -
LIKE THE MARBLE WALL WOR WAS AROUND HE - STOOD REGULAR" THE ROMAN -
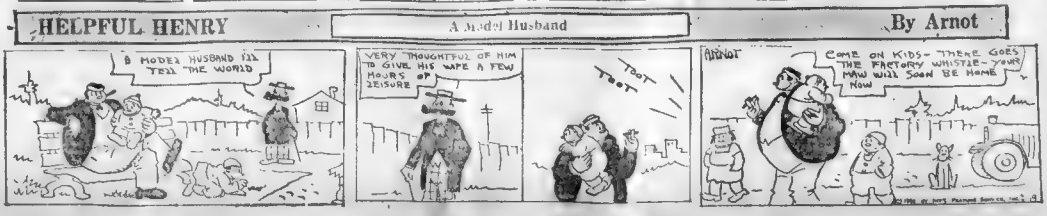
HERE'S PART OF A BRICK WALL THAT WILL MOVE YOU -
AH- MOVED BUT CALM -
ZIP

HELPFUL HENRY

A Model Husband

By Arnot



A MODEL HUSBAND AS TELL THE WORLD
VERY THOUGHTFUL OF HIM TO GIVE HIS WIFE A FEW HOURS OF LEISURE TOOT TOOT
ARNOT
COME ON KIDS- THERE GOES THE FACTORY WHISTLE- YOUR MAW WILL SOON BE HOME NOW

Medbury Says—

By John P. Medbury

A WELL known New York theatre has opened a library back-stage for the use of the chorus girls. This is a wonderful idea, but a lot of the dames do their reading off of restaurant ——— after the show

AND they study their arithmetic, too, from the meters on the different taxicabs

THEY couldn't tell you how far it is from New York to San Francisco, but they can tell you how much it costs to go from 42d street to Columbus Circle

HOWEVER, this doesn't include the trip to the taxicab driver.

THIS library is a novel idea. Some girls like to read about Dickens because they raise so much of it

THE reading room also has books on foreign exchange, as the average girl doesn't care about Parisian francs, what she's interested in is the John's in the ladies

SHE doesn't bother about German money either, what she's looking for is easy marks on this side of the ocean.

SHE makes a thorough study of automobiles out of the latest catalogues. She might not know the John who's waiting at the stage door for her but she wants to be able to recognize his car

IF she can't remember his name she can ask him for the license number of his machine

WHAT the girls would like the fellows to do would be to take the license off and tack their bank books on the front of the automobile

Then she could walk up and down the rows of machines and decide to go out with the one who had the largest balance in the bank

OF course she'd have to take a chance that his account wasn't overdrawn

The guy she goes out with may be a well known man with his name in the blue book, but the only volume she ever looks him up in is Bradstreet's, or Dun's.

This back-stage library doesn't have any geographical books. A girl can learn her geography by telegraphing her sweethearts in the different parts of the country

You can tell the distance by what it costs to send the message, but very few chorus girls could find this out because most of them send the telegrams collect

The guy who has to pay for the message is the one who learns all about geography and arithmetic.

If some friend asks his what the distance is between Los Angeles and New York he takes the telegram out of his pocket and says "A dollar twenty, with ten cents war tax"

This library back-stage is good for thought so it should be a success as our chorus girls are always hungry

Copyright, 1923, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

ONCE OVER

(Copyright, 1923, by International Feature Service, Inc.)

ENCOURAGE ENTHUSIASTIC CHILDREN.

(Copyright, 1923, by International Feature Service, Inc.)

Parents, do not try to kill the enthusiasm of your children.

Encourage enthusiasm in everything they undertake or contemplate.

Success never comes without enthusiasm. Your most important job is directing the enthusiasm into the right channels of endeavor.

When your children come home with a big idea overflowing, don't put a damper on their spirits by saying that they ought to be thinking of something which really amounts to more.

To a child the thing it is enthusiastic about is important.

Sympathetic children wish to tell a sympathetic somebody all about what they have on their minds and then are going to do it.

If the parent is unsympathetic, then an outsider is going to hear it.

Better make your children feel that they can come to you with their plans, their aspirations, their desires, rather than make them think that someone outside the family is a really better friend because that outsider seems sympathetic—all without reproof.

A Courageous Man

Here lies the body of Umpire Muggs
Here lies the body of Umpire Muggs
Let all his praises shout,
A home team player stole third base
And Muggsy called him out!

Largest Evening Circulation in New England

Magazine Page

This Day in History, February 19, 1923

THIS is the anniversary of the famous battle of Ciudad Rodrigo, in 1812, when Wellington won his title of Duke by retaking the city after it had been captured by Marshal Ney, in 1810

The Utmost Splendor of the Sky

ABOUT 8 p. m., in the southern quarter of the sky, Orion, king of the constellations, is on the meridian, with his three-starred belt resting on the celestial equator. South of him is Sirius, east Procyon, northeast, the Twins (Gemini).

WHEN A MAN PROPOSES

The Story of a Girl in an Office, of a Sincere Offer of Marriage, Another Trial and a Final Acceptance

By Ella Randall Pearce

IT was a familiar sound the buzzer calling the head stenographer, one of the Alling firm to duty, but this was a new call for her. Several times Linda Lewis had summoned Mary Rowe promptly and with eagerness and pencil in hand went into the executive private office.

Lewis Alling was seated at his desk with a contented expression on his face as she entered. Him he scarcely noticed, but looked up when Linda entered his self-wheeled his chair toward her.

"I want you to," Not the slightest hesitation offered. Around Linda's heart.

Seated beside the desk Linda leaned forward as certain personal words were spoken in a slightly different manner.

It was going to start for the second time in the mind to Miss Burr in the mail went on hand. Then he stopped. Will we can't go on with this," he said. "We can't. I'm not going to keep talking," he said. "We cannot Linda. I thought—of course—well Mr. Alling?

SENT FOR YOU, NOT THE LETTERS. ARE YOU READY TO LISTEN?

Folded Hands

She folded her hands and looked at him inquiringly. Her cheeks were quite pink and her eyes held the expression of a surprised little girl. It was all quite out of the ordinary.

"Why, I'm talking because I couldn't get my mind on work till this matter is disposed of," Lewis Alling began, for a man frowningly as though blaming her for the mental disturbance. "There he was, sitting at her desk, looked at her. "To come directly to the point—I want to know if you will marry me, Miss Burr."

Linda flushed, wished to read and pencil a long from her face. "Mr. Alling, you—oh! Yet there are women have inspired and no must have known that I was— well, interested in you. A growing interest couldn't you see?" Lewis Alling fixed her with his keen dark eyes. "Speak frankly, Miss Burr."

Linda had rallied her forces and was well poised once more. Never ever was she more sure of being indignation.

"I'm sorry I can't obey Mr. Alling. This is neither the time nor place for me to speak frankly as you say. But I will say that my surprise is genuine. I never expected to have a personal fling at me in this way, by you or any other man."

She was on her feet, her head proudly erect, her eyes sparkling. "I suppose your thinking you have conferred a great honor upon me, Mr. Alling. Pressing the buzzer and calling me here to toss off a proposition of marriage as you would an order for merchandise. Something you must get off your mind before you can return to work."

She stepped to the door and turned with her hand on the knob. "Frankly, Mr. Alling, I've never been so insulted in all my life."

Spirited Exit

Then she made a spirited exit, and Mr. Lewis Alling was left alone to think things over.

Linda's first thought was to leave the place at once; to go home and never come back. Then she decided against it, as that would only cause office gossip and place her in a more humiliating position than ever.

Besides, as her indignation subsided, she became aware of a change in her feelings toward her employer. Strange as his actions seemed, at least he had been sincere, and he had asked her to marry him.

She could recall now many a friendly look and word that might mean a great deal from a busy reticent man like Alling. But what a way to propose to a woman!

Linda went on with her office duties, although nothing had happened. But she was not called on to meet Lewis Alling the next day for she learned that he had gone away on a hunting trip.

As she passed, the memory of that strange offer of marriage softened, and Linda found herself wondering if she had offended Alling even more deeply than he had offended her. A sense of panic was aroused by the thought she would not want to hurt or offend him.

Of course, if we cannot be friends it will be impossible for me to keep here," decided Linda and she dreaded the day of her employer's return.

That evening Linda was so nervous she scarcely knew what to do. The front door bell ringing gave her a shock, and when Mr. Alling was announced she went to meet him as calmly as she had gone to her first business call.

But Lewis Alling was not the self-assured man she had known. He was dressed in evening clothes and was very debonair. He smiled pleasantly, made an immense bow and offered her a huge box of sweets with a gallant how.

How well you are looking this evening, Miss Burr," he said with a smile. He fairly beamed on her. "Never have I seen you so charming as now. Will you go to the theater with me? Mark makes you look like a rose."

Backed Away

Linda's face was as he went on. A cold mass. It took of the top of her head, and a dizzy sensation of faintness came over her. She backed away from him.

"Did you know me Mich, Mr. Alling? Why, I—I—I don't understand. I—I—I—

Largest Evening Circulation in New England

Magazine Page

The New Japan

THE age-old custom of the Japanese of sitting down on their folded legs on a cushion or mattress is going out of fashion. All the schools are using chairs and benches of Western style. Public gathering places use benches.

Growth of the Peerage

A CENTURY ago the total number of British peers was 400. Now there are 741 names. Since the advent of the present King, twelve years ago, 118 new peers have been created, an average of ten a year.

THE ENEMIES OF WOMEN By BLASCO IBANEZ

Start Here Today This Engrossing Story of Life and Love from the Master Pen of One of the World's Greatest Novelists

THE STORY TO DATE

Prince Michael Fedor, a Russian of fabulous wealth, is at Monte Carlo while the great war is on. With him is his friend, Emile Castro, and other acquaintances. The prince, on returning to Villa Sirena, finds everything changed owing to the war. He announces, to the amusement of his hearers, that he is ruined. Castro smilingly remarks that he would be content with one-tenth of the remains. The Prince proposes that Castro and a few of their friends live together with the proviso that no women shall enter their lives. They will be known as "The Enemies of Women." Castro tells the Prince he has seen the Duchess de Delille. The Prince says he will not receive her. The story reverts to the marriage of the Prince's father and mother and the son's early training. His father dies and his mother marries again. He hears his income will be cut off on account of the war, so he sells his yacht and retires to his villa at Monte Carlo.

By Vicente Blasco Ibanez, Author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" and Other Novels of World Renown

AN old cab driver, whom I sometimes engaged," continued the Colonel, "was bold enough to talk quite freely with me owing to the fact that he was slightly intoxicated. His wife had been for some twenty years now working in the Casino, his daughters work as cleaners, his sons are employed in the theatre. They all bring in money. Moreover, the old men retire on pay, the sick are not forgotten, and the widows and orphans of every employe that dies during service are paid pensions.

"'It's a great country, sir,' the driver said to me, 'the best in the world. Everyone can make a living, as long as he's wise enough to keep his mouth shut, and not make trouble.' And you can depend upon it, they are all discreet. Moreover, they watch one another, and are afraid of being denounced by their best friend, if they talk about the latest scandal, or a gambler's suicide. Among strangers not one of them lets on that he knows anything."

Paternal Despotism

"And supposing one of them were to talk?" asked Novos. "Or if one of them were to make trouble?"

"They would banish him. It is a paternal despotism, and does not dare inflict harsher punishments. The police of the Prince make him go with them across the street and put him on the French sidewalk. . . Don't laugh; it is a cruel penalty. Other exiles finally grow accustomed to their misfortune since they live at a great distance, and only see their native land in their mind's eye. But a man who is exiled here can almost reach out and touch his country with his hand; he has only to cross the width of the street.

"As the land slopes downward, he can see his house a few roofs beyond. He sees the smoke from breakfast coming out of the chimney, and he cannot sit down to his own table; the family is at the windows, and he has to talk to them by signs.

"Moreover, and worst of all, he sees that the rest who were prudent, go on leading their pleasant lives in the shadow of the Casino, while he has to seek a new profession, harder work. His retirement becomes unbearable, and he finally flees to some distant city to let a few years go by, so he may be pardoned.

"It seems impossible that roulette should have performed so many miracles. And there must be others besides those which lie before our eyes. Gambling has paid the cost of this delightful harbor of La Condamine; a harbor of yachts, with its elegant docks that are really promenades. It must have had a hand also in the restoration of the castle of the Prince. It even helps to develop the spiritual life of the place, and increase the prestige of religion. Before roulette came none of the clergy were of higher rank than priest. Since the triumph of the Casino there has been a bishop and canons; and a beautiful Byzantine cathedral has been erected, which, according to Castro, only needs to have Father Time darken it a bit.

"The Sunday masses are one of the chief attractions of the Principality. The Nice papers print the program of the music that will be sung by the choir, alongside the program of the concert at the Casino; canto piano of the most celebrated masters, the Italian Palestrina, or the Spaniard Victoria."

The Duchess de Delille asks Prince Michael to wipe out her debt to his estate.

"There is the Museum of Oceanography, too. That alone is enough to justify and remove the taint from the money which has come from the Casino."

Work for a King

Novos thus interrupted the Colonel with the pleasing voice and somewhat distracted expression which were natural to him. But in his words there was the mystic ardor of the firm believer.

The Museum which roused the Professor's enthusiasm was the work of the Prince of Monaco, who had once been an officer in the Spanish Navy.

"Three-fourths of the earth were covered with water," Novos went on, "yet for centuries and centuries science, which has to its credit so many discoveries, halted in dismay at the edge of the sea. The scientists in the laboratories only need material for their work, and that is easily obtained; but to study the sea, and live on them for years is another matter.

"For that it was necessary to have ships and men at one's disposal to construct new and costly apparatus, to spend millions, to cruise patiently and leisurely here and there over the ocean wastes, with no fixed goal, waiting for the great blue depths casually to reveal their secrets; to make a great outlay, with slight returns.

A Late Riser

"Only a sovereign, a king could do this; and the former officer in the Spanish navy, on becoming a prince, had done it.

"Thanks to the Prince of Monaco" Novos proceeded, "oceanography, which scarcely amounted to anything, has become today an important study. His yachts have been floating laboratories, cruisers of science, which have gradually made the first conquests of the deep.

"With his drifting buoys he has been able to prove in a conclusive manner the circular drift of the Atlantic currents; with his careful soundings he has brought to light the mysteries of deep-sea life at various levels of the great body of water. Scientists have been enabled to sail the sea and study, with no material restrictions, thanks to him.

"Through his generosity hand-some books have been published, museums have been opened, excavations have been made in the earth, which throw enlightenment on the origin of man."

"And all this," the colonel interrupted, persisting in the admiration already expressed, "with the money from the Casino. And you have to figure that all this is merely a tip left by the stockholders of the gambling corporation. Just imagine what the Casino produces! And lots of people consider it terrible!"

"It doesn't make any difference where wealth comes from as long as it is put to useful purposes," said the professor, with a note of hardness in his voice.

At that moment the metallic booming of a gong drifted through the trees from Villa-Sirena, calling the guests, who were scattered through the park or had not yet appeared from their rooms, to luncheon.

The little group which Castro had labeled "The Enemies of Women" had now been in existence two weeks, with no disharmony or obstacles to the happiness of the members. Complete freedom was theirs! Villa-Sirena belonged to them all, and the real owner seemed merely like an additional guest.

Arising late in the morning, Castro saw the Prince in a corner of the garden with his shirt open at the neck and his arms bare, wielding a spade. The thing that made the new life complete for him was the cultivating of a little garden, in the expectation of eating vegetables and smelling flowers that were the product of his own toil.

This man who had always been surrounded by a corps of servants to attend to all his wants was anxious now to be self-dependent, and feel the proud satisfaction of one who relies entirely on his own hands. Vainly he invited Castro to join him in this healthy, profitable exercise, which was at the same time a return to primitive simplicity.

A Real Revelation

"Thanks; I don't care for Tolstoi. As far as the simple life goes this is all I want." And he stretched out on the moss, under a tree, while the Prince went on digging his garden. They talked for a while of their companions. Novos was in the library, or wandering about the park. Some mornings he would take the early morning tram from Monaco to continue his studies at the museum. As for Spadoni, he never arose before noon, and often the Colonel would pound on his door so that he would not be late for lunch.

Copyright, 1918, by S. P. Dutton & Co. All Rights Reserved.

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

Advertisement

BEAUTIFUL HAIR IN A MOMENT

Try This! Hair Appears Soft, Colorful and Abundant —A Gleamy Mass

35 Cent Bottle of "Danderine" Also Ends Dandruff; Falling Hair!

Immediately!—your hair becomes beautiful. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and really appear twice as thick and abundant—a mass of luxuriant, glinty, colorful hair.

Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine eradicates dandruff, invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is the best, cheapest and most delightful hair corrective and tonic. It is to the hair what fresh showers of rain are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, vitalizes and strengthens them. Its stimulating properties help the hair to grow long, heavy, strong.

You can surely have beautiful hair, and lots of it, if you will spend 35 cents for a bottle of Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter. It is not greasy, oily or sticky.

ETIQUETTE POINTERS

—By Ann Adams—

DEAR MISS ADAMS:

Have just become engaged and am at a loss to know the proper way to announce it. My parents will announce it in the paper. But since we have many relatives living at a distance would it be proper to send them small engraved cards?

I. T.

A LUNCHEON or tea to which you invite friends and relatives of both families is the customary way of formally announcing an engagement. The parents, of course, are informed before this. Write each of your distant relatives a note telling them of your engagement.

Copyright, 1923, Premier Syndicate, Inc.

Before and After

Hale—There goes the man who married his stenographer. They say that she bosses him around something terrible.

Hardy—Well, it's his own fault. He knew that she couldn't take dictation before he married her.

The Stay-Home-Again Blues

Binks—Well, I see that your old friend, Smith, has been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Jinx—What did he do—murder somebody?

Binks—No; he got married.

THREE-MINUTE TRIPS

WHERE TATTOOING MAKES MEN

ON the island of Tutuila, one of the Samoan group in the South Pacific, waves the "Star-Spangled Banner." Pango Pango, the harbor of this beautiful island, has been a coaling station for American battleships since 1872, but the island itself has been the property of the United States only since 1900.

Although the Navy Department of the United States has done much to modernize Tutuila, many old and picturesque customs still remain.

Among the interesting customs is that observed at the birth of a child.

This is an occasion for rejoicing. A fete is held. The father invites all of his friends. The mother invites hers. Then there is a regular exchange of presents. The men present gifts to the women. This is followed by feasting and joyous dancing.

The little boys in Samoa are brought up by their fathers. The mothers are kept busy with the daughters.

All of the young people in Samoa are anxious to grow up. To be a man or to be a woman soon is the aim of all the children.

A girl is considered a woman the day she marries, which is at a very early age. But a boy has to go through more of a process than that of simply marrying before he is proclaimed a man.

And the process is so painful that he does not attempt it alone. He gathers around him his young friends of the same age. They set out together.

Where do they go? To the tattooer!

This distinguished gentleman takes his needle, which is made of a human bone, dips it in the ink-like mixture and begins his operation.

A Group of Natives of Tutuila.

He places the needle on the boy's skin and then proceeds to insert the needle by banging on the dull end of the needle vigorously with a wooden mallet.

The boy stands the pain as long as he can. Then another steps up bravely and takes his place.

To complete the job of tattooing a boy from the waist to the knee —which is the correct thing in Tutuila—two months are required.

But this is worth while to the Samoan boy, because when his body is beautifully decorated with interesting designs he is a man.

(Copyright, 1923, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.)

DAILY HOROSCOPE

Mary Blake Says:

Today Lucky If You Are CAUTIOUS

AQUARIANS should on this day exercise great precaution in matters relating either to business or finance. While it is a day somewhat better than others in this sign, it has not yet cleared entirely and does not work to advantage in matters of importance.

Today at 3 p. m. the sun enters Pisces, which accounts for the continued unsettled astrological conditions.

Anyarius brings out a type of person renowned for loyalty and true friendship. If you are one of these people you can contribute to the world something that is without price.

People born under this sign are ordinarily difficult to understand, but not excessively critical of those they love, and while they seem so at times, they are but solicitous of the welfare of their dear ones.

They are more or less obstinate, without intending to be, and will at times incur the displeasure, through this, of their friends. But this is shortlived, for their kindliness is compelling of their goodness.

Their disadvantages do not arise from their dispositions, but more often from lack of pressure to force others to do their bidding.

(Copyright, 1923, by Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WHO SAID IT AND WHERE

They smell of the lamp"

Was the envious remark of the orator Pytheas in an attempt to disparage the orations of Demosthenes (383-322 B. C.).

"A fool and his money are soon parted"

Is an old Dutch saying that has become part of our every-day speech.

"I am on the side of the angels."

In these words Disraeli declared against Darwinism at a meeting of the Oxford Diocesan Society in 1864.

Copyright, 1923, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

BEST RECIPES

New England housewives are requested to send in recipes for appetizing dishes. One dollar will be sent each winner printed here. Address Recipe Editor, Boston American 8, Boston, Mass.

Corn Omelet

One pint of cold boiled corn, 4 eggs, ½ cup milk, 1½ teaspoons of salt, a little pepper, and 2 tablespoons butter. Beat the eggs, and add the salt, pepper, milk, corn and melted butter. Fry this as you would a plain omelet.

JENNIE V. FLYNN,
No. 505 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

Castle Pudding

Take 2 eggs in shell and the weight of them in sugar, flour and butter. Beat butter and sugar to a cream, then add eggs and flour. Bake ½ hour and serve with a sweet sauce.

MRS. BASIL BRAND,
No. 3 Beach street, Pawincket, Edgewood Station, R. I.

GOOD NIGHT STORIES

Be Sure to Read Them to Your Children

By Blanche Silver

TILLY TURTLE LEARNS TO COUNT HER BLESSINGS.

TILLY TURTLE was a small little turtle-lady. She lived in the woods all by herself. She never went out and joined the hoptoads in their frolics, nor played with the grasshopper boys like the other wood turtles. She would wander off alone down to the edge of the mill-pond and fuss and complain to the fishes.

"Well, it is too bad," agreed Mrs. Croaker Frog, one evening, after listening to her tale of woe.

Tilly and Mrs. Croaker

"I often say to Croaker Frog: 'We're not good-looking, but we certainly can sing. That helps us a good deal.'"

She handed a piece of waterlily leaf to her guest. "Chew it—it's good for one's teeth," she said. "Croaker Frog and I both use lily leaves to—What! You can't chew? Why, the very idea! Have you lost your teeth? My goodness! No wonder you're so unhappy. I think I should die if I should lose my teeth. There, there—don't cry." For the tears had started from Tilly Turtle's eyes and were running down her cheeks. "Where did you lose them? Maybe we can help you find them."

"That's just it," sobbed Tilly Turtle. "I never had any teeth to lose."

"What! No teeth!" screamed Mrs. Croaker Frog. "Never had any teeth in all your life? No wonder you are disgusted with the way things are run. My, how terrible! I should be discouraged myself. Dear, dear, dear, I'm glad I'm a frog instead of a turtle. Think of it, no teeth! You poor thing! You have my sympathy. I don't blame you for wanting to crawl away out of sight. I would myself. I wouldn't be a turtle if I could. My, how much better to be a frog! We have everything one could desire and much to be grateful for, I'll tell you."

Before Tilly Turtle could give the warning, down shot a hawk. Like a flash of lightning she drew in her head, legs and tail, and snapped her little shell-house against the intruder.

Not so with Mrs. Croaker Frog she had been so busy counting up her good points that she failed to see the black shadow.

When Tilly Turtle once more crawled out of her shell she saw Mrs. Snail looking at her from the other end of the log on which she sat.

"Oh, you needn't look for Mrs. Croaker Frog," she laughed. "Her teeth of which she boasted couldn't help her out that time. Old Hawk swallowed her without even so much as asking whether she had teeth or not."

"But, my goodness!" cried Tilly Turtle. "Why didn't she draw her feet and head under her shell? I did, and he never bothered me at all."

"Of course not," said Mrs. Snail. "Nor did he bother me. Yet I sat right here on this log all the time. He couldn't get either you or me because he doesn't like to eat shell. Mrs. Croaker Frog may have teeth, but the very thing she needed to help her the most that time she lacked—a shell house.

"I'll have to admit the shell-house helped just now," laughed Tilly Turtle. "I guess it was a blessing that time. Mrs. Snail's right. I'll take my shell-house instead of teeth any day. Poor Mrs. Croaker Frog!"

Without another word Tilly Turtle hurried back to the meadows to tell her friends about her narrow escape.

Another Fascinating Story Tomorrow.

Copyright, 1923 by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?

1—When was the automatic car coupler invented?

2—When were block signals for railways invented?

3—When was John Tyler President of the United States?

4—When was the sewing machine adopted by shoe manufacturers?

5—When did Walt Whitman, the American poet, die?

ANSWERS

To Saturday's Questions

1—The burning of Rome occurred 64 A. D.

2—Sir Thomas More wrote "Utopia." In 1516.

3—Franklin Pierce was President of the United States from 1853 to 1857.

4—The meeting of Henry VIII. of England, and Francis I., of France, on the "Field of the Cloth of Gold," took place in 1520.

5—The Battle of Bull Run was fought July 21, 1861.

Copyright, 1923, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Allowances

Blinks—Yes, of course, I know your son is very extravagant. But you will have to make allowances. He's just like all young folks.

Spinks—I understand that; but the more allowances I make the faster he spends 'em.

LET CHILD HELP

—By Loretto C. Lynch—

An Acknowledged Expert in All Matters Appertaining to Household Management.

In the children's section of the public library the other day I came upon a delightful story called "When Mother Lets Us." It wasn't a piece of literature, just a book with illustrations of a dear little girl doing all kinds of household tasks. Yet, I wondered, how many mothers, in the immediate neighborhood, for instance let their little daughters get the joy all really truly little girls get out of playing house.

Are you, Mrs. Serious Housewife, one of those mothers who say, "Run out of the house and play—I can do the thing quicker and better myself"? Or do you say, "Don't start housekeeping yet, my dear child, you'll get all of it you want and then some when you grow up"?

I called at the home of a woman the other day, where three servants are employed. There are three little girls and one baby boy in this family. All the grown-ups, including the servants, had eaten something which caused food poisoning and all were confined to bed. But, the girl of eight, pending the arrival of aid, had "carried on" the home, so to speak. It was she who said to the doctor, "I shall have lots of hot water boiled in just a moment, doctor. I'll bring you the salt and mustard you want in just a moment."

If you were suddenly stricken, COULD YOUR CHILD CARRY ON THE HOME at least for a while?

Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN

SAY "BAYER" when you buy. Insist!

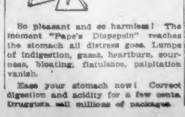
Unless you see the "Bayer Cross" on tablets, you are not getting the genuine Bayer product prescribed by physicians over 23 years and proved safe by millions for

Colds	Headache
Toothache	Rheumatism
Neuritis	Lumbago
Neuralgia	Pain, Pain

Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proper directions. Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets—Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

CHEW A FEW !!! END INDIGESTION, EASE STOMACH

Ate Too Much! Stomach Upset! Here's Instant Relief



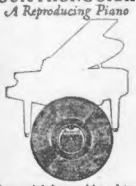
So pleasant and so harmless! The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all distress goes. Lumps of indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, bloating, flatulence, palpitation vanish.

Ease your stomach now! Correct digestion and acidity for a few cents. Druggists sell millions of packages.

MOVE TO PUT CANADA IN PAN-AMERICAN

Toronto, Feb. 19.—A definite and powerful unofficial movement has been started through the Americas for the incorporation of Canada in the Pan-American Union of American nations, said John Barrett, former United States Ambassador to Argentina, in an address today before the Canadian Club. He said the project may be considered at the Pan American Conference to be held at Santiago, Chile, next month. The one big question raised has been that of Canada's relationship to the British Empire, Mr. Barrett said. This, however, would work itself out.

YOUR PHONOGRAPH
A Reproducing Piano



Brunswick has achieved true piano tones in phonographic reproduction. Notes so clear, so unmistakable that you believe a piano is in the room. Go today to any Brunswick dealer and ask to hear a record by Leopold Godowsky or Elly Ney, great pianists of the New Hall of Fame. They will prove a revelation. Brunswick records play on all phonographs. They are the world's truest reproductions.

Brunswick
PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

Advertisement

RED PEPPER HEAT ENDS RHEUMATISM

Quickest Relief Known is Rowles Red Pepper Rub

Red Pepper Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine with the name Rowles on each package.

For Colds or Influenza and as a Preventive

Take Laxative
BROMO QUININE
Tablets
E. W. Grove
30c.

NEVER USE A FINE COMB KIL-VE IS A PREVENTIVE

If kills all ver- min and the eggs or nits that cling to the hair. Its consistent use will keep your children safe from contracting vermin from other children. It is absolutely harmless, soothing, not sticky and doesn't interfere with growth or color of hair. Don't be ashamed to ask for it, at all drug stores—35c, 65c and $1.25.

SCHWARZ'S
KIL-VE
DESTROYS VERMIN ON CHILDREN'S HEADS

COUGH
Prescription
Try PISO'S
Astonishingly quick relief. Stops tickling throat—allays irritation—no opiates. 25c and 60c everywhere.

Cuticura Soap
—The Healthy—
Shaving Soap
Cuticura Soap also ideal for shampooing. Everywhere 25c.

Prescription A-2851
is a reliable remedy for GOUT and RHEUMATISM. It quickly relieves these painful ailments. Sold by druggists in liquid or pill form for $1.00. Made by Ritter & Amend, Third Avenue, 181th to 182th Street, New York.

FRENCH TROOPS TO ADVANCE 15 MILES

Berlin, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service)—Five regiments of French infantry today left Bochum for Dortmund. It is believed the French intend to extend their occupation to Hamm, fifteen miles east of Dortmund.

Director Fleithmann of the German nickel works was reported to have died from injuries received near Dortmund when he was ejected from his automobile by French troops, who seized the motor car. Herr Fleithmann was on his way to Dortmund on business.

Paris, Feb. 19.—(By International News Service)—The British Army of Occupation in the Rhine is evacuating the strip of territory bordered by the towns of Neuss, Grevenbruck, Duren, Murken and Elsdorf to permit the use of the Duesseldorf-Bonn Railway by the French for the movement of coal, troops and military supplies. French troops are taking over the positions. The territory in question lies along the western side of the British zone of occupation. Its occupation by the French almost surrounds the British zone.

French Seize Funds of Pedestrians, Says Berlin

Berlin, Feb. 19.—According to the Morgen Post, the French seized 20,000,000 marks at Gelsenkirchen, after the municipal aldermen had formally refused to pay the 100,000,000 marks fine imposed upon the town.

A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger said money was seized from pedestrians in the streets to make up the fine and that no receipts were given them.

Ruhr Costs France 110,000,000 Francs

Paris, Feb. 19.—An appropriation of 110,000,000 francs for Ruhr operations in January and February has been prepared by Finance Minister De Lasteyrie for approval by the Cabinet Council tomorrow, after which it will be submitted to parliament. The sum of 50,000,000 francs is intended to cover the expenses of the army, which would have cost 15,000,000 francs at home, while the remaining 60,000,000 francs is for the cost of the attempted operation of the railroads, on which the Germans are striking.

Germans Must Work for French or Lose Jobs

Duesseldorf, Feb. 19.—(By the Associated Press) A new order issued by the Inter-Allied High Commission in the Rhineland gives German customs officials in that territory until tomorrow to decide whether they will accept an offer of re-engagement by the French or be dismissed.

POSTMAN'S CALL SAVES CHILDREN

Springfield, Feb. 19.—"Bobby," two years old, and Eileen, fourteen years old, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doolittle of No. 79 Buckingham street, left the living room today to meet the postman.

Two minutes later the gas log exploded, wrecking the room, and hurling heavy bits of iron grating inches deep in the wall.

The rocking horse on which Bobby had been playing was shattered to pieces. All the furniture in the room was blown to bits.

If the postman had been two minutes later, both children would probably have been killed.

MASSON, AUTHORITY ON NAPOLEON, DEAD

Paris, Feb. 19.—Frederic Masson, perpetual secretary of the French Academy and authority on Napoleonic history, is dead. He was born in Paris in 1847 and was elected to the secretaryship of the academy in 1919. For several years he was librarian at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and Prince Napoleon, to whom he was secretary, made available to him the Napoleonic documents at the chateau at Prangins. The series of works on the life of Napoleon he published were marred by their abundance of intimate and authentic details concerning the career of the great Frenchman.

AND NOW THE GIRLS WEAR MONOCLES

Paris, Feb. 19.—Parisiennes are fast adopting the monocle which up to a very recent date has been the fad with only "continentalised" American and English women.

A charming mademoiselle started the fashion by wearing one before the clergyman who was about to marry her. The women were delighted by her action and soon followed in her footsteps.

Naturally the feminine article is most fantastic, attached by a ribbon of great width in order to set off her good complexion. The monocle is made to order in most cases for it must be of perfect measure.

HANDY BAGS PLEASE WOMEN SHOPPERS

SMILES FOLLOW POSSESSION OF HANDY BAG

You'll get your bag.

The American wishes to reassure the hundreds who have sent in mail orders for the dandy, Handy Bags.

Human beings are taking care of these orders. Human beings have their limitations.

We beg you to be patient. As fast as possible all orders will be filled.

The S. R. O. sign went up today in the Handy Bag Department of the Boston American.

We didn't know there were that many people in Boston. It was the biggest crowd ever seen.

But everybody who came with the coupons and thirty-three cents walked off with a Handy Bag and a smile. The smile comes with the bag, without extra cost.

The bag is 1/6 per cent. efficient. Ask the man who owns one. Have you a little Handy Bag in your home? Eventually, why not now? It's the bag with the smile that wins. Let the Handy Bag do your shopping.

They're worth walking a mile for.

Look for the Handy Bag coupon. The Constitution of the United States guarantees everybody the right to life, liberty and the Handy Bag. Get your's today.

TINY ARMSTRONG

New York girl one of hundreds who have taken advantage of Boston American's offer.

PROBE JURORS IN KLAN MURDER CASE

Shreveport, La., Feb. 18.—State Attorney-General A. V. Coco, and Howard B. Warren, an assistant, left today for Bastrop to investigate the personnel of the panel from which the Grand Jury will be selected to hear the evidence concerning hooded mob activities in Morehouse Parish.

The Attorney-General said he had been told five of the panel were known Klansmen, five of them known anti-Klansmen and the other ten suspected of being Klansmen, but this information was unofficial.

INSIST! TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE!

Demand "Phillips", the original, genuine Milk of Magnesia, prescribed by physicians since 1873.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

25 and 50 cent bottles contain directions

WINTER COUGHS

During the changing, trying days of Winter, with the frequent exposures, is the time when throats become irritated, the body weakened, chests tender, and troublesome coughs develop. The safe way is to nourish your body with rich, strength-building

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It is the food and medicine that thousands take every day to build up the body. Do not wait until your body is debilitated and rundown in vitality.

Buy a bottle of Scott's Emulsion today and fortify the system against weakness.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 12-24

HEADACHE

Do you have a dull headache in the morning or does it come after meals or do you get headaches from standing or sitting in a position too long while working? For quick and safe results get Pepsinic Seltzer — the Seltzer that won't affect the heart. Try it—It Brings Results.

PEPSINIC SELTZER

Relieves HEADACHE, HEARTBURN of the worst type. GASTRITIS and DYSPEPSIA (hyper-acid type). On sale at drug stores and fountains.

PEPSINIC SELTZER CO.
98 Front St. Worcester, Mass.

The Seltzer That Won't Affect the Heart
Endorsed by L. B. Allyn, MacClure Laboratories, Westfield, Mass.
Send 3c in Stamps for Free Sample.

FREE STATERS PLAN TO SEIZE DE VALERA

London, Feb. 19 (By the Associated Press).—A dispatch to the Evening News from Belfast today says the freedom Eamon De Valera has enjoyed so far has given a great impetus to the Republican movement, the liveliest getting the impression that the Free State authorities are afraid to arrest him, as De Valera is living in and about Dublin and may be interviewed daily without difficulty.

"Such a paradoxical state of affairs will soon be ended," says the correspondent, "for the Free State leaders have determined to give him the same sauce as the dupes he directs."

The correspondent adds that there is little doubt that the revolt would collapse if the chiefs were in custody.

Amnesty Period in Erin Is Extended

Dublin, Feb. 19.—There was a brief extension today of the period of amnesty granted by the Free State government to the Republican irregulars who surrender their arms.

The original date for expiration of amnesty was Sunday.

It is expected the expiration of amnesty will be followed by the most vicorous military campaign the Free Staters have yet launched. It is probable also that executions will be resumed.

During a fight between Free Staters and Republicans at Glan Aderlow, in County Tipperary, Commandant Denis Lacey, one of the most prominent leaders of the Republican irregulars in that section, was killed.

Irregular Captain McDonagh, in command at another farm house fort, was seriously injured when the place was captured.

William McGrath, a volunteer with the Free State forces, and a boy spectator, were also killed. Three Free Staters and five irregulars were wounded. Twelve irregulars surrendered to the national troops after a four hours' fight.

Several irregulars were killed, including a commandant, in not fighting at Tobercurry.

The irregulars under General Boffin, under attack in the Arklan hills for a week are in digfat. Boffin recently passed through the Free State lines in disguise, married his sweetheart and returned to his headquarters in a hillside cave.

Bishop of Killala Demands Violence Cease in Erin

By the Associated Press.

Dublin, Feb. 19.—The bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Killala deplores in his Lenten pastoral the strife in Ireland and says that no end, however noble, could justify murder, robbery and wanton destruction of life and property.

"All, therefore, persisting in this criminal course of life, as well as those in any way co-operating with them by material assistance, counsel, encouragement or approval," the letter continues, "are unworthy of the sacraments and must be denied absolution while they remain unrepentant in those sinful dispositions."

Syracuse—One man was killed, another critically injured and six others narrowly escaped death when a D. L. & W. snowplow crashed into a light motor truck near here.

BUSINESS NOTICE

Coughs Bronchitis Asthma
MINARD'S FOR PAIN LINIMENT

2 DEAD, 6 ARE DYING; VICTIMS OF ALCOHOL

Alcohol poisoning in this city killed one man and caused the removal to the City Hospital of nine others, six of whom are reported dying. One man died in Lawrence from moonshine.

14 Deaths from moonshine in 4th State floor January 1.

John Scully, fifty years old, of No. 1051 Washington street, was found dead in his room by the police today. The latter said the discovery of the body followed liquor drinking in Scully's room the night before.

Those who are on the danger list at the hospital are:

Mark L. Geary, twenty-nine years old, address unknown; Thomas Gibbett, address unknown; Joseph Shea, address and age unknown; Fred Murphy, twenty-six years old of Rockingham street; William McHugh, twenty-three years old, of Shawmut avenue.

Those seriously ill at the hospital are:

Advertisement

LET POSLAM DRIVE ITCHING ECZEMA AWAY

Poslam is CONCENTRATED relief for skin-troubles! Itching, smarting, burning simply can't resist it. Spread a little on the irritated parts and you no longer have to scratch and dig—your sick skin gets a CHANCE to heal.

And with Poslam on the job, this healing is rapid, steady, easy. The redness goes, crusts and scales disappear and the skin is clear again almost before you know it. Isn't THAT the kind of skin-treatment you are longing for?

With the skin once well, use Poslam Soap to prevent a return of the old trouble. Poslam brings skin-health to thousands every day. Sold everywhere. For trial sample, send 10c to POSLAM, 243 W. 47th St., New York.

Mrs. Katherine Meeghan, fifty years old of Parnell street, Roxbury; Thomas Dailey, thirty-nine years old of West Brookline street, South End, picked up at Guild road and Shawmut avenue, Roxbury, and an unidentified white man, picked up on Tremont street, Roxbury.

16 DEAD, 35 HURT IN FRENCH R. R. CRASH

Paris, Feb. 19 (By International News Service).—Sixteen persons were reported killed and thirty-five injured when the Strasbourg express was wrecked near Dormans-Marne early today.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready - made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made syrup.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PINEX for Coughs

No Cost
The 10-Day Test is Free
See Coupon

Avoid Harmful Grit

Pepsodent curdles the film and removes it without harmful scouring. Its polishing agent is far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatant which contains harsh grit.

What a Pity

To leave film on teeth when whiter teeth mean so much

When you know what millions know you will use a new method of teeth cleaning. You will combat the film—that dingy coat — and let your teeth show luster.

You will gain new charm, new beauty, a sense of cleanliness, an increased feeling of safety. You will wish you had known it years before.

Be you man or woman, let this test show you a way to nicer teeth.

Film is a blemish

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it now. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

Your tooth brush leaves much of that film. The ordinary tooth paste does not effectively combat it. So the film absorbs stains, then forms dingy coats. Tartar is based on film.

That's why beautiful teeth were seen less often than now.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film, and very few escaped them.

Now a better way

Dental science has long been studying film. A few years ago it found two ways to effectively combat it. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it daily, and without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods right. Then a new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research. These two great film combatants were embodied in it.

That tooth paste is called Pepsodent.

Dentists everywhere advise it. And to careful people of some 50 nations it is bringing a new dental era.

Desired effects

Pepsodent does more than fight film. It brings results which modern research proves to be essential, and which no old method brings.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Thus every use gives manifold power to these great tooth-protecting agents in the mouth.

How to know

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

The results will amaze and delight you.

Pepsodent
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific tooth paste based on modern research, free from harmful grit. Now advised by leading dentists the world over.

New beauty in a week

Pepsodent acts quickly. One week's use will prove a revelation.

There comes a new feeling of cleanliness, an increased sense of safety. There comes new beauty as the cloudy film-coats go.

You will wonder why anyone omits it when you see the change.

Whiter teeth everywhere

Note how many glistening teeth you see everywhere today. And note how people smile in ways to show them.

You will realize if you look about that millions have found a better way of teeth cleaning. And those prettier teeth mean lifelong benefits which none can afford to miss.

10-Day Tube Free

THE PEPSODENT COMPANY,
Dept. A, 1104 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.
Mail 10-day tube of Pepsodent to

Only one tube to a family.

MAIL, 'PHONE OR BRING YOUR WANT ADS. TO THE AMERICAN. TELEPHONE MAIN 5180.

American Lost and Found Ads. Prove Unusually Effective. Your Chances of Recovering Lost Articles Are Small Unless You Advertise—Here

MAIL, 'PHONE OR BRING YOUR CLASSIFIED ADS. TO THE AMERICAN. TELEPHONE MAIN 5180.

TRAVEL BRIEFS
NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL

Through the courtesy of Charles M. Shaftoe, New England passenger agent of the Fall River Line, a number of passenger traffic men journeyed to New York via the Fall River Line to attend the annual banquet of the New York Passenger Agents' Association at Hotel Astor Saturday night.

Included in the party were: John H. Kenney, traveling passenger agent, Great Northern; John H. Schults, general agent, Chicago & Northwestern; R. S. St. John, district passenger representative, At chison, Topeka & Santa Fe; Fra Palmer, traveling passenger agent, Boston & Albany; Elmer Jones, general agent, Erie Railroad; Stewart Colpitts, Colpitts Tourist Co.; W. U. Bixby, ticket agent, South Station, and C. M. Shaftoe of Fall River Line.

ARRIVES AT CONSTANTINOPLE.

The local office of Thomas Cook & Son have received cable advices that the Homeric, with 500 passengers on board for a cruise around the Mediterranean, has arrived at Constantinople on schedule time. Nearly 100 of the passengers are from Boston and neighboring cities.

Owing to the unsettled conditions at present in the Near East, these had been some doubt as to whether the vessel would be allowed to go to Constantinople. The fact that she has been able to carry out her itinerary as arranged should be of interest to the many friends of the local residents on board.

COOK GOES TO HAMLET.

Fred J. Cook, New England freight agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, has left for Hamlet, N. C., to attend a general meeting of the Seaboard's freight representatives.

PORTLAND AGENTS TO DINE.

Announcement has been received that the Portland Railway & Steamship Traffic Association will hold its annual banquet on Monday, March 12, at the Falmouth Hotel at Portland, Me. Between fifty and seventy-five local representatives of the off-line railroad offices in Boston city are planning to attend this dinner.

ON UNITED FRUIT CRUISE

The increasing popularity of the United Fruit line cruises to Cuba, Jamaica, Panama and Costa Rica is evidenced by the growing number of persons in all parts of the United States and Europe who are being booked for these twenty-three-day trips to the Caribbean Sea. The steamer Tolca of the United Fruit line which left New York Saturday was a full complement of passengers among whom were the following from Boston: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Frank St. Pratt, Mrs. Madeleine F. Smith, Miss Doris Fellows, Mrs. W. H. Seavey, Miss Eleanor S. Seavey, Mrs. and Miss William L. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs William M. Miley, W. H. Wight and Fred R. Gushee.

LEHIGH OFFICIALS HERE

W. L. Donaldson, general freight traffic agent, and N. W. Pringle, general passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, with headquarters at New York, were visitors at the local office of the Lehigh Valley, in the Old South Building, during the past week.

WINTER SPORTS BULLETIN

A telegram from M. L. Harris, general passenger agent of the Maine Central Railroad at Portland, Me., gives the following information of interest to followers of Winter sports:

At Augusta, Me., Glen and Jackson, N. H., North Conway, N. H., Poland Springs, Me., Waterville, Me., and Whitefield, N. H., conditions are reported good for all Winter sports.

At Auburn, Lewiston and Rockland, Me., conditions are good for all Winter sports except skating.

At Bartlett, N. H., and Bath, Brownfield and Portland, Me., there is good skiing, snowshoeing and sleighing.

MAUGER A VISITOR

George L. Mauger, traveling representative of the Yellowstone Park Camps Company of Livingston, Mon., was a caller at local railroad and tour company offices during the week.

TEACHERS MAY TOUR

C. B. L. Kelley of the Commercial High School, Brooklyn, during the week visited the office of Superintendent of Schools J. E. Burke and local railroad offices, in the interests of a tour to the Pacific Coast by local members of the National Educational Association in connection with the convention of the association at San Francisco. Plans call for the party to leave New York on June 30, arriving in San Francisco July 4. After the convention the party will leave on July 5 visiting Yosemite Valley, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Santa Barbara, Shasta Springs, Portland, Seattle, Glacier Park, Yellowstone Park, Denver, Mountain Park and Cody Grave, and return with stop-over for sightseeing in Niagara Falls, reaching Boston on August 8. Detailed arrangements are being made by the Lifsey Tours, Inc., of New York.

HANDLE NORTHBOUND TRAFFIC

After the busiest season in the history of the local office of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, John A. Blaser, New England passenger agent, will leave Boston next Monday for Jacksonville, to attend a meeting of Seaboard passenger representatives, following which he will proceed to the station to assist the tourists who have flocked to Florida by reason to their interest. In previous years Mr. Blaser's departure occurred on February 15 or earlier. The vast volume of traffic which has been handled at the local office this season made it impossible for him to get away at an earlier date. He will remain in Florida until April 15, or later.

The northward exodus from Florida points is expected to begin about March 1, gradually increasing in volume until about April 1, when the peak is reached. There has been an increase in recent years in the number of persons who stay until practically Summer, that this year the return limit on tickets was extended until June 15, instead of June 1, as formerly.

SUPPLEMENTS "40 WAYS."

A supplement to the 1923 edition of the booklet "Forty Ways and More to California," published by the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, has just been received at the local offices of the road. This supplement contains full information regarding the cost of transportation over any of the more than forty routes from all the principal points in New England, and also shows the differences in cost via each of the New England roads. This information, which was not contained in the original edition, was embodied in the supplement at the suggestion of J. H. Schultz, New England general agent of the road. Copies of both booklet and supplement may be had, without charge, by application at the office, Room 416 Old South Building, Boston.

APPOINTS EASTERN AGENT.

J. B. McGolrick has been appointed Eastern passenger agent of the Los Angeles Steamship Company with headquarters at No. 1,482 Broadway, New York, according to announcement of R. V. Crowder, general passenger agent. Among the steamers operated by this company are the "Yale" and "Harvard," formerly in the New York to Boston travel.

WOMAN "LIFELESS" 30 MINUTES REVIVED

Portland, Me., Feb. 19.—Mrs. John Hill has been brought back to life at Maine General Hospital after poisoning and asphyxiating herself and becoming "lifeless" for thirty minutes. Mrs. Hill, who is forty-five, was found unconscious by her husband in a room in their home at No. 41 Chestnut street. The police say that in a double attempt at suicide, she swallowed an overdose of formaldehyde sufficient to poison herself, then asphyxiated herself with illuminating gas.

MYSTERY PLAY DEALS WITH SPIRITUALISM

As for "Listening In," the joyful mystery comedy which begins a run at the Wilbur Theatre this evening, the author, Carlyle Moore, says it deals with a power that is still in doubt. Continuing, he says:

"A power to which medicine men, bodysnatchers, spiritualists, mediums and what-not have, in turn, laid claim to, down all the ages; the power to 'Listen In on the Infinite.' To date that claim has neither been proved nor disproved.

"Not long since a renowned material scientist, whose name is familiar to you all, undertook the investigation of spirit phenomena with a view to its exposure as a delusion.

SPIRIT PHENOMENA.

"There is a very flippant saying to the effect that 'the insane asylums are filled with people who can't change their minds.' However that may be, this particular material scientist has sacrificed his former life work as a result of his investigations, has recently graduated and delivered a series of lectures in defence of the subject he had undertaken to view to its exposure as a delusion.

"What convinced this man of spirit phenomena? Was it a delusion of the sub-conscious mind, was it auto-suggestion, or is it above and beyond all these? The question, mark is the symbol of confirmation. The interest of the inquire is one of our most valuable assets, but we must not lose sight of the fact that personal advantage is the motive power back of that instinct.

AVERTS DISASTER

"If it were possible for me to communicate with the all-knowing spirit world, wouldn't it be well for the man—thing to pick up scraps of knowledge and apply them to my worldly ends? Well, perhaps it is and so or not, it is the theory on which 'listening in' is founded.

"I have built my story about a power but eccentric young man of highly moral fibre. Ernest Glendenning plays the part. Sorely against his will he is forced to take the helm of the vessel of which he has established communication with the spirit of an uncle who is leaving his earthly tasks unfinished.

"It appears that the earth-bound spirit seeks release through his nephew, and, by means of automatic writing, he acquaints this nephew of impending disasters that will surely follow if certain human mistakes. Keenly alive to the responsibility that follows upon knowledge, the nephew soon finds himself a sort of clearing house for the prevention of human mistakes."

REAL ESTATE HAPPENINGS

Thomas E. Dempsey has sold to Max Frank the two modern four-story brick and stone buildings at Nos. 2723 Dalvidere street, near Massachusetts avenue, containing four suites of five and six rooms. The total assessed value is $27,000, of which $9,000 is on the 2,300 square feet of land. James H. Brennan and Charles J. Brennan were the brokers.

BRIGHTON AND NEWTON.

Theodore E. Custance has conveyed to Edward A. Hendry title to three single houses at Nos. 50, 53 and 27 Bellamy street, Brighton. These houses were built about a year ago and each contains seven rooms. Each lot, containing 4,000 square feet. The total valuation is $16,900.

G. L. Davidson has bought of L. E. Hesselgren, for Ingeldrew development, a lot containing 12,500 square feet on Nathan road, off Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre. The total value is $4,000. Both of these sales were negotiated by John T. Burns & Son, Inc.

SOUTH END TRANSACTION.

Mary Nichols has sold to Salama and Greeving Realty Co. a three-brick dwelling at No. 23 Decatur street, near Harrison avenue, South End. The assessed value is $7,900, of which $2,400 is on 1,060 square feet of land. James H. Brennan and Charles J. Brennan were the brokers.

RECORD OF TRANSFERS.

The following transfers have been recorded at Suffolk Registry of Deeds, according to the files of the Boston Real Estate Exchange:

CITY PROPER.

J. J. McGaffrey to F. J. Cook, Westland avenue (3 lots).

G. T. Cruft to M. Reilly, W. Newton street.

G. T. Cruft to M. Reilly, W. Newton and St. Botolph streets.

F. S. Ames, et al., to L. T. Clapp, Newbury street.

L. C. Waldron Estate to R. Hitt, et ux., Worcester square.

L. C. Flint Estate to B. Dorens, Pitts street.

L. London to H. Bragg, et al., Andover road.

L. London to G. H. Proulx, Audubon road.

SOUTH BOSTON.

G. D. Hatch to W. H. Hatch, Third street

G. D. Hatch to W. H. Hatch, Dorchester, and Silver streets, Dorchester (2 lots).

H. Marshall, et al., trustee, to H. L. Thorn, K street.

W. Carroll to M. Coffee, E. Second street.

W. Carroll, et ux., to M. Reilly, E. Second street.

M. J. McIsaac to W. Carroll, E. Second street (2 lots).

M. Coffee, et al., to M. E. Carroll, E. Second street (5 lots).

A. Abdalla to Seliaoukas, et ux., Old Harbor street.

ROXBURY.

E. Gallagher to M. N. Gallagher, Langdon street.

L. Lawrence, et al., to M. Loolman, Highland Park street.

M. C. Leonard to L. Campedelle, et al., Sawyer avenue.

First Church in Roxbury to Episcopal City Mission, Dudley and Elm Hill streets.

L. G. Greene, trustee, to A. Richman, Crawford street.

J. Kurland to S. Kline, George street, et al., Dudley and Schneider, Washington street.

DORCHESTER.

C. I. Hewitson to G. Gillman, Mossdeck street.

S. Lundberg to R. M. Holbrook, Savannah avenue (2 lots).

R. M. Holbrook to M. Lundberg, Savannah avenue (2 lots).

F. Clayton to H. W. Grant, et al., Dorchester terrace.

A. Serafinos to J. Kobus, et ux., Boston street.

J. B. Noble to A. J. McGrath, et ux., Walney street.

WEST ROXBURY.

M. E. McPherson to T. J. Kundin, Bodette street.

BRIGHTON.

E. Gerstein, et al., to L. Rosenfeld, Warren and Colon streets.

D. J. Locey to R. T. Chesser, Neponset avenue.

REVERE.

L. D. Griswold Land Company to T. Natoli, Sullivan street (4 lots).

L. D. Griswold Land Company to G. R. Insigo, Wallace and Loomis streets (2 lots).

E. M. Hrubec, et al., to N. Graham, Kimball avenue.

W. E. Morton, et al, trustee, to M. Dote, et ux., Grover and Pemberton street (6 lots).

FAMOUS FREAK IS BACK IN BOSTON

"Zip," made famous by P. T. Barnum as the "What Is It?" and the "Missing Link," is back in town, ready to excite the amazement of throngs at Gordon's Scollay Square Theatre, which stands, curiously enough, on the site of the old Austin & Stone's Museum, where "Zip" made his Boston debut sixty-four years ago.

For this most famous of all circus freaks today at the supposed age of eighty-six, a member of a vaudeville troupe of freaks, giving an act called "Barnum Was Right," may be certainly more than a hundred years old. Any one who looks as young as he did the day he first appeared.

Although it is seldom he gives the slightest sign of intelligence, "Zip" seemed to recognize Scollay square and upon arrival there promptly pointed towards the spot where Austin & Stone's used to stand and emitted a weird sound.

"He's expressing sorrow because the old museum has been torn down," explained "Punch" Allen, manager of the act.

KILLS SELF IN FEAR IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Feb. 19.—Fear of something, according to the police, caused a man who registered as G. A. M. Eagen to commit suicide by shooting in a hotel here. He left a note reading: "In case of death please notify George H. Eagen, Cheshire, Conn., or Frank J. Eagen, Waterbury, Conn. Have the body shipped there and buried in family plot."

Announcements

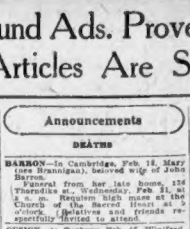
DEATHS

BARRON—In Cambridge, Feb. 16, Marjines Brannigan), beloved wife of John Barron.

Funeral from her late home, 124 Thorndike st., Wednesday, Feb. 21, at 8 a. m. Requiem high mass at the Church of the Sacred Heart at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend.

CUNICK—In Roxbury, Feb 17, Winifred, beloved wife of William H. Cunick (nee Clark).

Funeral from residence, 21 Heath ter., Wednesday, Feb. 21, at 8 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at the Church of the Holy Name at 9 o'clock. Interment private. Late member of Blessed Sacrament Court, No. 187, M. C. O. F.



DETECTIVE AGENCIES

SEE Boston's women detective. Strictly confidential. Private business troubles, 26 School st., Rm. 64. Congress 5377.

PERSONAL

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AI COREY NOTARY. Always home. 44 Cories st., near 210 Columbus av. Phone Dewey 8215-J NOW

Lost and Found

LOST—Diamond, in basket setting, detached from ring. Lost on B. & A. train between Framingham and Boston at 10:30 (arrive of South Station; reward. Apply B. L. FLAGG, 15 Whitefield.

LOST—At Trinity Place station, on Thurs., Feb. 15, at 4:15 p. m., shiny black suitcase, marked A. B. D.; reward if returned and no questions asked. Tel. Arlington 1164-M.

LOST—Lady's gold wrist watch, between Bo. Sta. and Washington st., photo disc, inscription. Dorchester Gas Co." within cases; reward, Dom. 7966-R.

LOST—Feb. 13, in vicinity of the Hollis St. Theatre, lady's green and silver evening bag; reward. 1815; reward.

LOST—Friday noon, Temple place or Tremont st., tortoise shell glasses. Phone Brookline 1523-J or 1524.

LOST—Scotch collie, brown and white; reward. Brookline 2324.

Automobiles

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

¾-TON DODGE SCREEN TRUCK. Good condition; new tires; must sell quick sale. Tel. Everett 1566-M. 61 Chandler st., Winchester.

LATE model 6-cylinder Studebaker touring, $95. 7 Linden st., Somerville. 2434-W.

AUTO ACCESSORIES

TIRE CHAINS, Weed type, 34 heavy cross chains in each pair; 30x3½, $2.49 per pair. BASCOM'S, 224 Columbus av.

MOTOR TRUCKING

WE HAVE short-haul work for 3½ and 5-ton trucks with platform bodies. Apply for work at 511 Atlantic av. Telephone: TOULDEN, SMITH & HOPKINS.

Dancing

EVERYBODY LEARNS AT "LERNER'S" Learn Here Always Welcome ONE LESSON CONVINCES IF YOU HAVE FAILED ELSEWHERE COME TO "LERNER'S" Private and class lessons daily and evenings. Know what you're paying for.

LERNER'S NEW ACADEMY OF DANCING 355 Mass. av., at Hunt. Tel. Tr. B. 9333.

FLORENCE KELLY 468 Huntington Ave., Cor. Mass. Ave. 50c Learn quickly latest modern ballroom dancing; beginners specially considered; results with eight lessons. We guarantee it. Evening class on 4 Sat. nights. Call and see us or call any time. Open 10 a. m. to 10 P. M. Suburb Sta. and Sat. eve. Tel. 7602 Back Bay.

Wm. H. O'Brien

Boston 200 Huntington Ave. Tel. B. B. 1273 Private and Class Instruction Daily

Salem 209 Essex St. Forty assistants at your service

IF YOU WANT TO LEARN SOFT-SHOE DANCING SEE ME Comedy Acrobatic, Waltz-Cue, Buck-Wing, Fancy, Eccentric. Tel. Copley 1244-W.

MABEL G. HALL 286 Hunt. Av. Tel. B. B. 8161 Private lesson 75c. Anytime.

HAY STATE SCHOOL, 1031 Washington st., Boston—Socials Mon., Wed. Sat.; classes Tues., Thurs.; private lessons daily. 10-years.

HENNESSY House, Boston-Somerville classes, socials, private lessons. Children and adult classes. Circular 176 Tremont st.

ALICE LOUISE Dancing Bee FAY PRICE $50 Mass av., Camb. Univ. 3461-W.

Employment

HELP WANTED—FEMALE

WOMAN WANTED

EXPERIENCED in trimming slippers and pumps and general repair work in first-class factory. Statement of references required. F. E. MOULTON CO., 105 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

EXPERIENCED girl on window shade machine. WILLIAM M. KELLY & CO., 82 Sudbury st.

YOUNG GIRL for general housework, good position. 13 Wilcox st., Dorchester; tel. 740-M.

Employment

HELP WANTED—FEMALE

WANTED

EXPERIENCED

Side Lasters & Bed Lasters

On Men's Goodyear Welt Shoes

Alfred Kimball Shoe Co.

South Lawrence, Mass

BOYS WANTED—PERM. POSITION; GOOD PAY. APPLY A. FRENO, 169 CONGRESS, REAR ENTRANCE.

LINOLEUM and carpet man wanted; first class man capable of laying for high grade linoleum and carpet trade. State salary expected and names entered to EASTERN FURNITURE COMPANY, 184 Exchange st., Bangor, Maine.

WANTED—Men for general work. Apply in person at MERRIMAC CHEM. CO., 305 Western Ave.

HELP WANTED—MALE

WANTED

EXPERIENCED MAKERS on boots, lumbermen's and gaiters.

Boston Rubber Shoe Co.

183 Commercial St.

MALDEN

AGENTS, CANVASSERS, SALESMEN

SALESMEN—Prominent manufacturer desires to organize sales offices; $2,000 daily; expense money and weekly bonus. Men with selling ability average $40 weekly. Call Room 636, Walker Bldg.

INSTRUCTION AND TRAINING

7 AUTO LESSONS $5

FULL CHAUFFEUR'S COURSE $14

CITY SCHOOL. Positions guaranteed. 17 CENT. 4 Appleton st., near Arlington sq.; open eves.

For Sale—Miscellaneous

ARTICLES FOR SALE

LARGE railroad stoves reduced to $15 to $25. BOSTON STOVE EXCHANGE, 15 Merrimac st.

Kerosene & Oil-Gas Burners, $10 to $25. Boston Stove Exchange, 53 Merrimac St.

BUSINESS EQUIPMENT

National Cash Registers

RESULT, bought and sold. F. I. KNIGHT INC., 19 Blackstone st. Richmond 2196.

CASH REGISTERS

FOR SALE—Two good as new Lexington Steel Firepoof Account Registers, one and two drawer. Our price $125 each. T. 92, Boston American.

DOGS, CATS, PETS

PORTUGUESE poodles, silky white toy puppies, very lively, for sale. H. JANCEY, Elwood st., Everett, Mass.; Everett 0440-W.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

DROPHEAD Singer machine like new $10 5 Central sq., Camb. MRS. ECMUND.

$65 SEWING machine, drophead, used 31 days, Inman st., Camb. MISS FOLEY.

HORSES, CATTLE, VEHICLES

$125 Private Pair Farm Morgans for Sale Separately. 885 Elsen

YOUNG horse, 1,100 pounds, harness, weighing 1,500, ages 7 and 8, cost $500, in A-1 condition; will sell for $250 or trade. Call private residence, 44 Medford st., corner Bow, Somerville, or Mystic 2139-M.

$25—ELEGANT Stanhope top, rubber tired buggy and elegant Swiss brass plate harness. 7 Linden st., Somerville. 1456-W.

ICE CHESTS AND STORE FIXTURES

For Grocers, Markets, Restaurants Whitmen Co. — Sullivan Sq.

JEWELRY AND WATCHES

WATCH REPAIRING

Main Springs 50c Cleaning .75c
Mainsprings .75c Crystals .10c
We Are Experts on Swiss Watches
All Work Guaranteed
KREY'S SHOP, Opposite Raymond's
361 Washington St.

ALSTERLUND

Diamonds, Old Gold, Silver, Platinum. Profit, retail prices. Open evenings. 87 SCHOOL ST.

WATCHES, DIAMONDS ON CREDIT. WATCH repairing, Guaranteeing. Sec. Open evenings. Pay as you please. Open evenings. J. E. ROUND & CO., 774 Washington st.

$7 WEEK. DIAMOND and WATCHES. DOWN. Large stock. Lowest prices. L. H. BRUCE & CO., 9 Broomfield st.

PLUMBING SUPPLIES

PLUMBING SUPPLIES

Direct from Factory Prices

STATE SUPPLY CO.

19 UNION STREET, BOSTON

Plumbing Supplies Sold Direct. Boston Phone Richmond 1066

Plumbing Supplies Sold Direct. Boston Phone 2 Liv. Supply Co., near No. Sta., 145-7 Portland st. 2U

WEARING APPAREL

MOVERS Heading, Hand and Sole-sewing, Platform, Upper-lasting, Finishing, Welting, Heeling. Tel. Beach 5315 S. WINTER ST., 6957708 Beach 6589

SAMPLE fur coats, trimmed and untrimmed, at wholesale. 76 Westland ave., Boston.

SAM'S—HIGH PRICE PAID FOR MEN'S USED CLOTHING. 123 ELIOT ST.

WIGS AND TOUPEES

High Grade Toupees $20

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Wigs MANICURING

101 TREMONT ST., Boston Suite 317

Furnished Rooms

ROOMS WITHOUT BOARD

HOTEL WASHINGTON

A HOTEL of 250 steam-heated rooms with all improved conveniences at lodging house prices. Think it over and 31 Beach. Hay 7454.

TWO ROOMS Furnished or unfurnished, steam heated, light, housekeeping if old Camb. near Harvard College. Tel. Kenmore 8388.

BACK BAY—Warm, sunny front and back rooms, 2nd, 4th floors; light housekeeping; reasonable rent. Back Bay 4488.

BROOKLINE—Unexpectedly vacated, one or two warm sunny rooms in private apartment, near train and trolley. Brook. 1he 2497-M.

FURN rm. with kitchenette for light housekeeping. 2 Montrose pl., Chas'n.

HEATED alcove room, bathroom floor, suitable for two business women. Prudential district. Dorchester 4803-M.

KITCHENETTE, $3—Steam heat, $2 up. F. H. CONNAUGHTON, 48 Union Park.

ROOMS TO LET—Furnished, steam heat; rent reasonable. Apply janitor, 2 Prince st., Beacon Hill. 76 Essex st. Dorchester.

ROXBURY—35 Lambert ave., steam heated front room and kitchenette, every convenience; 1st.

UPTON ST., 25—Nicely furn. square rm. with kitchenette, steam heat, tel.

1 FURNISHED rm. rng. single $7.50; double $3.50; hot water, furnace heat. 312 Prescott st., near Pleasant st., near Central sq.; University 3283-R.

10 OUTSIDE rooms, steam heat; 75c day, $2 per week. 130 Dartmouth st.

Musical Instruments

Henry F. Miller

Used Pianos

This Week's Offerings Taken in Exchange for

Henry F. Miller Pianos

Henry F. Miller Grand	$500
Henry F. Miller Grand	400
Henry F. Miller Grand	375
Mason & Hamlin Grand	300
Steinway Upright	295
Harrington Upright	250
Decker (Mason) Upright	241
Lesley Upright	240
Miller Upright	225
Miller Upright	225
Miller Upright	225
Wood Upright	195
Fletcher Upright	190
Meister Upright	175
Steinway Upright	165
Heilerman Upright	155
Estey Upright	150
Gabler Upright	145
Ivers & Pond Upright	145
Dussenberry Upright	125
Marshall & Wendell Upright	125
Chickering Upright	100
Bacon Upright	85
New England Upright	75
Autopiano Player	375
Werner Player	335
Steinway Player	325
Newton Player	295

Henry F. Miller & Sons Piano Co.

395 Boylston Street

Near Arlington, Subway Station

Always Reliable

Easy Terms

Estab. 1849

Ilshed 1849

UPRIGHT PIANOS

$25 $50 $68

as low as

$6 down, $1 weekly

$8-note player $175

50 rolls music free

New piano half price

Best Piano Bargains in Boston

Used Chickering Uprights, $69, $88, $175, $225. Mahog. & Davis Steinway Vose Uprights & Pond. Mason & Hamlin made many others, $99 to $158. Several new pianos $150 $175; also Aeolian & Wurlitzer warerooms in New England. A visit is well worth your while.

J. P. COLLINS

100 Summer Street, Boston Largest piano dealer in the world

NORRIS 181 TREMONT ST. AUTOPIANO

CONSIDERED the best player piano made; construction most durable, no rubber tubes to wear out and leak; perfect music tracking device. Send for booklet. Sold only by PEARL A. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st. We are assistive representative.

WE OFFER 50 used upright pianos, standard makes, from $100; 20 player pianos from $200; now is the time to make a saving, as we return you 100% on all makes to rent. Warerooms open every evening.

KRANICH & BACH, Hallet & Davis, Mehlhall, Poole, Weser Bros., Brubert, and Stock of 300 beautiful new pianos; 50 used pianos from $100 up. 161 Tremont st. Small grands our specialty.

HIGH-GRADE PIANOS, player-pianos, talking machines. Rental plan. Open evenings. DURRELL'S, 2300 Washington St., Dudley Terminal.

USED PIANOS, standard makes, guaranteed, from $100. $128 up; terms $1, $1.25, $1.50 wkly. BROOKS, 12 Boylston st., 1 fl.

$125 SUPER upright piano, plain style, 7 pedals, nice tone. 141 Worcester st., Boston.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION

JAZZ the SAXOPHONE IN 24 PRIVATE LESSONS, guaranteed. CHRISTENSEN, 704 Dexter Bldg., 412 Washington st.

Real Estate for Rent

APARTMENTS AND FLATS

24 HAMMOND ST., Hyde Park; newly tiled; blocks from Northampton st.); 4 and 5-room suites, $17 and $18.

3 GROSVENOR Pl., off Cliff st., Roxbury, 3 large rooms; all improvements; adult family.

APARTMENTS WANTED

6 OR 7 ROOMS

APARTMENT wanted in Back Bay near Mass. and Hunt. aves. for March 1st or no still pay between $50 and $70. Modern improvements. Write or call TROP, LEGLISE, 218 Mass. ave. B. B. 9255.

STORES AND OFFICES TO LET

DESK ROOM FOR RENT. HADDOCK BROS., 25 Purchase st. Congress 2576.

Real Estate—For Sale

HOUSES FOR SALE

ROXBURY HOMES

Cliff st., 9 rooms and bath, handy to Dudley terminal; price $10,000.

Dupont Ave., brick house, 8 rooms, with improvements; price $11,000.

Palestine st., wooden, 3-tenement, 2 toilets, tiled kitchens; price $10,000.

Juniper St., 5-family, brick, 11 rooms, with vestibule; rented $1,500; price $13,000.

For sale by CRUFF & BYRNE, 1376 Washington st. B. B. 8300.

Brighton—2-Family

Splendid 2-family colonial home, 5-6 rooms, fireplace in living room, steam heat, each apartment; price for $60 mo., in Hunnewell Hill district, excellent surrounding; rented $1,200. Phone or for appointment. JOHN T. BURNS & SONS, Inc., 370 Washington st. North 4334 and Centre Newton 4190.

NEW 3-APT. HOUSE of 6-room suites in Brighton, shown in care of 02849; corner location, separate heaters, large kitchen, front and back porches, combination coal and gas stove; conveniently located on Brighton av.; easy to be sold at once. Call MR. MURPHY, Brighton 2924.

WANTED

Roxbury, Dorchester and Jamaica Plain. One, two or three-family houses, as investment properties at reasonable prices. We have many real buyers when we have not been able to suit and can get quick action on attractive properties. P. W. KRENN & SON, 369 Warren st. Phone Roxbury 0490.

ROXBURY

5-FAMILY HOUSE, on intervals st., 5-6 rooms to a tenement; electricity; room for garage; price $19,500; cash $2,500 or $3,000. JOHN T. BURNS & SON, 370 St. Botolph st., Boston.

New 2-Family House

IN BRIGHTON

6-room suite, room for two-car garage, only $150 cash required. MR. MURPHY, Brighton 2924.

Rock Island, Quincy

5-ROOM BUNGALOW

All modern improvements, glass-in porch; 200 feet land. Granite 1237-M.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGES

Second Mortgages

I have several choice second mortgages; give description of property in first letter. Address Xpress warerooms

SECOND MORTGAGE MONEY—No delay. N. QUINT, 27 School st., room 812.

Travel and Transportation

NEW YORK $5.19

Via Rail and Boat

Leaves Providence with running water for $1.00. Latest connecting train from the west yields only 2 hours' wait; leaves Providence 7 P. M.

COLONIAL LINE Phone Cong. 2788

BAY STATE LINE VIA RAIL & BOAT NEW YORK $5.19

OUTSIDE STATEROOMS $1.50

Steel Steamships Georgia and Tennessee. Leave Providence 7 P. M. daily. Tickets and staterooms at South Station, Back Bay and Consolidated Ticket Offices.

Business Opportunities

When Selling Your Business

BE SURE and list it with the one that gives you service. HURST, 19 Tremont st. Beach 7160.

STORE FOR RENT—Busy section of Dorchester; 2 floors; 30x80; suitable for line of business except fruit. R 12, Boston American.

A WANT AD IN THE EVENING AMERICAN BRINGS SURE RESULTS

Classified Display

BUSINESS SERVICE

DEFECTIVE NOSES (ALL KINDS) CORRECTED

Corrected painlessly without loss of time; no cutting except in extreme cases where a cutting operation is best; most satisfactory method and results guaranteed; no work in bandaging required. Also Outstanding Ears, Receding Chins, Hollow Cheeks, Sunken Eyelids, Deep Lines, Sagging Face, Protruding Lips, Receding Forehead, Hair, Moles, Warts, Freckles, Pimples, Wrinkles, Blackheads, Oily Skin, Acne, Pimples, Blotches, Red Veins, Red Nose, Birthmarks and all Facial Blemishes corrected and permanently removed.

New method for removing wrinkles; deep folds or age-lines in 3 years. Dr. Reid's Cutting Operation corrects at once; permanently.

Latest treatment for permanent removal of Freckles, Moth, Moles, Pits, Blotches, etc. Consultation Free. Hours 9 to 6 daily; Sundays 10 to 1. Lines, Blotches, etc. Consultation Free. Hours 9 to 6 daily; Sundays 10 to 1.

BEWARE OF IMITATORS and those claiming to use the same methods.

EUSTACE P. REID, M. D., Boylston St. Boston

100 Boylston St. Room 829

Dr. Reid's business is built up on merit alone. He has been in this city 30 years and has been devoting his time to this specialty many more years than any other individual practicing in New England making similar claims.

Oldest and best equipped establishment of its kind. Tel. Beach 807

Call, write or send 6 cents for Face Book

NASAL or other features deformed, injured painlessly and without loss of time. Blemishes removed by 10th Ave. STANLEY GIBSON, 110 Boylston st., Boston. Phone Beach 1726.

STORAGE

HUB STORAGE WAREHOUSE

649 Washington st. Tel. Beach 8. Rates $1 a mo. up. Lowest and bonded.

DOGS, CATS, PETS

Freak Animals Wanted — State

LOWEST PRICE, send photo. REVERE BEACH FREAK ANIMAL SHOW, W. M. Hultman, 5 Ashmont park, Lynn Mass.

WANT ADS IN THE AMERICAN BRING QUICK RESULTS

Why not believe that all men are good under the skin and a blue bird waits at the end of every road?
—A. C. Drew, business man.

BOSTON ~~from~~ AMERICAN

Largest Evening Circulation in New England—February 19, 1923

Boston postal district in 1921 served a population of 1,789,566 through seventy-eight stations and branches, with 1,473 carriers.

No Repeal of 48-Hour Law

Social Welfare Committee Shows Its Opinion of Editor Bennett's Bill

One Howard Bennett, who runs a textile journal, had the effrontery to appear before the Labor Committee of the New Hampshire Legislature and say that the forty-eight-hour law would be repealed in Massachusetts so that women and minors could be compelled to work fifty-four hours a week in mills.

In New Hampshire they are fighting over the forty-eight-hour law. The House passed the bill with an impressive majority. The present Governor was elected on the forty-eight-hour law platform. The Republican Senate, under orders from party bosses, faces the impossible task of killing the bill and making the people like it.

We have the limitation of forty-eight hours a week in our State. The mills opposing that schedule in New Hampshire say that Southern competition would drive the industries out of New Hampshire if they adopted the forty-eight-hour law. Those who are in favor of the law cite the success of the cotton mills in Massachusetts.

This, man Bennett went into New Hampshire and told them that Governor Cox probably meant that the forty-eight-hour law was a failure when he declared that Massachusetts would take no backward step in legislation for women and children.

This construction of the Governor's inaugural address was perfectly amazing and yet it did not seem as if an intelligent human being would dare go to a neighboring State and publicly give such an interpretation to the address unless he had some special authority so to do.

Therefore, a representative of the Boston American saw the Governor and called his attention to this interpretation of his address. The Governor has very indignantly stated that he meant exactly what he said in his address; that he would not want the State to go a step backward in either the repeal or the amendment of the forty-eight-hour law, as he was perfectly satisfied that it was a good law.

We wonder what manner of a man Mr. Bennett calculates the Governor of Massachusetts is?

The Massachusetts Committee on Social Welfare has given its opinion of Mr. Bennett by voting its unanimous disapproval of his bill to repeal the forty-eight-hour law.

We believe it is right the legislators of New Hampshire should know just how vain are the tricks of Mr. Bennett in this State.

"A Little Kicking" for Boys

You Wouldn't Kick Your Watch

Copyright, 1923, Star Company

England is agitated, mildly, about the death of a schoolboy at Eton. He did not play football well with his young companions. They kicked him a little, and ridiculed him. He stabbed himself to the heart with a penknife. The distinguished headmaster, W. Hamilton Fyfe, of Christ's Hospital, when asked about the boy's death, said: "A mild kick might not be a bad thing for a boy at times." That particular kick was certainly a bad thing for that boy.

The headmaster seemed to agree that a certain amount of hazing and kicking would be beneficial to small English boys. But the British public seems to doubt it.

How does the headmaster explain Pitt and his healthy older brother? The older brother got the title, went to Eton, to the university, got kicks they gave him, kicked others, smaller, in his turn, and never amounted to anything.

Pitt, the delicate younger brother, stayed at home with his father, heard statesmen talk at his father's table instead of being kicked by small boys. He was Chancellor of the Exchequer when hardly out of his teens and then Prime Minister at twenty-five. His brother was never heard of except as Pitt's brother. He, not kicked, was the man that kept Napoleon out of England.

You wouldn't let anybody break the mainspring in your watch. You shouldn't allow anyone, if you can help it, to break the mainspring in your son. His COURAGE and SELF-RESPECT are his mainspring.

Lesson of Paul F. Downey

Paul F. Downey, a young bank clerk who has been arrested for defalcation, says that he began his downward career by betting three dollars on a horse and winning five. It is those small but bad beginnings which lead to disaster.

There is a point in the Northwest called the Great Divide. At that point if a knifeblade lying upright and running east and west should cut a drop of rain in two one-half of it would flow on to the Gulf of Mexico and the other half would flow north into the frozen Hudson Bay; those two parts of that little raindrop emptying themselves into the Atlantic Ocean thousands of miles apart.

That is often the result of a little decision the right way or the wrong way. The divergence of the sides of an angle close up to the angle can be seen only by a microscope. But as the lines travel farther and farther they diverge more and more until thousands of miles separate them. Thus it is with human habits and with human careers and with human points of view. The tiniest divergence at the point of beginning in a young man's career may send him in a few years so far on the wrong road that disaster alone can stop it.

The moral is not to begin. Don't take the first strong drink. Don't make the first bet. Don't break the ice of good habits which hold you above the dark waters of oblivion.

Making Their Flesh Creep--

And Their Pocketbooks Perspire

Copyright, 1923, Star Company

Now, the dust settled, a gentleman confesses that during the war terrible plots, radical revolutionary uprisings were imagined, out of whole cloth here in America. The idea was "to bleed big business." Apart from the ethical side, it wasn't a bad idea.

When big business gets frightened it gets TERRIBLY frightened and will believe anything. Pickwick's boy wanted "To make your flesh creep."

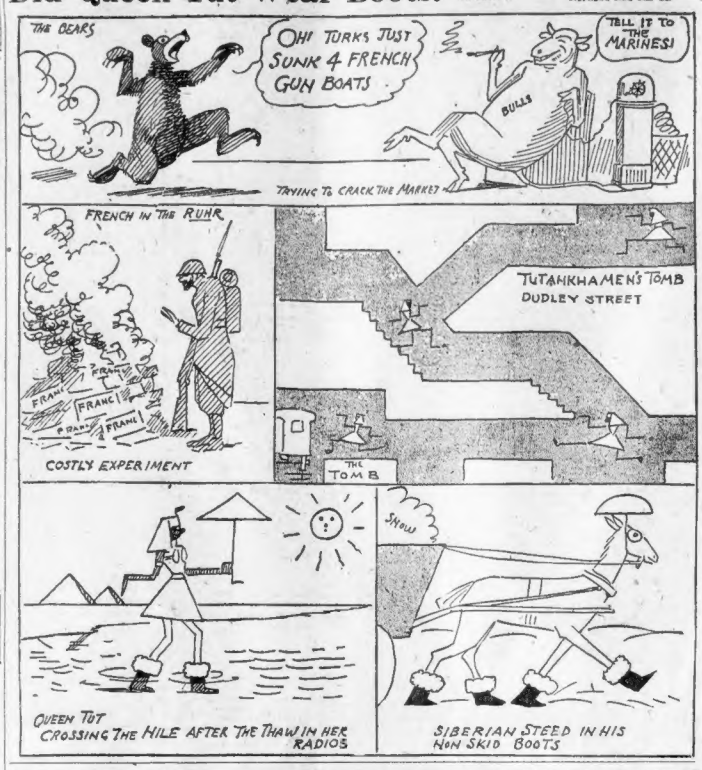
Several American detectives got rich making big business's flesh creep. And some, in public office, found it profitable to make the people's flesh creep, with their revolutionary fairy stories. There isn't enough of a real revolutionary movement in the United States to upset a small village. But foolish fear can upset a good deal.

Did Queen Tut Wear Boots?

We Want to Know

By T. E. Powers

Copyright, 1923, Star Co.



SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

HENRY FORD

By Bruno Lessing

I RECEIVED a letter from a man, the other day, abusing me because I considered Henry Ford's presidential campaign as a joke.

"If you prove to me that he didn't raise workingmen's wages," he wound up, "or give the farmers cheap autos, I'll agree with you. Otherwise you have not got a leg to stand on."

Unfortunately I cannot prove either of these things. Or, I should say, fortunately. Because I like to see everybody's wages raised and I like to see farmers' automobiles getting better and better and cheaper and cheaper, every day. And I admit cheerfully that Henry Ford raises wages and makes good, cheap autos. But, just the same, I wouldn't care to have him operate on me for appendicitis.

Ford's "peace ship" was a silly idea. It was well-meaning, but it ended in a laughable fizzle, as all intelligent people knew it would. His hatred of Jews displays an unbalanced, badly-equipped thinking process. And his repeated assertion that history is "bunk," ought to prove to everyone that his store of knowledge is limited.

This country is not a business corporation. It is not a club. It is not a settlement of farmers or laborers or of small investors. It is the most gigantic experiment in the art of science of government that was ever undertaken. To make this experiment a success, with all the rest of the world, like a pack of wolves, at our door, to make 100,000,000 people of all kinds and creeds and beliefs and occupations, happy and prosperous, will require the finest, the best-trained and the broadest mind that this country can produce. And anything less than that is a joke.

Copyright, 1923, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Scotland Yard Guards Tourists

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Scotland Yard is on a sharp lookout for sharps and tricksters who are reported to be drifting back to London in anticipation of the American tourist season.

Strange to say, the American "wise guy" at home is "easy meat" for the trickster when he arrives in London.

THE VOICE OF NEW ENGLAND

No Attention Paid to Anonymous Communications

Driver Got Coal

Editor Boston American:

Some news! A coal dealer of Melrose, Driver sent to credit customer with two tons of coal. Driver finds coal bins filled to ceiling. Takes away his coal and dumps it into his own cellar. Driver passes money into office. Driver quizzed as customer never paid cash. Explanations follow. Driver discharged. "Call out your sleuths." FROM A LAW-ABIDING REBELLIOUS CITIZEN PERCHED ON THE FENCE, WAITING FOR A LEADER.

Should Be Removed

Editor Boston American:

Human nature is the same everywhere, so the State of Massachusetts should have for a fuel administrator a man who is in no way connected with the coal or transportation interests. In the interest of humanity, Mr. Phelan should be removed at once.

HELEN G. MAYBURY.
Worcester.

Phelan's Commandment

Editor Boston American:

The first impression in my mind was that J. J. Phelan did break his own rule, but in going over the matter again I have come to the conclusion that if he actually used three tons for all around purposes in the thirty days, that he did not break his own rule, but if it took less than three tons for the thirty days, then he did break his own rule.

WALTER BLYENTON.
East Millinocket, Me.

Law for All

Editor Boston American:

If there is one law for the fuel administrator and another law for the people, no doubt Mr. Phelan had a right to have anthracite coal in several ton lots. If there is one law for all, Mr. Phelan is a violator of his own legal law as well as the fourth commandment.

H. G. M.

Looked Out for Number One

Editor Boston American:

The Massachusetts emergency fuel administrator was certainly looking out for Number One and in my estimation broke his own rule and enforced it strong for others.

B. FREEMAN.

THE HELPING HAND

Do Not Inclose Stamps. Letters Will Not Be Answered Personally. No Attention Paid to Telephone Calls

Check for $5

Editor Helping Hand:

Since I've been playing here I've read your column nightly. I like its intent and purpose. There really should be an exchange or mart of that nature in each of our cities. It gives poor folks a chance to apply for something they want and can use in exchange for the things they don't need.

Enclosed please find my check for $5, with which you will no doubt be able to do a bit of alleviation in some worthy instance where a Helping Hand is needed. Sincerely yours,

"JESS" DANDY.

ED. NOTE—This warms the cockles of our heart, and we will go and see "Just Married" again and look at the author of this kindness. Yes, there are plenty of uses for the fiver, and in a day or two we will announce what has been done with it.

Want Friends

Editor Helping Hand:

We would like to become acquainted with some couple (Protestant), who are of about our own age (25). We have nice automobile, although it is now laid up on account of the weather. We have a radio also. We would teach the other couple to drive the car, and he can help take care of it if he likes to fuss around a motor. My husband is a World War veteran, and we have lived all our lives in Everett.

EVERETT.

Clothes for Baby

Editor Helping Hand:

I have some infant's clothes that I will gladly send to Mrs. E. C. J. by parcel post. Kindly send her address.

JACK'S MOTHER.

ED. NOTE—Her address will be sent you. Thank you.

Kewpie Dolls

Editor Helping Hand:

I have two very pretty kewpie dolls, 24 inches high, fully dressed, that I would like to give to some little cripple. I hope you will continue your helping hand, as there are so many that are benefited by it.

MRS. G. T.

Lonesome Girl

Editor Helping Hand:

I am a little ten-year-old girl and very lonesome. My father died last Summer and my mother works. Has any kind reader a little male dog they could give me?

VIRGINIA.

WORDS FROM THE LIPS OF WISE MEN

ABSENT friends should be sacred.

* * *

One cheer is better than a dozen groans.

* * *

All men are worthy of observation—not all are worthy of imitation.

* * *

It is not good to be unfortunate, but it is often good to have been so.

* * *

A house begins with a brick, a quarrel with a word.

* * *

If none took and none gave offence, good-will would reign.

* * *

Peace is not helped by giving others a piece of your mind.

* * *

Those who bear ill-will usually get their load increased.

* * *

The idle man kills time. Time kills the idle man.

* * *

Pedantry crams our heads with learned lumber, and takes out our brains to make room for it.

* * *

Nature has given us one tongue and two ears that we may hear more than we speak.

Bangs Again in Style in London

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Bangs, a woman's hairdressing fashion which lapsed in England after the armistice, have been restored by Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, the affianced bride of the Duke of York. Hundreds of girls, from debutantes to stenographers, are now wearing the "Lady Elizabeth bang," which is quite long, hanging to within an inch of the eyebrows.

GREATER TRADE WITH JAPAN

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 19.—Trade possibilities between the United States and Japan are just beginning to be realized, according to I. Suzuki, Japan's foremost steamship operator.

He predicts a great increase in transpacific traffic between America and the Nipponese Empire during the coming years.

Suzuki, visiting America for the first time in twenty-five years, is amazed at changes.

FOREIGN NEWS IS AGAIN BETWEEN THE LINES

By Herbert Kaufman

MONSIEUR CLEMENCEAU eats onion soup and says nothing. A strange and significant silence.

Meanwhile we wait for disclosure of those vast stores of Hun arms and munitions, and for word of the secretly drilling forces suggested in his speeches and articles when here.

One is forced to believe that the Tiger's visit to America was a subtly staged prelude to Poincare's program.

Belgium saws wood and wears a muffler. Mussolini is not talking. President Harding and Secretary Hughes play sphinx.

Holland, France and Scandinavia maintain muteness and neutrality. Not a peep from Tokio.

Or from Moscow, as France sticks her head further through the reparations window and camel-like proceeds to crowd into possession of Germany.

All pretense of mere economic occupation is gone.

General Degoutte hints and the British Cabinet claims that Paris prefers the Ruhr basin to indemnity.

France would rather render that fat goose than take a gradual share of its eggs.

Cuno knows this. He realizes that conflict between polity and population will sooner or later inflame the situation and dreads to see his country spitted on a bayonet.

Ludendorff has been asked to curb the activities of the nationalist group. If war breaks now, Germany's future is cooked.

The British hold on to their little strip of territory and keep it closed to French troops and trains.

Eighty-eight Labor members of Parliament petition Washington to join in a world conference and help avert a catastrophe of indefinite scope.

Matters are coming to a head.

The mark has dropped from forty to nineteen thousand—dollar value.

There's more than financial manipulation in that. Take it rather as anticipation of international action.

Important foreign news is again between the lines this afternoon.

The Man Who Believed in America

Andrew Carnegie considered the United States Steel Corporation was hopelessly overwatered by its founders.

So he played safe and took nothing but bonds for his plants.

Those bonds are now listed at 103. Steel common, drowning in suspicion, sold at $10 a share during the 1907 panic. Yesterday it was quoted a little above 107, with a book value of $265.

You may remember how popular opinion crucified Morgan for capitalizing the concern at a billion dollars.

Within two decades the business is worth almost three billions, after paying enormous taxes, which were not even contemplated at the time of organization.

Morgan believed in America. He foresaw and foretold an industrial development without parallel or obstruction.

Our future is in the hands of optimists. The man who doesn't think that tomorrow will be bigger than today tears a hole in his pocket.

A Prince Who Once Played Pauper

The new Italian Ambassador knows more about the United States than you do.

He studied engineering in an Eastern college, shoveled his information out of Montana mines, dug it in the gold fields of Alaska and learned about us in labor camps and stamping mills.

If some of our own diplomats were as well qualified to deal with their responsibilities, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Hoover would have fewer tangles to straighten.

If more of our administrators were as familiar with workers' problems we'd have less economic confusion.

If people generally knew about Fascisti spirit we'd better understand why Italy is on the verge of vast destinies.

Anything may come out of a kingdom where paupers become Prime Ministers and whose Princes can play the pauper.

A Plot for Frances Hodgson Burnett

Frances Hodgson Burnett, who loved to peep in garrets and invoke fairy godmothers, would find rich possibilities in "The Tale of the Struggling Artist and the Millionaire's Daughter."

There are two Ruth Morgans—one with nothing but hopes and ambitions—one who receives twenty-five-hundred-dollar checks for spending money.

Mischance, or possibly the curious Fate sisters, sent the twenty-five hundred dollars to the girl in the hallroom. She promptly returned it.

One of Mrs. Burnett's nice little stories would begin to grow interesting at this point.

But such things happen exclusively in the land of imagination. Mysterious Oriental servants only creep out of books, with secret gifts of food and raiment for browbeaten orphans.

Nabobs in real life never go searching for the shabby widows of childhood friends. And the Morgan incident probably closed with a criticism of postal service.

Still, it would have been wonderful, if——

He Fed the Penniless and Unemployed

All sentimentalists aren't scratches of novelist ink.

Thousands of hungry men live through every Chicago Winter at Charlie Dawes' expense. General "Hell and Maria" has mercy for misfortune, if not for mismanagement.

Nathan Straus counts his declining years and charity-shrunk fortune, only regretting that he cannot live longer to give more.

But Gustave Shuman is dead. Not a nabob he. Hardly a rich man. Yet poverty never turned from his bakeshop without a loaf.

Regularly at midnight, from park and dosshouse and doorway, the sons of Lazarus—the beaten men—the wastrels—the homeless and helpless—victims of self-circumstance—came to eat of his bounty.

He started and supported New York's famous breadline.

And that line is his epitaph.

(Copyright, 1923, by King Features Syndicate.)